

DEFENSE BASED ON SNOOK'S STORY

DOG RACES OPERATE WITHOUT BETTING; AWAIT TRIAL RESULT

Full Program Held As Sheriff Looks On At Track

Operators of the Fairfield dog track have temporarily given up the first attempt to hold greyhound races in Greene County with the "contribution and refund" system of wagering in vogue.

Although dog racing was resumed at the track Friday night with Sheriff Ohmer Tate, eight deputies and nearly 3,000 spectators on hand, no attempt was made to open the betting booths, the promoters having decided to abide by the "no-betting" edict of Prosecuting Attorney J. Carl Marshall until the twenty-four employees arrested Thursday night are given a hearing next Monday morning in Common Pleas Court on gambling charges.

Acting on instructions of Prosecutor Marshall, Sheriff Tate and his force of deputies proceeded to the track to guard against a second attempt to introduce wagering in connection with the races, but the precautionary measure, as it turned out, was unnecessary.

Authorities found nothing to do but keep a close check on reported handbooks among the patrons of the races. Although the management was not advised that any bets were being made, authorities believe that bookies were in the crowd, although no evidence could be obtained.

Charles Fay, Middletown, president of the Fairfield Amusement Park, Ltd., announced that the races would again be run on schedule Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock but that the promoters desire to co-operate with county officials in suspending betting until the outcome of the hearing Monday.

Fay and other operators of the track insist that the "contribution" system is legal and works on the plan of spectators "donating" investments on the dogs, and receiving "refunds" above expenses in the event they back winning runners. Prosecutor Marshall, however, took the stand that this system constitutes gambling.

The system has been the subject of bitter dispute between racing interests and law enforcement agencies in Ohio for more than two years. It has never been settled satisfactorily in the courts.

Without the betting feature, much of the glamor of the opening night's racing was lacking but the grandstand was well filled and the spectators appeared to derive a certain amount of enjoyment from watching the hounds chase a mechanical rabbit around the track. The Osborn band furnished music as on the preceding evening.

Fulfilling its promise, operators of the track settled with all customers who were deprived of their money Thursday night when authorities raided the betting booths just before the pay-off on the eighth and last race of the card. All holders of winning tickets, who had not cashed them Thursday night, were paid off at the cashier windows Friday night.

GLIDER PULLED BY BLIMP

AKRON, July 27.—Residents of Akron witnessed a strange sight yesterday when the Goodyear blimp "Vigilant" towed a glider, was the first time in history that the feat had been attempted.

The glider, piloted by W. H. Franklin, 20, Michigan University student, cut loose from the blimp over Akron airport at an altitude of 2,000 feet and made a perfect landing on the airport.

With Jack Boettner and Augie O'Neil piloting the blimp a perfect takeoff was made. The blimp started across the airport at a low speed, pulling the glider with a 475-foot cable.

Boettner reached an altitude of 2,500 feet. When directly over the field and while at an altitude of 2,000, Franklin cut the glider loose from the blimp.

Franklin then circled the field six times and brought the ship to a perfect landing in the center of the airport.

The glider has a forty-foot span, weighs 350 pounds and a surface of 200 square feet.

Waited at Church

Charging that he backed out of their marriage five times, after she had prepared two trousseaus, Alma Pinkerton, above, pretty 24-year-old bookkeeper of St. Louis, has filed a $300,000 breach of promise suit against Max Manne, wealthy furniture manufacturer. She also alleges he re-proposed after the suit was filed.

CONFERENCE TO END CHINESE RAILROAD DISPUTE PROPOSED

Rumored Mukden Is Inclined To Peace Move Soon

MOSCOW, July 27.—The possibility of conference between Chinese and Soviet officials for the peaceful settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway dispute in the Far East was foreshadowed by an official dispatch from Vladivostok today, declaring it was rumored that the Mukden authorities were inclining "toward a solution of the conflict with the Soviet union through an understanding in spirit of the Soviet note."

The official dispatch reported that "Mukden has undertaken steps to inform the Soviet union of these plans."

This brief dispatch, unobtrusively sandwiched in among other news about the Chinese affair, was seen by many to hold the whole answer to the question of peace in Manchuria.

Meanwhile the press today continued to report alleged "atrocities" by Chinese officials toward Soviet citizens in Manchuria.

CRITICIZES WHITE HOUSE NEWS DENIALS

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The method by which the White House has denied numerous press dispatches recently was criticized in a statement today by J. Louis Shouse, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee.

Shouse said several dispatches concerning the tariff had been vaguely denied at the White House, but the authorship of the denial was not revealed.

"Before that a repudiation of Senator Watson's interpretation of something the president had said to him about a yardstick to govern tariff schedules had come out in the same fashion, but this denial was in turn denied an hour later," Shouse said.

"It would help a lot if President Hoover would adopt some method of indicating which denials are his own, and which are a bad guess of one of his numerous spokesmen."

"GOOD FOR ANOTHER WEEK" SAY FLYERS; FLIGHT CARRIES ON

Plane Ends Second Week Aloft But Is Still Going

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 27.—Completing a fortnight in the air with as much apparent ease as it did the first day, the St. Louis-Robin today neared its 350th consecutive hour aloft.

"Red" Jackson summed up the situation in a fourteen-word note to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Shucks) Jackson, who flew here from their dairy home at Fairbault, Minn.

"Everything is fine," he told them, "but you'll have to wait a long time to see us."

The Jacksons, a bit air-sick but fully determined to go through with the matter, arrived over the field in a borrowed plane labelled "Spirit of Fairbault" and bearing the inscription:

"Hello son! Here is Pa and Ma Jackson."

The Robin fliers waved their greetings to the "Spirit of Fairbault."

"Good for another week at least and hope we can go beyond that," was the amazing assurance sent down by its co-pilots, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien.

At 4:17 a. m. E. S. T. today the fliers attained 332 hours.

Their air-cooled Challenger motor "sounds as good as ever," said Arthur Nutt, chief engineer of the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Company.

As the weather held almost unbelievably calm the fliers goal of "three weeks, 504 hours" was taken seriously.

O'Brien dropped a note to his wife earlier, in which he said:

"We know a man can stay up here for six months and get fat. We have made up our minds to set a record that will stand longer than any other made. When we get through the rest won't know where to start."

Congratulatory telegrams continue to pour in upon the Robin pilots. And among the latest was one from Governor Henry S. Caudill of Missouri, reading:

"Heartiest congratulations on your wonderful achievement. Missouri is proud of you."

Another message sent up by Dr. A. C. Leggat, field surgeon, read in part:

"Be careful of those girls up there. I believe they call them angels but take my tip and run no chances."

In addition to piling up the hours as no pilots ever have done before, Jackson and O'Brien are stacking up the dollars for themselves, in special flying awards, which now total more than $10,000.

They have flown more than 20,000 miles since they went aloft at 7:17 a. m. Saturday, July 13.

BROWN GRASS NOT DEAD IS CLAIMED

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—Just because the lawn turns brown and seems to lie in hot, dry weather, is no sure sign that the grass is all dead.

With the return of cooler weather and the coming of the fall rains, the grass will emerge from its dormant stage and become green again. At least most of the common lawn grasses will do so, according to the specialists at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

"Liberal watering may ameliorate somewhat the drab mid-summer appearances, but the quantity of water required is so great that under many circumstances watering is too expensive," the specialists explain.

REFUELING PLANE IN TEXAS IS DOWN

HOUSTON, Texas, July 27.—The Billion Dollar City, Houston entry in the refueling endurance race, was forced down shortly before 7 a. m. today by piston trouble.

G. L. Loomis and Joe Glass, the pilots, were in good condition when the big monoplane was brought to a dead stick landing at Houston airport.

FOUR GYPSIES HELD ON THEFT REPORT

Four gypsies, including two men and two women, are being detained by county authorities pending an investigation of a report they have been implicated in the theft of a large sum of money and a quantity of jewelry from a Crestline, O., woman several days ago.

A letter received by Sheriff Ohmer Tate requested local officials to be on the lookout for a gypsy band.

The arrests were made Friday night on the Dayton Pike.

AUTOIST KILLED

WARREN, O., July 27.—Edwin Prinosic, 27, of Cleveland, was killed at Orwell near here when his car crashed into a parked machine.

DAUGHTER OF FORMER GOVERNOR IS ARRESTED AT COMMUNIST MEETING

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—Anna W. Pennypacker, daughter of the former governor of Pennsylvania, was in a police cell today with twenty-five radicals or near Reds with whom she was arrested last night when police raided a communist meeting held in sympathy with the Gastonia, N. C., strikers held on charges of murdering a policeman.

Two other socially prominent women were arrested with Miss Pennypacker. They were Miss Kate Kelsey, member of the exclusive Acorn and Germantown cricket clubs, and Miss Helen Mallory.

Miss Pennypacker at first was surprised at her arrest and then indignant.

"I wouldn't believe this could have happened in Philadelphia, the cradle of liberty," she said.

"My ancestors came over to America more than 200 years ago in the cause of freedom, and I thought surely we could continue to enjoy it in peace in this good old Quaker City."

"I went to the meeting because I was interested in the Gastonia affair. And now this thing has certainly furnished me with food for thought."

She refused any favors at the hands of police and chose to stay in a cell with thirteen other young women who spent the night singing "The Red Flag" and the "Internationale." The station house in which they were locked up is one of the tenderloin precincts.

SNOOK LEARNS OF BONDED BOOZE

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—During a court recess of the Snook trial yesterday, Dr. James Howard Snook joined a group of newspapermen chatting with Sheriff Harry Paul around the water cooler. Paul noting how thirsty the correspondents were, asked:

"How would you like to have the key to the cellar?"

"Down in the jail," broke in Snook, "the boys who are there have told me where bonded liquor can be obtained if I get out. They told me that they manufactured labels, placed them on bottles containing white mule, and sold it as bonded liquor."

Whereupon Sheriff Paul volunteered a lecture on the fine art of removing the bottom from a whiskey bottle, refilling it and selling it for "genuine liquor." Snook was much interested.

BREMEN STARTS FOR RETURN TRIP; WILL ESTABLISH RECORD

Slower Voyage Is Planned; Many See Sailing

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 27.—The North German Lloyd liner Bremen, holder of the record for a westward Atlantic ocean voyage left for home today after a crowd estimated by police at 35,000 persons had gathered to witness the sailing.

Captain Leopold Ziegenhein, the skipper, said that he probably would "take it easy" on the eastward passage and land at Cherbourg about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, adding that there was no use setting to that port sooner since French officials would not "handle a ship any earlier in the morning."

If the ship lands according to Capt. Ziegenhein's announced plans it will lower the eastern voyage record by about eight hours. Both the western and eastern passage records were held by the Cunarder Mauretania until the Bremen landed here Monday morning.

The ship left here on July 17, after a voyage of thirty-four days, having covered 19,200 miles. The average speed for this crossing was in excess of twenty-eight knots. It is planned to average twenty-seven knots on the homeward voyage.

RUSSIAN CONSUL LEAVING CHINA

NEW YORK, July 27.—The Chinese have permitted M. Melnikoff, Russian consul general, to leave Harbin for Russia on condition that he transmit to Moscow full details of China's intentions for peaceful settlement of the Chinese eastern railway dispute, according to word received here.

A cablegram received by the New York office of the South Manchuria railway from road officials at Dairen said Melnikoff left Harbin at 6 p. m. Thursday.

THREATS RECEIVED BY DEFENSE LAWYERS

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—As in most outstanding trials, crank letters, telephone calls and threats have cropped up in volume in the murder trial of Dr. James H. Snook.

Mrs. Minnie A. Ricketts, wife of E. O. Ricketts, one of Dr.

RAYMOND POINCARE RESIGNS AS FRENCH REPUBLIC PREMIER

Attempt To Induce Premier To Change Plan Fails

PARIS, July 27.—Raymond Poincare resigned as premier of the French republic today in spite of the pleas of his colleagues that he remain at the head of the government.

After Poincare refused to be swayed from his inflexible determination to resign, the whole French cabinet handed in its resignation to President Doumergue.

Aristide Briand, minister of foreign affairs, and Louis Barthou, minister of justice, visited the premier at his home in an effort to induce him to withdraw his resignation. They pleaded with Poincare for twenty-five minutes. When they saw that their efforts were futile they departed for Elysee Palace, where they conferred with President Doumergue.

In keeping with tradition, President Doumergue summoned the presidents of the senate and the chamber of deputies to Elysee palace for a conference today regarding the choice of a new premier for the republic and the formation of a new cabinet.

Worn from his campaign to induce the parliament to ratify the war debt agreements between France and her principal creditors the United States and Great Britain and faced by an operation for prostate trouble, Poincare was determined in his resolve to resign from the head of the government.

The former premier told Briand and Barthou that much as he desired to collaborate with them in the restoration of France his health demanded that he resign from his post and rest for several months. He said he needed absolute rest, a thing he could not get, he explained, if he remained premier, even inactively.

President Doumergue accepted the resignation, and shortly afterward he also accepted the resignation of the whole cabinet.

KINGSFORD-SMITH INVITED TO RACES

CLEVELAND, O., July 27.—Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith was lured by cable to attend the 1929 National Air Races and Aeronautical Exposition and bring with him his famous monoplane, "the Southern Cross," in which he flew from Oakland, Calif., to Australia via Honolulu and Suva.

Advices were received by Cliff Henderson, managing director of the air classic, from Roy E. Russell of the Fokker Aircraft Corporation of America, that Kingsford-Smith's monoplane, which has flown nearly all the way around the world since the Oakland take-off, is at the Fokker Amsterdam plant.

DRUGGIST ACCUSED

TOLEDO, O., July 27.—The federal grand jury, at its next session, will consider liquor law charges against John Weimer, Marion, O. druggist. Weimer was arrested after a federal agent charged he bought two pints of intoxicating liquid in Weimer's store.

HER SLAYER GOES ON TRIAL

New photo of Miss Theora K. Hix, 24-year-old co-ed, for whose death former Professor James H. Snook of Ohio State University has just been placed on trial.

CORN BORER PATROL LAUNCHES QUARANTINE THROUGH STATE

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—One hundred uniformed federal agricultural agents invaded Ohio today to establish a quarantine against the corn borer.

The quarantine, by the time the agents complete their work, will have been laid down on a jagged line through the south-central part of the state.

The agents, commencing today, will be on duty twenty-four hours a day halting vehicles and pedestrians to prevent infected corn from being taken into the non-infected or free areas.

The approximate location of the quarantine line is as follows:

Starting between Belmont and Monroe counties, between Noble and Guernsey counties, between Muskingum and Hocking counties, through Perry County, between Pickaway and Ross counties, through Fayette and Greene counties, north through Montgomery County and through Darke County to the Indiana state line.

The agents attended a corn borer school in Washington last week and arrived in the state armed with instructions on how to curb the pest.

Headquarters on the campaign will be maintained at Toledo under the direction of E. G. Brewer, administration officer in charge of control.

The quarantine is expected to cut a wide swath into the sweet corn market which is at its height.

ONE KILLED AS AIR TANK FALLS

DAYTON, O., July 27.—One man was crushed to death here today and another was seriously injured when a forty-seven-ton compressed air tank at the Inland Manufacturing Company fell on them.

John Tobias, 43, is in a serious condition at a hospital here and Shelby Broyles, 33, was killed instantly.

Broyles was caught beneath the tank and killed outright. An investigation to determine what caused the tank to fall has been ordered.

The rescue crew was organized and working five minutes after the tank dropped. Ambulance and physicians also were called.

WOMAN DROWNED AS STEAMER SINKS

BERLIN, July 27.—One woman was drowned and another was reported missing when the steamer Schwadt, plying between Schwadt and Stettin, Germany, capsized and sank twelve yards off the Stettin pier today. The remainder of the passengers, said to have numbered thirty, and the crew of five, were rescued.

EDITOR IS ILL

DOVER, O., July 27.—Henry Hagelock, managing editor of the Dover Daily Reporter, was in a serious condition here today from a stomach ailment. Physicians have diagnosed the ailment as similar to that which caused the death of Hagelock's 16-month-old daughter, last Wednesday.

EXPECT DEFENDANT TO GIVE IMPORTANT DEFENSE EVIDENCE

More Jurors Called; Evidence May Start Tuesday

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—The supreme effort to prevent conviction of Dr. James H. Snook for the alleged murder of Theora Hix, may be made by Dr. Snook himself.

Although medical experts will testify for him, his wife may give evidence and so also his mother, there was reason to believe today that the main case of the defense will be built upon the story to be told by the former Ohio State University professor himself.

His attorneys, who last week would admit they "expected Dr. Snook would testify," did not reiterate that assertion today but made no denial of any change in plans.

The defense is to be built, unless the entire program is altered, upon a three-fold plea of self-defense, emotional insanity and the claim that Miss Hix herself administered or acquiesced in the administration of drugs to Dr. Snook, causing him to go temporarily mad.

Dr. Snook is the only surviving witness on most of the points involved. Admittedly without his evidence only a flimsy framework of the case could be constructed.

Dr. Snook late last night received a visit in his cell from his wife and his mother. It was devoid of hysterics and for twenty minutes the three chatted smilingly. The only touch of pathos came when the visitors were leaving. Dr. Snook assisted both of the ladies with their wraps and just as they turned to leave Mrs. Snook hesitated and then turned her lips, inviting a good night kiss. She then walked steadily through the jail corridor and drove away in a heavy rainstorm.

Snook's appearance as a witness should furnish high drama and high interest. While he is not of distinguished appearance, he is a man of culture and attainment. He has occupied high positions in the university faculty, the sporting world, as the author of a text book on veterinary medicine in general use in colleges, and as a writer for both professional and out-of-door magazines.

The spectacle of such a man as a witness fighting for his very life, will raise to high pitches the dramatic tone of the Snook-Hix tragedy.

Court attendants will spend the week end finding and serving with summonses fifty additional tale-smen, drawn last night when it became certain the first panel of seventy-five would be exhausted before the jury is completed. The second panel contains the names of fifteen women and thirty-five men. Indications were that if the defense persisted in what seems to be a determination to rid the jury of women and farmers, the jury cannot be completed before Tuesday.

Columbus more and more is regarding the trial as a source of entertainment. At Friday's session more than fifty people who were unable to get into the morning sessions held their positions in line until afternoon, going without lunches that they might get a chance to hear the case.

The youth of the crowd continues as a source of comment. Friday morning the first spectator in line was Gordon Doone, a high school student who had arrived at 5:30 a. m. and sat on the court-house steps until the doors opened.

Ted Cramer, aged 18, of Peoria, Ill., hitchhiked to Columbus for his vacation to attend the trial. Edward Clark of Columbus, aged 68, is among those who arrive at daylight each day, however, and has not missed a session, showing that the interest holds for old and young alike.

Eleven temporary jurors have been passed.

Just how much the quickened interest of Dr. Snook had to do with the determined offensive of his lawyers against the jury as originally constituted could not be told. It was notable however that coincidental with the assumption of a fighting role by the baldheaded doctor of horse medicine, defense counsel waded into the jury with peremptory challenges and played havoc with it.

Of six such challenges exercised by the defense, four were directed against women and there was an inclination to believe the reports prevalent before the trial opened that if Snook and his lawyers had their way, no women would sit in judgment upon him. Only three remained.

(Continued on Page Six)

CLEARED OF CHARGE

BERLIN, July 27.—Hugo Stinnes, Jr., son of the late industrial magnate, today was cleared of charges of alleged complicity in an international plot to defraud the German government in connection with the revalorization of war loans.

DEFENSE BASED ON SNOOK'S STORY

DOG RACES OPERATE WITHOUT BETTING; AWAIT TRIAL RESULT

Full Program Held As Sheriff Looks On At Track

Operators of the Fairfield dog track have temporarily given up the first attempt to hold greyhound races in Greene County with the "contribution and refund" system of wagering in vogue.

Although dog racing was resumed at the track Friday night with Sheriff Ohmer Tate, eight deputies and nearly 3,000 spectators on hand, no attempt was made to open the betting booths, the promoters having decided to abide by the "no-betting" edict of Prosecuting Attorney J. Carl Marshall until the twenty-four employes arrested Thursday night are given a hearing next Monday morning in Common Pleas Court on gambling charges.

Acting on instructions of Prosecutor Marshall, Sheriff Tate and his force of deputies proceeded to the track to guard against a second attempt to introduce wagering in connection with the races, but the precautionary measure, as it turned out, was unnecessary.

Authorities found nothing to do but keep a close check on reported handbooks among the patrons of the races. Although the management was not advised that any bets were being made, authorities believe that bookies were in the crowd, although no evidence could be obtained.

Charles Fay, Middletown, president of the Fairfield Amusement Park, Ltd., announced that the races would again be run on schedule Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock but that the promoters desire to co-operate with county officials in suspending betting until the outcome of the hearing Monday.

Fay and other operators of the track insist that the "contribution" system is legal and works on the plan of spectators "donating" investments on the dogs, and receiving "refunds" above expenses in the event they back winning runners. Prosecutor Marshall, however, took the stand that this system constitutes gambling.

The system has been the subject of bitter dispute between racing interests and law enforcement agencies in Ohio for more than two years. It has never been settled satisfactorily in the courts.

Without the betting feature, much of the glamor of the opening night's racing was lacking but the grandstand was well filled and the spectators appeared to derive a certain amount of enjoyment from watching the hounds chase a mechanical rabbit around the track. The Osborn band furnished music as on the preceding evening.

Fulfilling its promise, operators of the track settled with all customers who were deprived of their money Thursday night when authorities raided the betting booths just before the pay-off on the eighth and last race of the card. All holders of winning tickets, who had not cashed them Thursday night, were paid off at the cashier windows Friday night.

Waited at Church

Charging that he backed out of their marriage five times, after she had prepared two trousseaus, Alma Pinkerton, above, pretty 24-year-old bookkeeper of St. Louis, has filed a $300,000 breach of promise suit against Max Manne, wealthy furniture manufacturer. She also alleges he re-proposed after the suit was filed.

CONFERENCE TO END CHINESE RAILROAD DISPUTE PROPOSED

Rumored Mukden Is Inclined To Peace Move Soon

MOSCOW, July 27.—The possibility of conference between Chinese and Soviet officials for the peaceful settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway dispute in the Far East was foreshadowed by an official dispatch from Vladivostok today, declaring it was rumored that the Mukden authorities were inclining toward a solution of the conflict with the Soviet union through an understanding in spirit of the Soviet note.

The official dispatch reported that "Mukden has undertaken steps to inform the Soviet union of these plans."

This brief dispatch, unobtrusively sandwiched in among other news about the Chinese affair, was seen by many to hold the whole answer to the question of peace in Manchuria.

Meanwhile the press today continued to report alleged "atrocities" by Chinese officials toward Soviet citizens in Manchuria.

CRITICIZES WHITE HOUSE NEWS DENIALS

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The method by which the White House has denied numerous press dispatches recently was criticized in a statement today by J. J. Shouse, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee.

Shouse said several dispatches concerning the tariff had been vaguely denied at the White House, but the authorship of the denial was not revealed.

"Before that a repudiation of something the president had said to him about a yardstick to govern tariff schedules had come out in the same fashion, but this denial was in turn denied an hour later," Shouse said.

"It would help a lot if President Hoover would adopt some method of indicating which denials are his own, and which are a bad guess of one of his numerous spokes-

"GOOD FOR ANOTHER WEEK" SAY FLYERS; FLIGHT CARRIES ON

Plane Ends Second Week Aloft But Is Still Going

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 27.—Completing a fortnight in the air with as much apparent ease as it did the first day, the St. Louis-Robin today neared its 350th consecutive hour aloft.

"Red" Jackson summed up the situation in a fourteen-word note to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry (Shucks) Jackson, who flew here from their dairy home at Fairbault, Minn.

"Everything is fine," he told them, "but you'll have to wait a long time to see us."

The Jacksons, a bit sick but fully determined to go through with the matter, arrived over the field in a borrowed plane labelled "Spirit of Fairbault" and bearing the inscription:

"Hello son! Here is Pa and Ma Jackson."

The Robin fliers waved their greetings to the "Spirit of Fairbault."

"Good for another week at least and hope we can go beyond that," was the amazing assurance sent down by its co-pilots, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien.

At 4:17 a. m. E. S. T. today the fliers attained 352 hours.

Their air-cooled Challenger motor "sounds as good as ever," said Arthur Nutt, chief engineer of the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Company.

As the weather held almost unbelievably calm the fliers' goal of "three weeks, 504 hours" was taken seriously.

O'Brien dropped a note to his wife earlier, in which he said:

"We know a man can stay up here for six months and get fat. We have made up our minds to set a record that will stand longer than any other made. When we get through the rest won't know where to start."

Congratulatory telegrams continue to pour in upon the Robin pilots. And among the latest was one from Governor Henry S. Caulfield of Missouri, reading:

"Heartiest congratulations on your wonderful achievement. Missouri is proud of you."

Another message sent up by Dr. A. C. Leggat, field surgeon, read in part:

"Be careful of those girls up there. I believe they call them angels but take my tip and run no chances."

In addition to piling up the hours as no pilots ever have done before, Jackson and O'Brien are stacking up the dollars for themselves, in special flying awards, which now total more than $10,000.

They have flown more than 20,000 miles since they went aloft at 7:17 a. m. Saturday, July 13.

BROWN GRASS NOT DEAD IS CLAIMED

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—Just because the lawn turns brown and seems to die in hot, dry weather, is no sure sign that the grass is all dead.

With the return of cooler weather and the coming of the fall rains, the grass will emerge from its dormant stage and become green again. At least most of the common lawn grasses will do so, according to the specialists at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

"Liberal watering may ameliorate somewhat the dry mid-summer appearances, but the quantity of water required is so great that under many circumstances watering is too expensive," the specialists explain.

REFUELING PLANE IN TEXAS IS DOWN

HOUSTON, Texas, July 27.—The Billion Dollar City, Houston entry in the refueling endurance race, was forced down shortly before 7 a. m. today by piston trouble.

G. L. Loomis and Joe Glass, the pilots, were in good condition when the big monoplane was brought to a dead stick landing at Houston airport.

Four gypsies, including two men and two women, are being detained by county authorities pending an investigation of a report they have been implicated in the theft of a large sum of money and a quantity of jewelry from a Crestline, O., woman several days ago.

A letter received by Sheriff Ohmer Tate requested local officials to be on the lookout for a gypsy band.

The arrests were made Friday night on the Dayton Pike.

AUTOIST KILLED

WARREN, O., July 27.—Edwin Prinosic, 27, of Cleveland, was killed at Orwell near here when his car crashed into a parked machine.

DAUGHTER OF FORMER GOVERNOR IS ARRESTED AT COMMUNIST MEETING

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—Anna W. Pennypacker, daughter of the former governor of Pennsylvania, was in a police cell today with twenty-five radicals or near Reds with whom she was arrested last night when police raided a communist meeting held in sympathy with the Gastonia, N. C., strikers held on charges of murdering a policeman.

Two other socially prominent women were arrested with Miss Pennypacker. They were Miss Kate Kelsey, member of the exclusive Acorn and Germantown cricket clubs, and Miss Helen Mallory.

Miss Pennypacker at first was surprised at her arrest and then indignant.

"I wouldn't believe this could have happened in Philadelphia, the cradle of liberty," she said.

"My ancestors came over to America more than 200 years ago in the cause of freedom, and I thought surely we could continue to enjoy it in peace in this good old Quaker City."

"I went to the meeting because I was interested in the Gastonia affair. And now this thing has certainly furnished me with food for thought."

She refused any favors at the hands of police and chose to stay in a cell with thirteen other young women who spent the night singing "The Red Flag" and the "Internationale." The station house in which they were locked up is one of the tenderloin precincts.

RAYMOND POINCARE RESIGNS AS FRENCH REPUBLIC PREMIER

Attempt To Induce Premier To Change Plan Fails

PARIS, July 27.—Raymond Poincare resigned as premier of the French republic today in spite of the pleas of his colleagues that he remain at the head of the government.

After Poincare refused to be swayed from his inflexible determination to resign, the whole French cabinet handed in its resignation to President Doumergue.

Aristide Briand, minister of foreign affairs, and Louis Barthou, minister of justice, visited the premier at his home in an effort to induce him to withdraw his resignation. They pleaded with Poincare for twenty-five minutes.

When they saw that their efforts were futile they departed for Elysee Palace, where they conferred with President Doumergue.

In keeping with tradition, President Doumergue summoned the presidents of the senate and the chamber of deputies to Elysee palace for a conference today regarding the choice of a new premier for the republic and the formation of a new cabinet.

Worn from his campaign to induce the parliament to ratify the war debt agreements between France and her principal creditors the United States and Great Britain and faced by an operation for prostate trouble, Poincare was determined in his resolve to resign from the head of the government.

The former premier told Barthou and Briand that much as he desired to collaborate with them in the restoration of France his health demanded that he resign from his post and rest for several months. He said he needed absolute rest, a thing he could not get, he explained, if he remained premier.

President Doumergue accepted the resignation, and shortly afterward he also accepted the resignation of the whole cabinet.

KINGSFORD-SMITH INVITED TO RACES

CLEVELAND, O., July 27.—Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith was invited by cable to attend the 1929 National Air Races and Aeronautical Exposition and bring with him his famous monoplane, "the Southern Cross," in which he flew from Oakland, Calif., to Australia via Honolulu and Suva.

Advices were received by Cliff Henderson, managing director of the air classic, from Roy E. Russell of the Fokker Aircraft Corporation of America, that Kingsford-Smith's monoplane, which has flown nearly all the way around the world since the Oakland take-off, is at the Fokker Amsterdam plant.

RUSSIAN CONSUL LEAVING CHINA

NEW YORK, July 27.—The Chinese have permitted M. Melnikoff, Russian consul general, to leave Harbin for Russia on condition that he transmit to Moscow full details of China's intentions for peaceful settlement of the Chinese eastern railway dispute, according to word received here.

A cablegram received by the New York office of the South Manchuria railway from road officials at Dairen said Melnikoff left Harbin at 6 p. m. Thursday.

THREATS RECEIVED BY DEFENSE LAWYERS

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—As in most outstanding trials, crank letters, telephone calls and threats have cropped out in volume in the murder trial of Dr. James H. Snook.

Mrs. Minnie A. Ricketts, wife of E. O. Ricketts, one of Dr. Snook's attorneys, told police today that she had received two anonymous calls warning her that her daughter, Helen, 19, would be "disposed of" unless Ricketts drops out of the case by Monday.

"First a woman called and then a man," Mrs. Ricketts said.

John F. Seidel, another of Snook's lawyers, said in court yesterday that he had received a postcard warning him he "was doomed" unless he also drops out of the case.

HER SLAYER GOES ON TRIAL

New photo of Miss Theora K. Hix, 24-year-old co-ed, for whose death former Professor James H. Snook of Ohio State University has just been placed on trial.

CORN BORER PATROL LAUNCHES QUARANTINE THROUGH STATE

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—One day halting vehicles and pedestrians to prevent infected corn from being taken into the non-infested, or free areas.

The quarantine, by the time the agents complete their work, will have been laid down on a jagged line through the south-central part of the state.

The agents, commencing today, will be on duty twenty-four hours a day.

STATE LIBRARIAN WANTS BOOKS BACK

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—George McCormick, state librarian, wishes that human beings were not so delinquent about returning borrowed books and umbrellas.

Especially appealed to the book readers and students of Ohio to bring back the books they have borrowed from the Ohio State Library.

The records of the library show a great many books out overtime, according to McCormick. He thinks perhaps many of these were kept by those holding them at the time it was feared the library would have to be closed when Governor Donahay vetoed an appropriation for it.

During eighteen months the library operated with a small staff and a thorough check was not kept on books. McCormick said he hopes to have the records brought up to date soon and those who have books overtime will help by returning them at once, he explained.

PATROLMAN KILLS ALLEGED GUN USER

CAMPBELL, O., July 27.—A patrolman killed William Moore, 28, here early today after Moore shot and wounded T. J. Nelson, 28, Nelson's condition is critical.

Police Chief Frank Cunningham said the shooting climaxed a quarrel at a dance. The officers who shot Moore pursued him for several blocks before his bullet found its mark.

The cause of the quarrel was not learned immediately.

WOMAN DROWNED AS STEAMER SINKS

BERLIN, July 27.—One woman was drowned and another was reported missing when the steamer Schwadt, plying between Schwadt and Stettin, Germany, capsized and sank twelve yards off the Stettin pier today. The remainder of the passengers, said to have numbered thirty, and the crew of five, were rescued.

EDITOR IS ILL

DOVER, O., July 27.—Henry Hagelock, managing editor of the Dover Daily Reporter, was in a serious condition here today from a stomach ailment. Physicians have diagnosed the ailment as similar to that which caused the death of Hagelock's 16-month-old daughter, last Wednesday.

EXPECT DEFENDANT TO GIVE IMPORTANT DEFENSE EVIDENCE

More Jurors Called; Evidence May Start Tuesday

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—The supreme effort to prevent conviction of Dr. James H. Snook for the alleged murder of Theora Hix, may be made by Dr. Snook himself.

Although medical experts will testify for him, his wife may give evidence and so also his mother, there was reason to believe today that the main case of the defense will be built upon the story to be told by the former Ohio State University professor himself.

His attorneys, who last week would admit they "expected Dr. Snook would testify," did not reiterate that assertion today but made no denial of any change in plans.

The defense is to be built, unless the entire program is altered, upon a three-fold plea of self-defense, emotional insanity and the claim that Miss Hix herself administered or acquiesced in the administration of drugs to Dr. Snook, causing him to go temporarily mad.

Dr. Snook is the only surviving witness on most of the points involved. Admittedly without his evidence only a flimsy framework of the case could be constructed.

Dr. Snook late last night received a visit in his cell from his wife and his mother. It was devoid of hysterics and for twenty minutes the three chatted smilingly. The only touch of pathos came when the visitors were leaving. Dr. Snook assisted both of the ladies with their wraps and just as they turned to leave Mrs. Snook hesitated and then turned her lips, inviting a good night kiss. She then walked steadily through the jail corridor and drove away in a heavy rainstorm.

Snook's appearance as a witness should furnish high drama and high interest. While he is not of distinguished appearance, he is a man of culture and attainment. He has occupied high positions in the university faculty, the sporting world, as the author of a text book on veterinary medicine in general use in colleges, and as a writer for both professional and out-of-door magazines.

The spectacle of such a man as a witness fighting for his very life, will raise to high pitches the dramatic tone of the Snook-Hix tragedy.

Court attendants will spend the week end finding and serving with summonses fifty additional talesmen, drawn last night when it became certain the first panel of seventy-five would be exhausted before the jury is completed. The second panel contains the names of fifteen women and thirty-five men. Indications were that if the defense persists in what seems to be a determination to rid the jury of women and farmers, the jury cannot be completed before Tuesday.

Columbus more and more is regarding the trial as a source of entertainment. At Friday's session more than fifty people who were unable to get into the morning sessions held their positions in line until afternoon, going without lunches that they might get a chance to hear the case.

The youth of the crowd continues as a source of comment. Friday morning the first spectator in line was Gordon Doone, a high school student who had arrived at 5:30 a. m. and sat on the courthouse steps until the doors opened.

Ted Creamer, aged 13, of Peoria, Ill., hitchhiked to Columbus for his vacation to attend the trial. Edward Clark of Columbus, aged 66, is among those who arrive at daylight each day, however, and has not missed a session, showing that the interest holds for old and young alike.

Eleven temporary jurors have been passed.

Just how much the quickened interest of Dr. Snook had to do with the determined offensive of his lawyers against the jury as originally constituted could not be told. It was notable however that coincidental with the assumption of a fighting role by the baldheaded doctor of horse medicine, defense counsel waded into the jury with preliminary challenges and played havoc with it.

Of six such challenges exercised by the defense, four were directed against women and there was an inclination to believe the reports prevalent before the trial opened that if Snook and his lawyers had their way, no women would sit in judgment upon him. Only three re-

ONE KILLED AS AIR TANK FALLS

DAYTON, O., July 27.—One man was crushed to death here today and another was seriously injured when a forty-seven-ton compressed air tank at the Inland Manufacturing Company fell on them.

John Tobias, 43, is in a serious condition at a hospital here and Shelby Broyles, 33, was killed instantly.

Broyles was caught beneath the tank and killed outright. An investigation to determine what caused the tank to fall has been ordered. The rescue crew was organized and working five minutes after the tank dropped. Ambulance and physicians also were called.

WOMAN DROWNED AS STEAMER SINKS

BERLIN, July 27.—One woman was drowned and another was reported missing when the steamer Schwadt, plying between Schwadt and Stettin, Germany, capsized and sank twelve yards off the Stettin pier today. The remainder of the passengers, said to have numbered thirty, and the crew of five, were rescued.

(Continued on Page Six)

CLEARED OF CHARGE

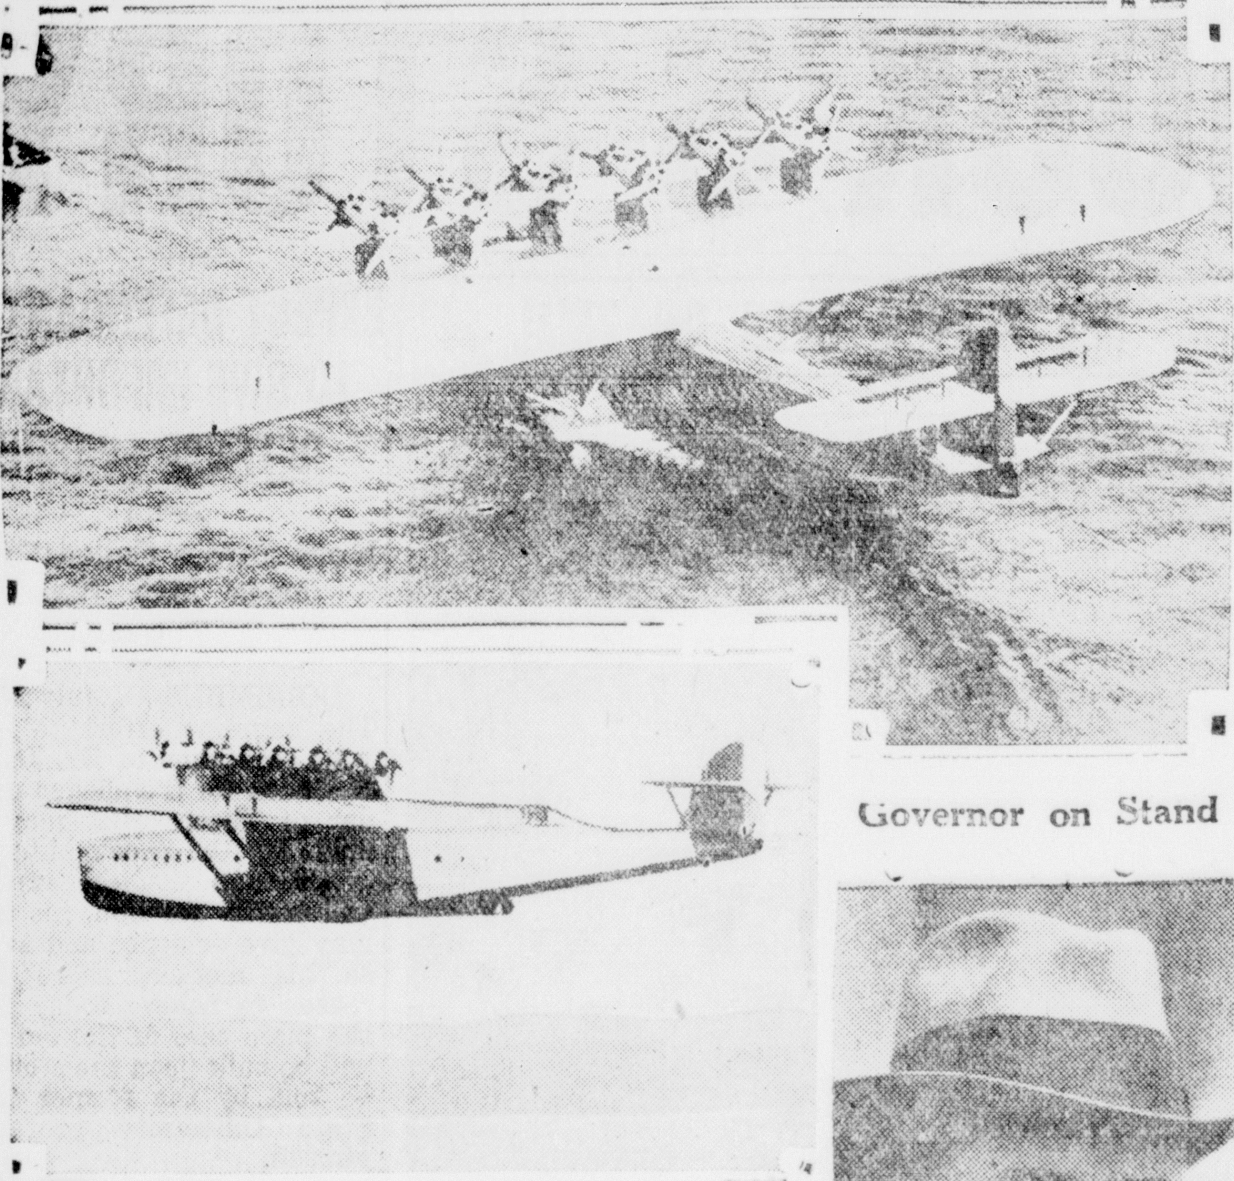

BERLIN, July 27.—Hugo Stines, Jr., son of the late industrial magnate, today was cleared of charges of alleged complicity in an international plot to defraud the German government in connection with the revalorization of war bonds.

TELLING the WORLD'S NEWS with PICTURES

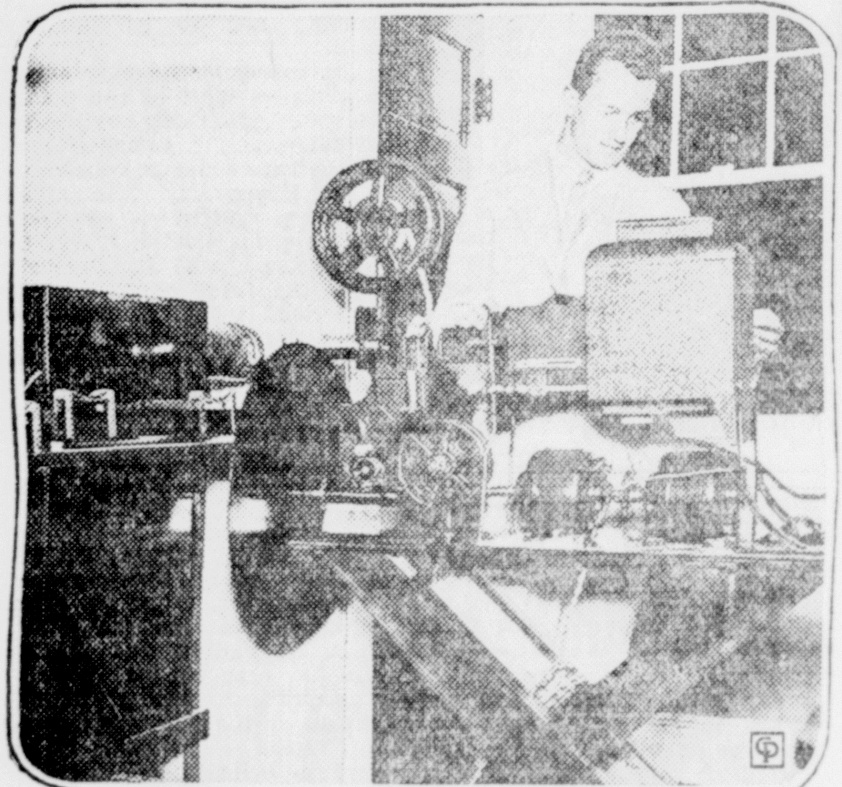

Giant Air Liner Aloft and Afloat

Above is an aerial view of the great German Dornier seaplane, D. O. X., equipped with twelve motors and capable of carrying 100 passengers, shown aloft on Lake Constance, Switzerland, proving its seaworthiness. At left the D. O. X. is shown flying 600 feet over Lake Constance.

SENDS MOTION PICTURES BY RADIO

Situated ten miles outside of Washington, D. C., near Silver Springs, Md., the new television transmitting station of C. Francis Jenkins begins broadcasting motion pictures by radio. R. P. Battle, member of the technical staff, is shown with machine.

Master and Subject

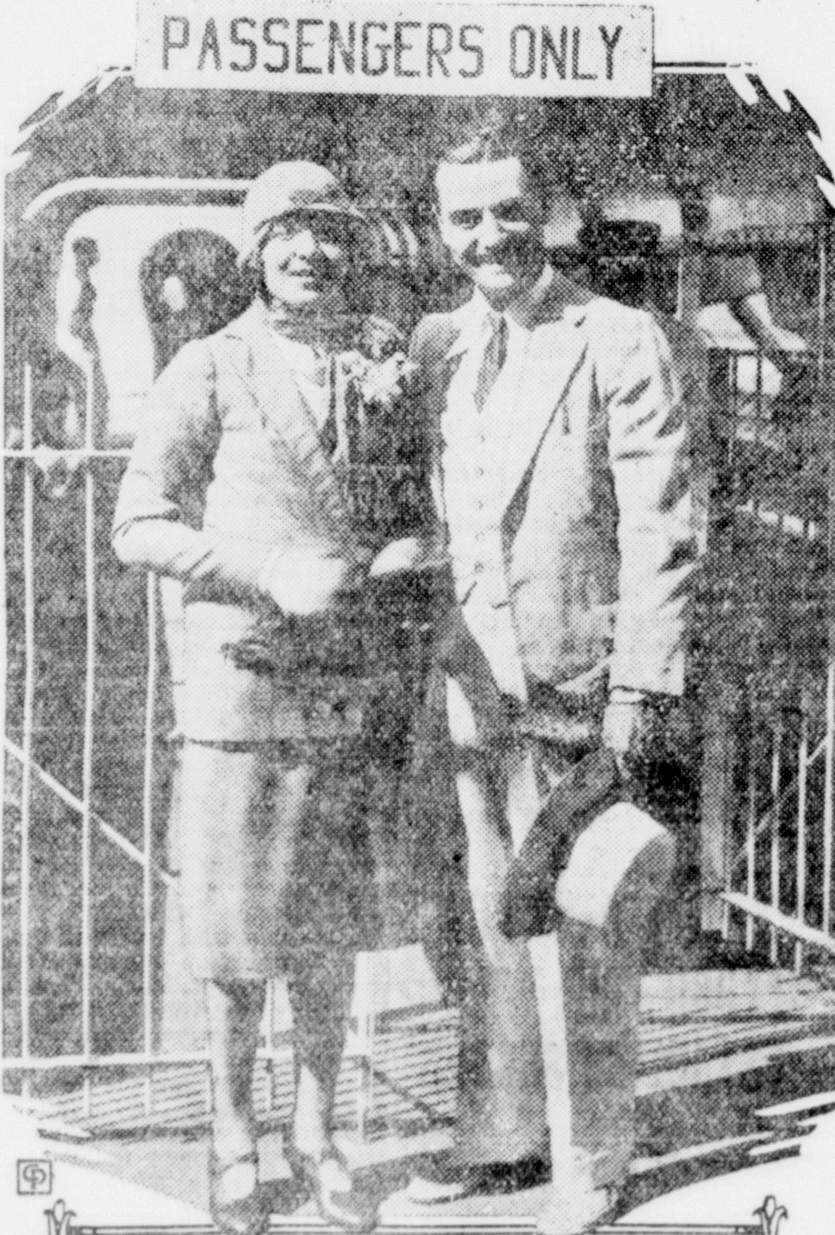

The deep-eyed man wearing glasses is Tom Garrett, hypnotist, the younger chap his trance subject, Louis de Matti. Both have achieved prominence because of their connection with the astounding case of "Dolores Ford," said to be a Toledo heiress, who married into Harlem's black-and-tan belt. Garrett says he learned Dolores' secret by hypnotizing her.

Give a Man a Good Cigar and Rod

Former President Calvin Coolidge is certainly a man's man. See how contented he appears just after removing his fishing boots and donning shoes. Maybe it's the relief from the heavy boots. He has just finished doing a little trout fishing at the Cape Cod trout club at Wareham, Mass., of which he is now a member, and is getting ready to go home with his party.

GILBERTS HOP OFF ON HONEYMOON

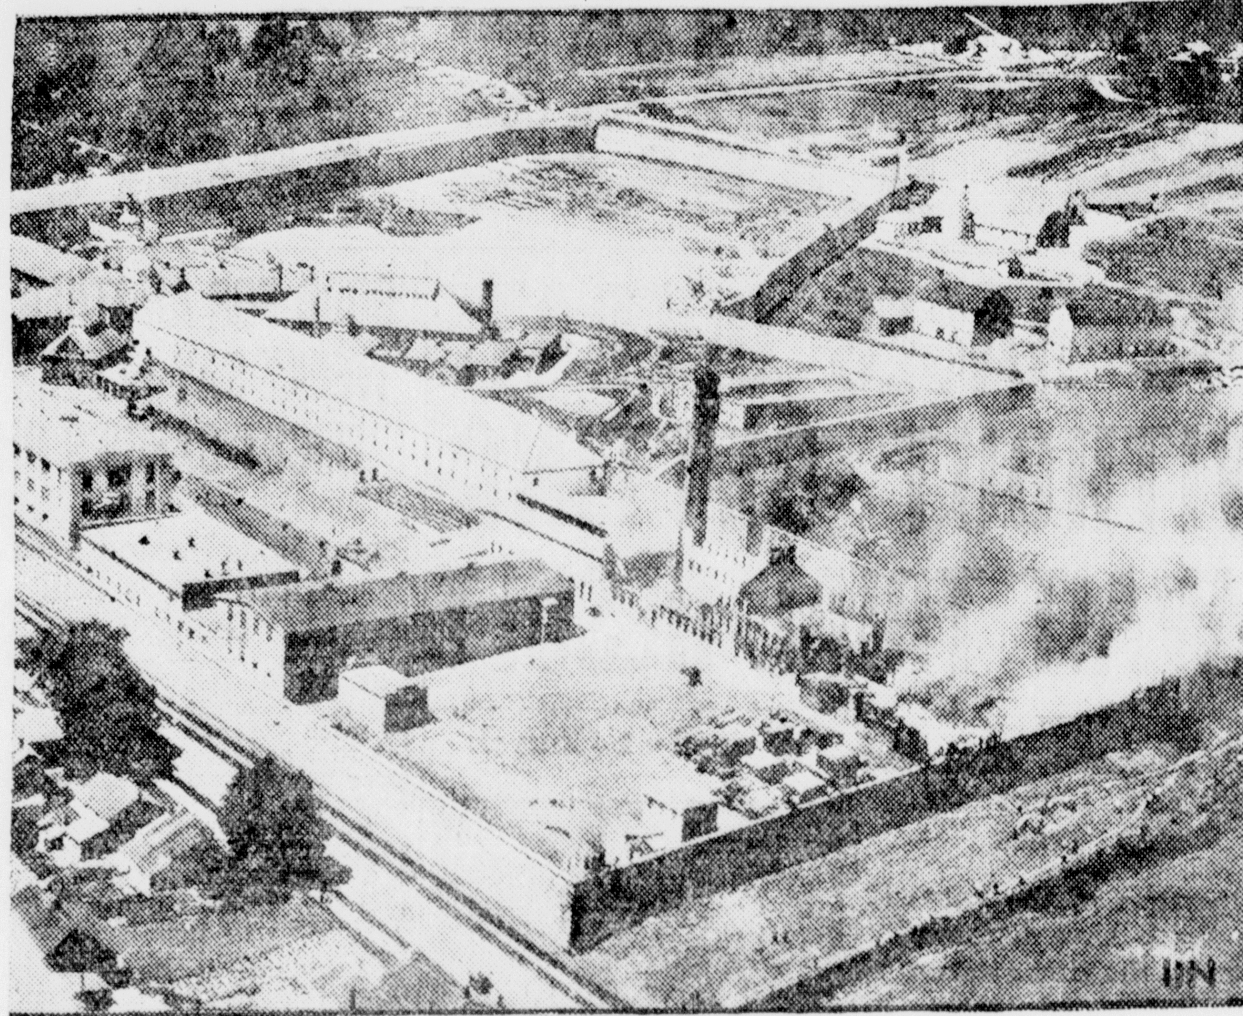

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert, of the films—she was the former Ina Claire—snapped as they boarded a plane at Los Angeles for a flight across the continent en route to Europe and a belated honeymoon. The couple eloped six weeks ago, but were prevented from taking an immediate wedding trip until each finished a picture.

Called a $200,000 Love Thief

Mrs. Helen Stroud (above), Camden beauty, is being sued for $200,000 by Mrs. Florine N. Winkelspecht for the alleged alienation of the affections of Clinton H. Winkelspecht, radio engineer. Case will be heard in New Jersey State Supreme Court.

3 Killed, 20 Wounded in Jail-Break Riot

Airplane view of Clinton Prison at Dannemora, N. Y., just after the quelling of the riot which followed the attempt of 1,000 long-term prisoners to escape by overpowering the guards. The carpenter shop on the right, fired in the first dash for freedom, is shown smouldering. Three convicts were killed and twenty wounded in the six-hour fight for freedom.

Bankers Brought to Bar of Justice

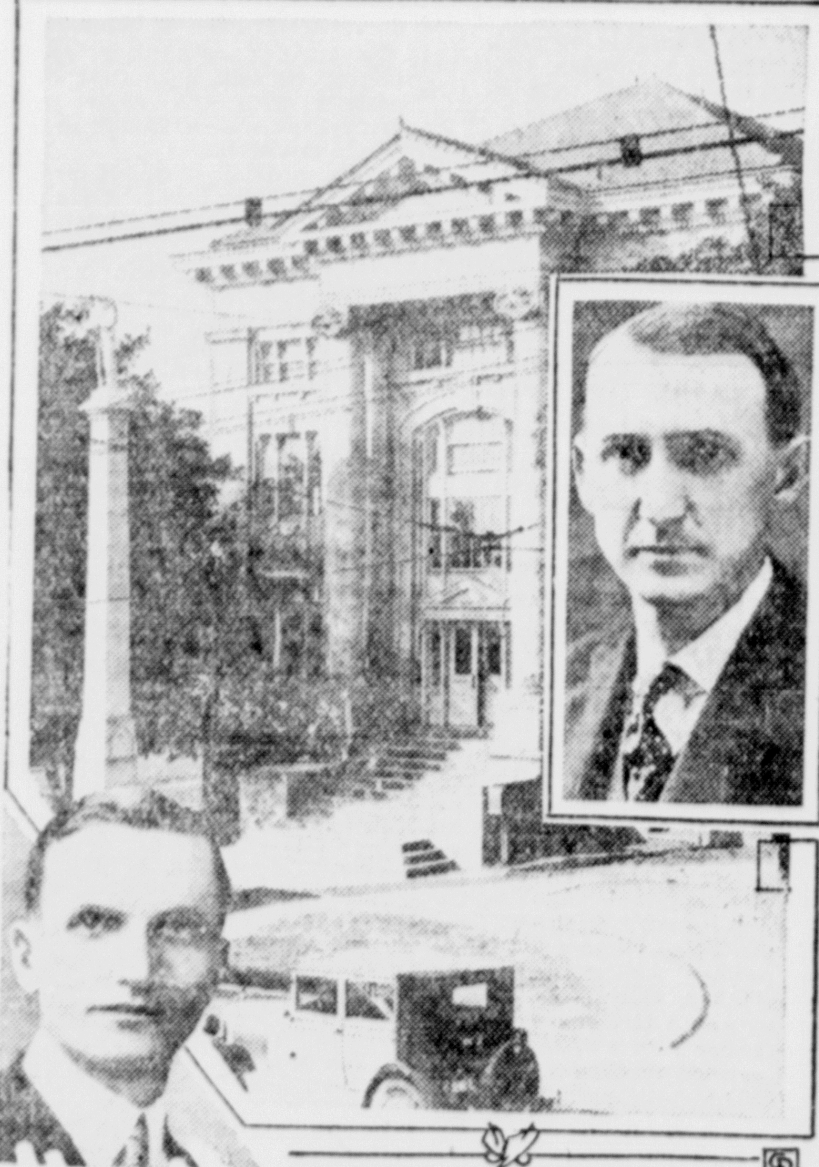

Here are the famous four Clarke partners photographed as they faced the court in General Sessions, New York. More than 200 depositors attended the meeting in a courtroom in the Federal Building and heard Federal Attorney Charles H. Tuttle speak with optimism of the possibilities of recouping part, at least, of the $5,000,000 deficit. James R. Clarke pleaded guilty to the State's charges, dramatically accepting the blame for the crash and promised to turn over all his property.

Joins Big Bank

Gerard Swope (above), president of the General Electric Company, was elected a director of the National City Bank of New York, marking the first occasion on which he has associated himself as a director in any enterprise outside the electric field and marks also the resumption of an active association with Charles E. Mitchell, chairman of the bank, the groundwork of which was laid thirty years ago when Mr. Mitchell was assistant general manager of the Western Electric Company in Chicago, while Mr. Swope was in charge of the St. Louis office.

WHERE 15 BATTLE DEATH CHAIR

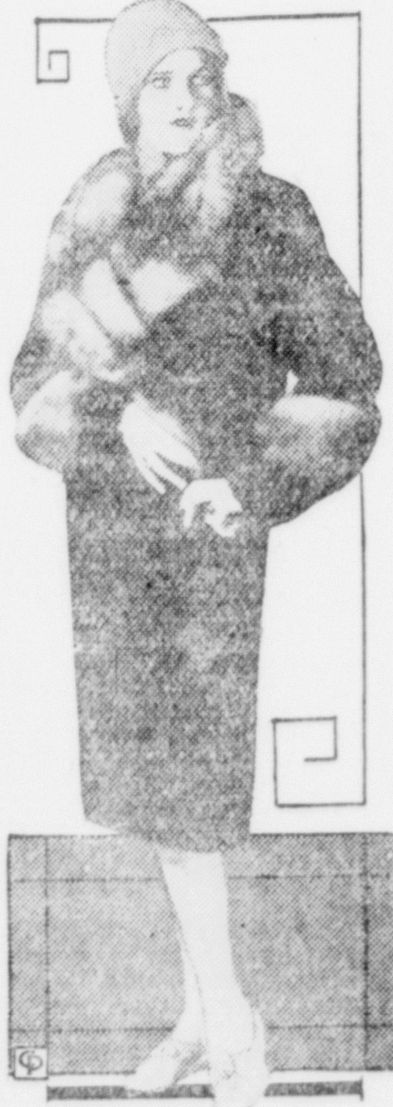

Courthouse at Gastonia, N. C., where 12 men and three women go on trial July 29, charged with the slaying of Police Chief O. F. Aderholt, killed in an exchange of shots at a camp of textile strikers. At the left, below, is the trial jurist, Judge M. V. Barnhill of Rocky Mount, N. C. Right insert, John G. Carpenter of Gastonia, solicitor.

Governor on Stand

Governor O. Max Gardner, North Carolina executive, has been called to appear as witness in the trial of twenty-three Loran Mill strikers under indictment for the alleged slaying of O. F. Aderholt, police chief of Gastonia, N. C., during a strike riot.

New Fur Fashion

The Russian fit collar and unusual cuffs stamp this sealion coat as one of the outstanding style notes of the August fur showings.

Mops Up Right

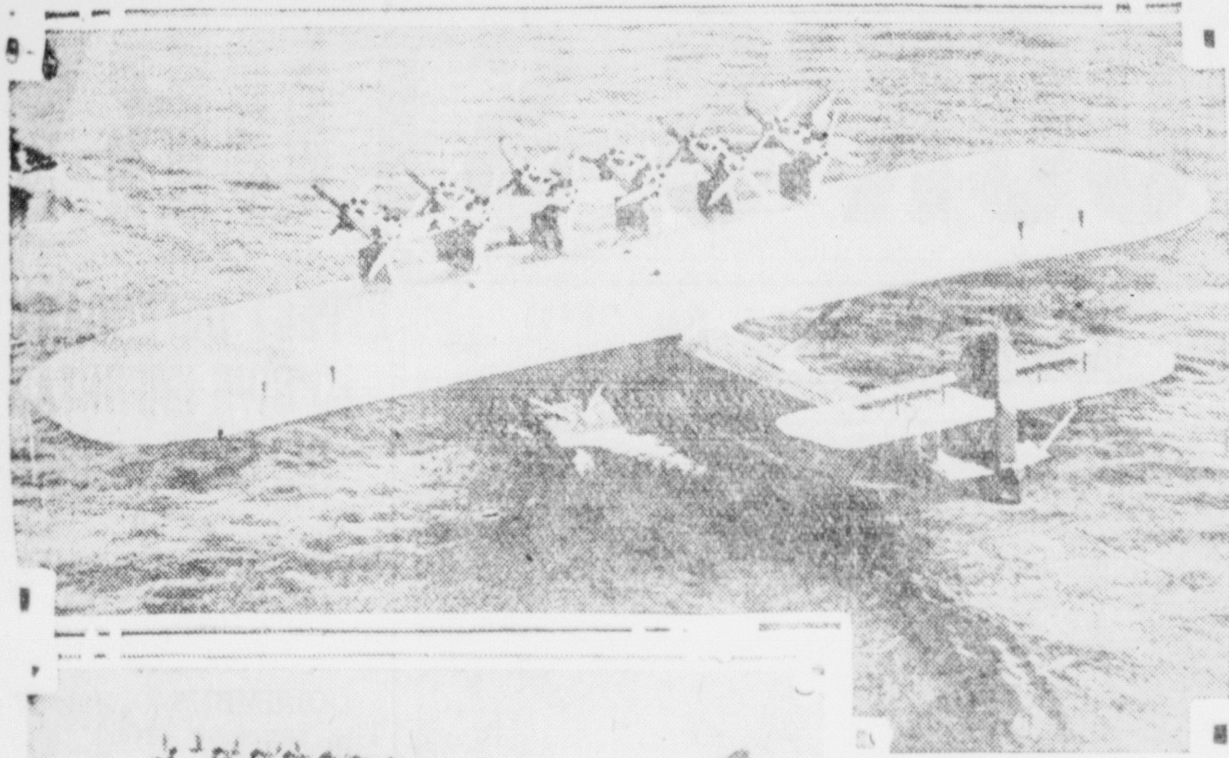

"Steady work does it," says D. F. Widenhouse, federal prohibition agent of Concord, N. C., who claims to have captured at least one illicit whisky distillery a week for the last seven years. And he never has shot down a man—and that is news.

TELLING the WORLD'S NEWS with PICTURES

Giant Air Liner Aloft and Afloat

Above is an aerial view of the great German Dornier seaplane, D. O. X., equipped with twelve motors and capable of carrying 100 passengers, shown aloft on Lake Constance,

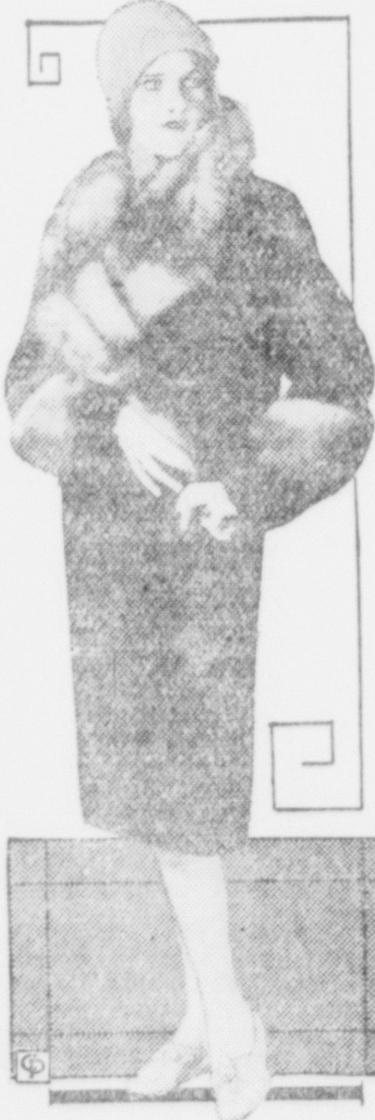

Switzerland, proving its seaworthiness. At left the D. O. X. is shown flying 600 feet over Lake Constance.

Governor on Stand

Governor O. Max Gardner, North Carolina executive, has been called to appear as witness in the trial of twenty-three Lenoir Mill strikers under indictment for the alleged slaying of O. F. Aderholt, police chief of Gastonia, N. C., during a strike riot.

New Fur Fashion

The Russian fit collar and unusual cuffs stamp this sealon coat as one of the outstanding style notes of the August fur showings.

Mops Up Right

"Steady work does it," says D. F. Widenhouse, federal prohibition agent of Concord, N. C., who claims to have captured at least one illicit whisky distillery a week for the last seven years. And he never has shot down a man—and that is news.

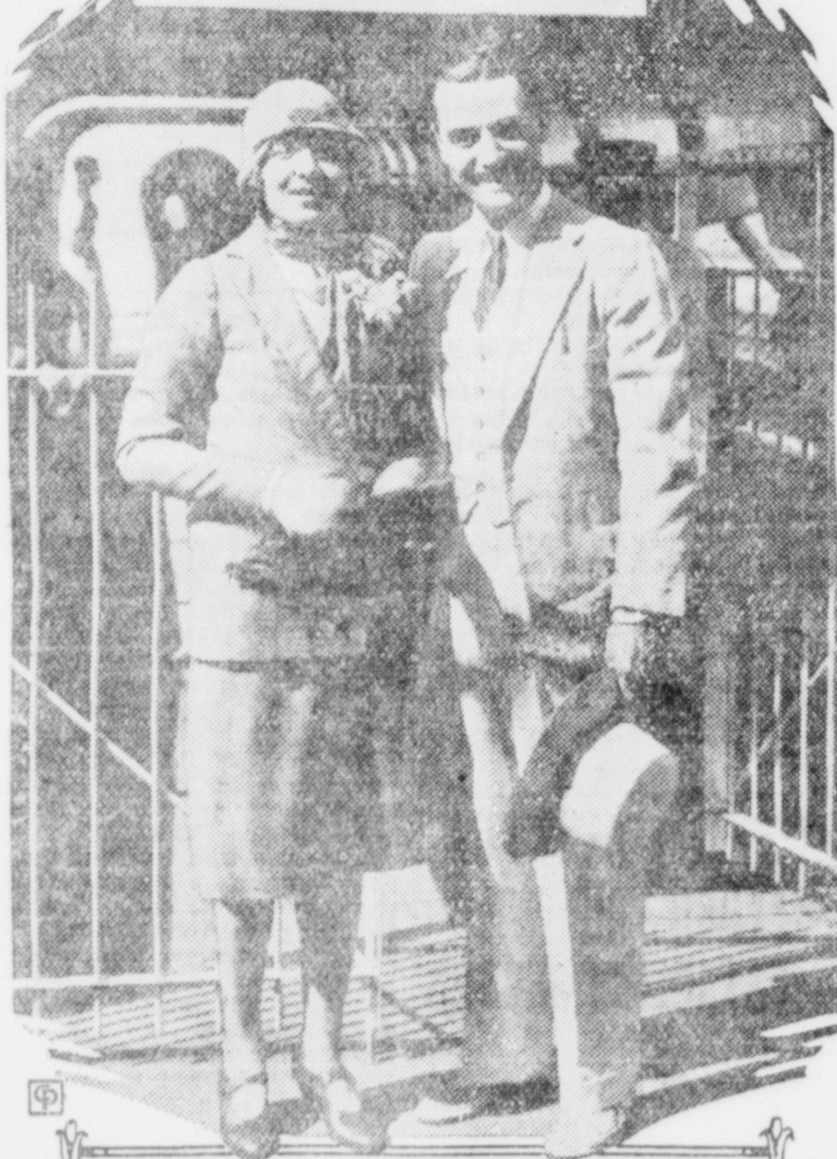

Give a Man a Good Cigar and Rod

Former President Calvin Coolidge is certainly a man's man. See how contented he appears just after removing his fishing boots and donning shoes. Maybe it's the relief from the heavy boots. He has just finished doing a little trout fishing at the Cape Cod trout club at Wareham, Mass., of which he is now a member, and is getting ready to go home with his party.

GILBERTS HOP OFF ON HONEYMOON

PASSENGERS ONLY

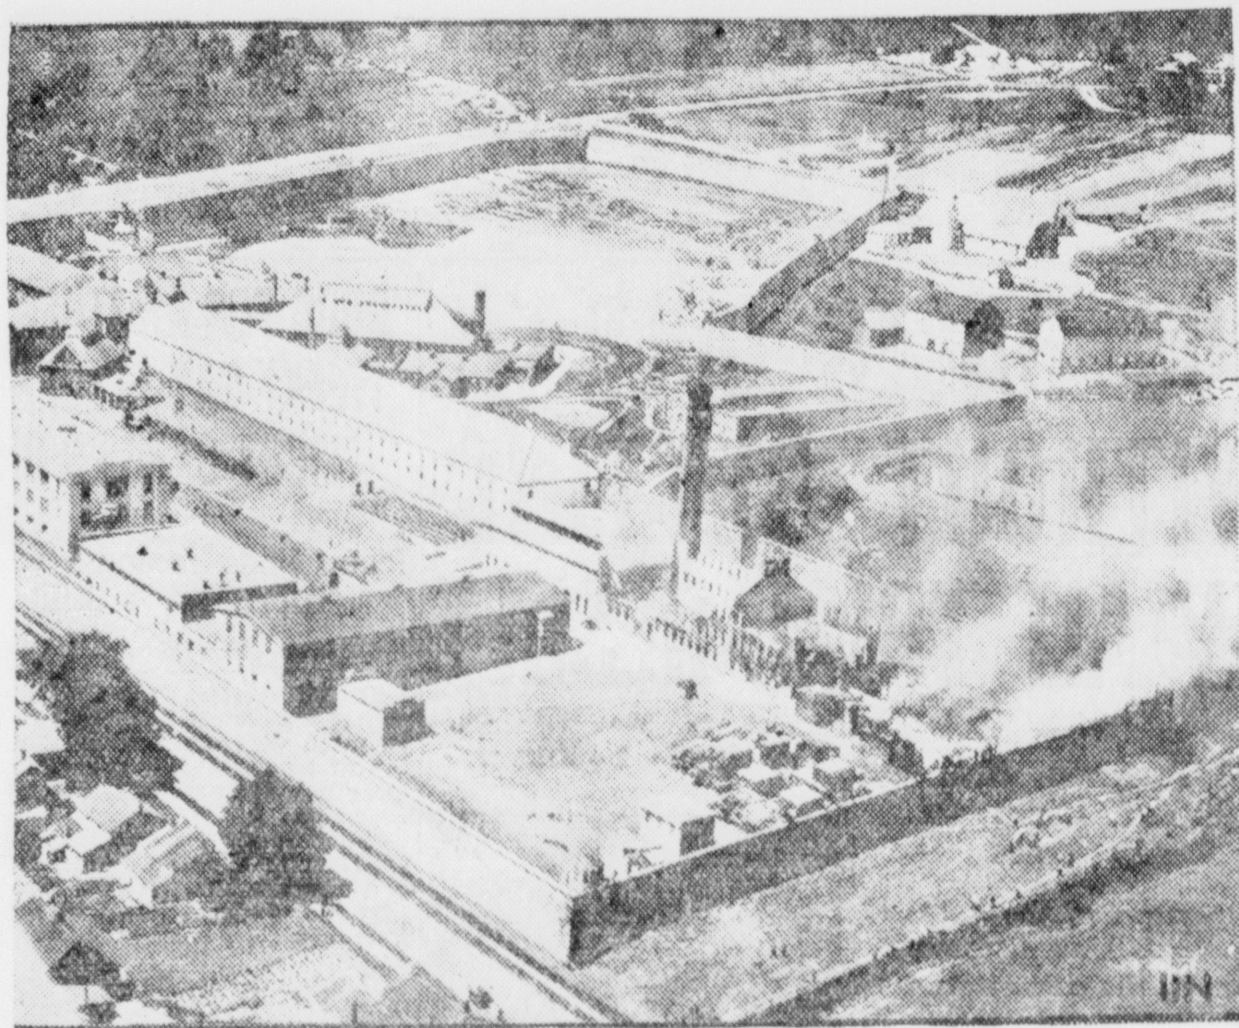

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert, of the films—she was the former Ina Claire—snapped as they boarded a plane at Los Angeles for a flight across the continent en route to Europe and a belated honeymoon. The couple eloped six weeks ago, but were prevented from taking an immediate wedding trip until each finished a picture.

Called a $200,000 Love Thief

Mrs. Helen Stroud (above), Camden beauty, is being sued for $200,000 by Mrs. Florine N. Winkelspecht for the alleged alienation of the affections of Clinton H. Winkelspecht, radio engineer. Case will be heard in New Jersey State Supreme Court.

3 Killed, 20 Wounded in Jail-Break Riot

Airplane view of Clinton Prison at Dannemora, N. Y., just after the quelling of the riot which followed the attempt of 1,000 long-term prisoners to escape by overpowering the guards. The carpenter shop on the right, fired in the first dash for freedom, is shown smouldering. Three convicts were killed and twenty wounded in the six-hour fight for freedom.

Bankers Brought to Bar of Justice

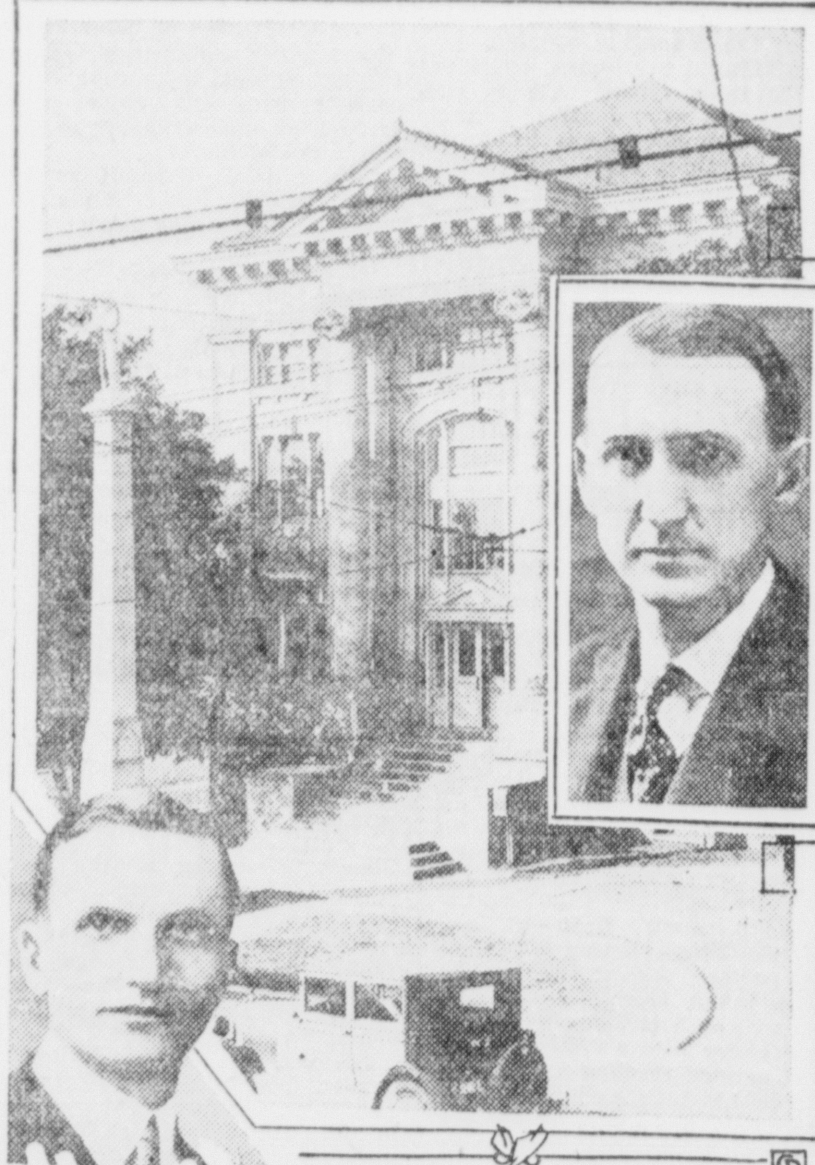

Here are the famous four Clarke partners photographed as they faced the court in General Sessions, New York. More than 200 depositors attended the meeting in a courtroom in the Federal Building and heard Federal Attorney Charles H. Tuttle speak with optimism of the possibilities of recouping part, at least, of the $5,000,000 deficit. James R. Clarke pleaded guilty to the State's charges, dramatically accepting the blame for the crash and promised to turn over all his property.

Joins Big Bank

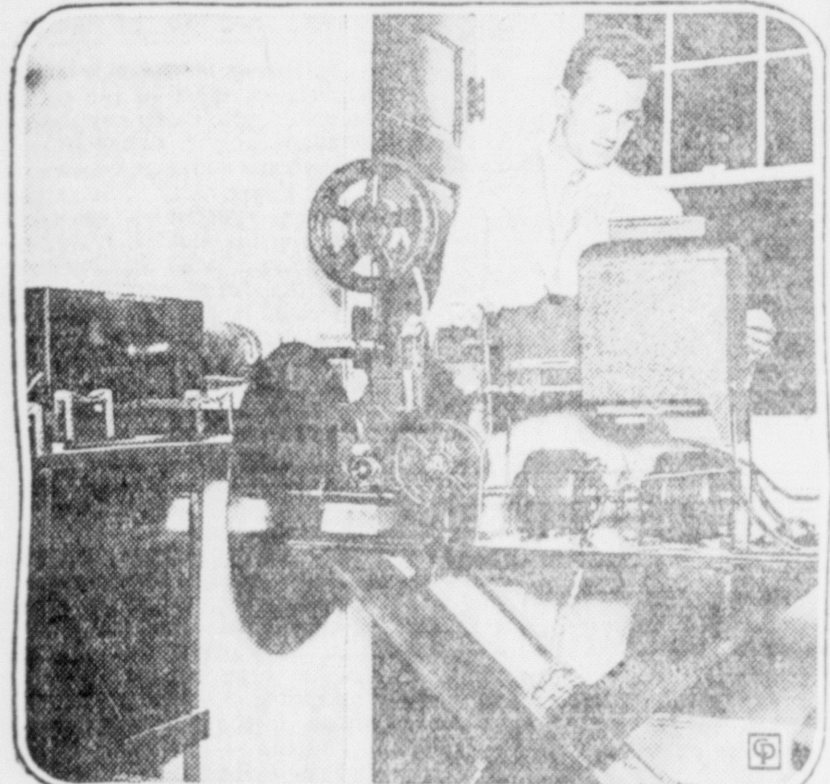

Gerard Swope (above), president of the General Electric Company, was elected a director of the National City Bank of New York, marking the first occasion on which he has associated himself as a director in any enterprise outside the electric field and marks also the resumption of an active association with Charles E. Mitchell, chairman of the bank, the groundwork of which was laid thirty years ago when Mr. Mitchell was assistant general manager of the Western Electric Company in Chicago, while Mr. Swope was in charge of the St. Louis office.

WHERE 15 BATTLE DEATH CHAIR

Courthouse at Gastonia, N. C., where 12 men and three women go on trial July 29, charged with the slaying of Police Chief O. F. Aderholt, killed in an exchange of shots at a camp of textile strikers. At the left, below, is the trial jurist, Judge M. V. Barnhill of Rocky Mount, N. C. Right insert, John G. Carpenter of Gastonia, solicitor.

SENDS 'MOTION PICTURES BY RADIO

Situated ten miles outside of Washington, D. C., near Silver Springs, Md., the new television transmitting station of C. Francis Jenkins begins broadcasting motion pictures by radio. R. P. Battle, member of the technical staff, is shown with machine.

Master and Subject

The deep-eyed man wearing glasses is Tom Garrett, hypnotist, the younger chap his trance subject, Louis de Matti. Both have achieved prominence because of their connection with the astounding case of "Dolores Ford," said to be a Toledo heiress, who married into Harlem's black-and-tan belt. Garrett says he learned Dolores' secret by hypnotizing her.

Woman Doctor Has Most Patients Is Report

Dr. Peters' hobby is reducing by a thoroughly scientific diet, where in all the food elements needed by the body for proper growth and development are considered. The doctor declares that people "begin to die when they begin to get fat."

In addition to her syndicated articles on health, Dr. Peters is the author of many magazine articles and of two books, "Diet and Health with Key to the Calories," and "Diet for Children." She was born at Milford, Me., is a graduate of the Maine State Normal School, gained her M. D. at the University of California, Berkeley, and her A. B. at the University of Southern California.

Dr. Lulu Hunt Peters.

Lulu Hunt Peters of New York. Dr. Peters writes for close to 600 newspapers, and hundreds of readers of each paper write to her for advice. In this way, advising more than a million patients a year, her record is said to be away ahead of all competing doctors.

Dr. Peters recently sailed from Los Angeles for Honolulu for a rest and vacation.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES HOLD JOINT PICNIC

Members of the Women's Missionary Societies of the First and Second United Presbyterian Churches held a joint picnic in Shawnee Park Friday afternoon. The program opened at 2:30 with devotions led by Mrs. Fannie Moore and Mrs. Charles Ervin. Miss Margaret Moorehead, president of the missionary society of the Second Church, presided at the meeting and gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Edward Moore, president of the society from the First Church, responded.

The main address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. J. Mason Prugh, Sugar Creek, thank offering secretary of this Presbyterian, who was a delegate to the convention of the Women's General Missionary Society, held in Philadelphia in June. The report, given in detail, was well received by the assemblage. Mrs. J. P. White and Mrs. Fannie Moore also gave brief impressions of the convention. The program was closed with prayer led by Mrs. J. P. Lytle.

A picnic supper was then served which was attended by more than eighty members of the two societies. The hostesses for the affair were: Second U. P. Church, Mrs. J. Weir Cooper, chairman, Mrs. Ernest Hutchison, Mrs. James Wagner, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Lyle Delph, Mrs. Charles Tindall and Mrs. B. R. McClellan. First U. P. Church, Mrs. Austin Patterson, chairman, Mrs. F. A. Jackson, Mrs. H. H. Cherry, Mrs. Clinton Rice, Miss Jessie Carruthers, Mrs. G. Y. Winter and Mrs. David Pearson.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

A meeting of the Busy Twelve Embroidery Club was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Coy, W. Second St., Friday afternoon. After several hours spent with needlework, a clever contest was enjoyed. Mrs. Fred Schultz winning a prize. Later cooling refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. Richard L. Ashbaugh, Columbus, is a guest for a few days at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mowrer, Home Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan, Dayton, were the guests Wednesday and Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lane, High St.

Mr. L. M. Jenks, Jamestown, who has been ill at his home as assistant manager of the Kroger Grocery.

Members of Alpha Theta Chapter, Delta Theta Tau Sorority, will hold a picnic at Shawnee Park, Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. and their families will hold their annual picnic at the Clark Poland Cottage Tuesday evening, July 30. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock and all are urged to be present.

Miss Sarah Hager, N. Galloway St., and Mrs. Alice G. Eavey, W. Market St., are spending a few days in Chicago.

Mr. Fred G. Spalding, Columbus, field representative of the American Red Cross will be in Xenia Wednesday, July 31, Red Cross officials here announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McClellan, W. Third St., attended the opera "Madam Butterfly" at the Zoological Garden, Cincinnati, Friday evening.

Mrs. H. S. Croughorn and daughter, Betty Jean, N. Galloway St., left Saturday for Pawnee City, Neb., where they will visit Mrs. Croughorn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Keithley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Denham and daughter Dorothy, Spring St., will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Morse, Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright left Saturday morning for New Castle, Pa., where Mr. Wright will take up his work as repair salesman for the N. C. R. of Dayton.

Mrs. William Milestead, Jamestown, underwent a nasal operation here Saturday morning.

Mr. Frank Byrd, Trumbull St., who has been confined to his home for some time because of illness, is able to be up and around.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR BEGINS BATTLE FOR LIFE

Dr. James H. Snook, once highly respected professor of veterinary medicine at Ohio State university, has begun his battle for life, charged with the slaying of Miss Theora Hix, his medical student sweetheart, at Columbus, O. Snook is shown with his chief defense counsel, E. O. Ricketts, Prosecutor John J. Chester, in court poses, and below, an heretofore unpublished photo of the murdered girl.

ORGANIZATION TO FURTHER TAX AMENDMENT MAY BE FORMED

Plans are being announced to have representatives of every township and every business and occupation in Greene County present at an informal meeting called for 8 p. m. August 1 in the assembly room at the Court House, at which the proposed "tax limit amendment" will be discussed and possibly an organization formed to support it in this county.

The meeting is being called by David Bradtke, Cedarville, who was recently designated by the Greene County Farm Bureau to represent it in this county in support of the amendment and was appointed Greene County's representative in the All-Ohio Tax League, composed of representatives of manufacturing, financial, mercantile and agricultural organizations.

Announcement is now being made that Bradtke has been appointed by Rep. H. S. Keller, Springfield, to organize the entire county in support of the measure. It is contended that Ohio's progress has been hampered for the last seventy-eight years by the "uniform rule" of taxation in its constitution, which actually is not uniform and can never be made to function uniformly.

At the general election in November, Ohio voters will be asked to approve the "tax limit amendment," proposed by the last General Assembly, which if approved, will enable the next General Assembly to remove alleged inequalities of taxation that now exist.

REAL ESTATE

William M. Henry to Margaret Ogan, property in village of Jamestown, $1.00.
Ralph O. Routzong to Phoebe Kogler, property in village of Fairfield, $1.00.

J. Arthur Alexander and Charlotte E. Alexander to Marika S. Doids, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1.00.
Clyde Conklin, Laura C. Adst, Hannah M. Taylor and Cora Bales to Hattie P. Hayward, property in Xenia Twp., $1.00.

Gertrude Tait Myers and Jeanette Tait to Ralph L. and Rachel F. Swigart, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1.00.

Christ and Elizabeth Trick to Harry and Clara Horch, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Thomas L. and Margaret L. Jones to John T. Harbine, Jr., property in Xenia City, $1.00.

Floyd and Nellie Dye to Fred A. Johnston, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Edward Downey, Mary E. Downey and James Downey to William Downey, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Sallie M. Russell to Hanna M. Taylor and Charles F. Taylor, property in Xenia City, $1.00.

Charles I. Beaver to W. Clifford Harkrader, property in Beaver Creek Twp., $1.00.

Floyd and Sarah C. Neely to Charles N. and Mata E. Garber, property in Beaver Creek Twp., $1.00.

John A. Baker to Edna May Thompson, property in Cedarville Twp., $1.00.

J. H. and Gussie Jones to F. W. Sanger, property in Xenia Twp., $1.00.

J. J. Collins to Olive M. Collins, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Simeon M. and Rebecca S. Garlinger, to Irl H. Garringer, property in Silvercreek and Jefferson Twp., $1.00.

W. O. Bullock to Olive E. Ritenour, property in Silvercreek Twp., $1.00.

Fred and Kathryn Sanger to G. H. Banks, property in Xenia Twp., $1.00.

STATE INSPECTOR ACCUSES DAIRYMEN

Charged in affidavits filed by James I. Martin state inspector, with second offense of unlawfully refilling registered milk bottles belonging to other dairies, L. O. Clemmer and J. L. Hurley, Xenia dairymen, are at liberty under $100 bond each pending the assignment of a date for their hearings in Common Pleas Court.

Three affidavits filed against Clemmer charge him with illegally refilling thirty-seven milk bottles owned by three other local dairy farms. Hurley is accused in two affidavits with refilling forty-six bottles belonging to two other dairies. The alleged offenses occurred July 23.

At the general election in November, Ohio voters will be asked to approve the "tax limit amendment," proposed by the last General Assembly, which if approved, will enable the next General Assembly to remove alleged inequalities of taxation that now exist.

REAL ESTATE

William M. Henry to Margaret Ogan, property in village of Jamestown, $1.00.
Ralph O. Routzong to Phoebe Kogler, property in village of Fairfield, $1.00.

J. Arthur Alexander and Charlotte E. Alexander to Marika S. Doids, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1.00.
Clyde Conklin, Laura C. Adst, Hannah M. Taylor and Cora Bales to Hattie P. Hayward, property in Xenia Twp., $1.00.

Gertrude Tait Myers and Jeanette Tait to Ralph L. and Rachel F. Swigart, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1.00.

Christ and Elizabeth Trick to Harry and Clara Horch, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Thomas L. and Margaret L. Jones to John T. Harbine, Jr., property in Xenia City, $1.00.

Floyd and Nellie Dye to Fred A. Johnston, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Edward Downey, Mary E. Downey and James Downey to William Downey, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Sallie M. Russell to Hanna M. Taylor and Charles F. Taylor, property in Xenia City, $1.00.

Charles I. Beaver to W. Clifford Harkrader, property in Beaver Creek Twp., $1.00.

Floyd and Sarah C. Neely to Charles N. and Mata E. Garber, property in Beaver Creek Twp., $1.00.

John A. Baker to Edna May Thompson, property in Cedarville Twp., $1.00.

J. H. and Gussie Jones to F. W. Sanger, property in Xenia Twp., $1.00.

J. J. Collins to Olive M. Collins, property in Bath Twp., $1.00.

Simeon M. and Rebecca S. Garlinger, to Irl H. Garringer, property in Silvercreek and Jefferson Twp., $1.00.

W. O. Bullock to Olive E. Ritenour, property in Silvercreek Twp., $1.00.

Fred and Kathryn Sanger to G. H. Banks, property in Xenia Twp., $1.00.

LET CONTRACTS FOR PRINTING BALLOTS

Contracts for printing approximately 1,000 ballots and fourteen sets of poll books for Xenia's August 31 primary election were awarded by the board of elections at a meeting Friday afternoon.

The Aldine Publishing Co., this city, received the contract for printing ballots on its bid of $5.75 a 1,000, a total of about $25.

The Johnson-Watson Co., Dayton, was the successful bidder for the contract for printing poll books. The Dayton firm's bid was $106.

OUR WEATHER MAN

Maybe Hoover could take it out on those bucking senators by inviting them to play medicine ball.

THE COURT HOUSE BEAUTY SHOPPE

An exclusive Women's Shop
MARCELS
PERMANENTS
HAIR CUTTING

WIFE FILES ANSWER IN DIVORCE ACTION

In an answer and cross petition to the divorce suit filed in Common Pleas Court by Kenneth Ringer against Grace Ringer, the defendant charges extreme cruelty, declaring her husband assaulted and beat her on numerous occasions. She also denies all allegations contained in Ringer's petition.

HONOR THEM WITH A MEMORIAL

May We Assist You?
The Geo. Dodds & Sons
Granite Co.
In Xenia
Over Sixty Five Years

ADAIR'S

Fried Chicken,
Apple Pie with Scott Ice
Cream A La Mode
will be served at
THE FRANCES INN
Sunday noon
Hour 11:30 to 2
Price $1.00 plate

SOUTH POLE ENJOYS SUB-ZERO WEATHER AS XENIA SWEETERS

It was seventy degrees below zero at the South Pole Saturday your correspondent, the hot weather and ship news reporter of The Gazette, learned.

The weather was so cold down there that food tea had to be kept in a thermos bottle to keep it from freezing and the steam from a boiling kettle on Commander Byrd's ship froze so the cook had to cut his way through the kitchen with a blow torch.

All of this is apropos of nothing except possibly the fact that if a thunder shower occurs Sunday, as promised, Xenians may be able to cross Main and Detroit Sts., without their rubber heels melting and sticking to the hot bricks.

Weather here Friday and Saturday won the universal opposition of citizens both as to quality and quantity. It was agreed on street corners and cigar stores and other places where citizens argue but never agree, that there was too much weather and that it was too hot. They agreed evidently, because it was too hot to argue.

It was reported that one man came out of his cellar Saturday, watched the heat waves dancing on the brick streets and auto radiators, saw the asphalt streets running in waves and saw a girl come across the street with a fur neck piece on, and immediately signed the temperance pledge for life.

Rain which struck Springfield Friday afternoon failed to reach Xenia, and a storm that threatened Friday evening evidently passed around Xenia. Partly cloudy weather Saturday coupled with a promise of thunderstorms Sunday, indicated coming relief for sweetering citizens.

REPORT BURGLARS

Reported theft of a mesh bag and a silver bracelet from the home of Herman Bone, 14 W. Second St., Friday night, was investigated by Patrolmen Charles Thompson and J. E. Craig. Evidence is said to have been gained by raising a window. Police suspect several colored boys seen hanging about an alley in the rear of the residence.

EAST END NEWS

MRS. JAMES HARRIS
Correspondent
Tel. 91-R

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. R. D. Murdock, Pastor
Morning worship 11 o'clock.
Preaching by Rev. Henry Payne

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH
A. McClintock Howe, Minister
The Sabbath School will convene at the usual hour, 9:30 a. m. Why not acquaint yourself with the best Book in all the world? The Bible. Come and spend an hour with us in the study of God's word.

10:45 a. m.—Worship and sermon.

10:45 a. m.—Morning worship. Sermon by Dr. I. N. Patterson, pastor of Brown's Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

12:30 p. m.—Sunday School. W. S. Rogers, Supt. Lloyd Clarke and R. A. Braxton, assistants. Subject, "How the Church is Making Our Nation Better." Matt. 13:31-33, Luke 4:18-19.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

Theological Seminary as this is Trustee Day. All members are urged to be out to assist in this capacity.

12:30 Sunday School. Archie Newsome, Supt. Come and bring your children and learn of God's word.

Evening worship 8 o'clock. Preaching by Rev. Henry D. Taerle will be a social given by First A. M. E. and Christian Sunday Schools, Tuesday, July 30 on the Christian Church lawn. Dinner served promptly at 12:30 o'clock. Bar B. Q. and other good things. Come one. Come all.

Rev. R. L. Murdock and family left last Wednesday morning for Alabama to visit his parents. They were accompanied by Mrs. Emma Riddle of Wilberforce as far as Nashville, Tenn., also Mrs. Warren Roberts who will visit her nephew Christopher Perry at Tuskegee, Ala., and Miss Rilda Phelps who will also visit Tuskegee and other points of interest.

Bear in mind the Sunday School picnic on July 31 at Wilberforce. Free transportation for all Sunday School pupils.

The committees are working earnestly on the moonlight picnic to be given August 17 on church lawn.

THIRD M. E. CHURCH
E. Market St.
Rev. C. H. McDonald, Pastor
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Miss L. Chinn, Supt.
Preaching at 11 o'clock.
At 3 o'clock there will be platonic services. Rev. J. Payne in charge.
Preaching at 7:30 p. m.
All are cordially welcome.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. A. L. Dooley, Pastor
9:30 Sunday School. Mr. James Peters, Supt.
10:30 a. m. Preaching by Rev. A. L. Dooley. Sunday is "Young Peoples Day." The Junior choir will sing for the morning service, also Miss Theresa Jenkins will sing a solo.

6:30 B. Y. P. U. Mrs. A. C. Hawkins, president, Marie Greenway, program leader
7:30 p. m. Rev. Lytle pastor of the Presbyterian Church will deliver the message also his choir will furnish the music.

B. Y. P. U. program: song, choir, scripture reading, Arthur L. Jefferson, prayer, Mrs. Bertha Watson; reading of minutes, secretary; discussion of topic, Miss Julia Wilhite; solo, Mr. Huff; reading, Ada Hamilton; instrumental solo, Rosella Ware; reading, Harriett Smith; talk, Rev. A. L. Dooley. Please be on time.

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH
A. McClintock Howe, Minister
The Sabbath School will convene at the usual hour, 9:30 a. m. Why not acquaint yourself with the best Book in all the world? The Bible. Come and spend an hour with us in the study of God's word.

10:45 a. m.—Worship and sermon.

10:45 a. m.—Morning worship. Sermon by Dr. I. N. Patterson, pastor of Brown's Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

12:30 p. m.—Sunday School. W. S. Rogers, Supt. Lloyd Clarke and R. A. Braxton, assistants. Subject, "How the Church is Making Our Nation Better." Matt. 13:31-33, Luke 4:18-19.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms." Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

mon. "The Christ of God is the Christ For Me; Why Not Make Him Your Christ?"

6

Woman Doctor Has Most Patients Is Report

DID you ever wonder what doctor in America has the greatest number of patients? A woman claims the distinction. She is Dr.

Dr. Lulu Hunt Peters.

Lulu Hunt Peters of New York. Dr. Peters writes for close to 600 newspapers, and hundreds of readers of each paper write to her for advice. In this way, advising more than a million patients a year, her record is said to be away ahead of all competing doctors.

Dr. Peters recently sailed from Los Angeles for Honolulu for a rest and vacation.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES HOLD JOINT PICNIC

Members of the Women's Missionary Societies of the First and Second United Presbyterian Churches held a joint picnic in Shawnee Park Friday afternoon. The program opened at 3:30 with devotions led by Mrs. Fannie Moore and Mrs. Charles Ervin. Miss Margaret Moorehead, president of the missionary society of the Second Church, presided at the meeting and gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Edward Mooreman, president of the society from the First Church, responded.

The main address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. J. Mason Prugh, Sugarcreek, thank offering secretary of this Presbyterian, who was a delegate to the convention of the Women's General Missionary Society, held in Philadelphia in June. The report, given in detail, was well received by the assembly. Mrs. J. P. White and Mrs. Fannie Moore also gave brief impressions of the convention. The program was closed with prayer led by Mrs. J. P. Lytle.

A picnic supper was then served which was attended by more than eighty members of the two societies. The hostesses for the affair were: Second U. P. Church, Mrs. J. Weir Cooper, chairman, Mrs. Ernest Hutchison, Mrs. James Wagner, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. Lyle Delph, Mrs. Charles Tindall and Mrs. R. R. McCallister; First U. P. Church, Mrs. Austin Patterson, chairman, Mrs. F. A. Jackson, Mrs. H. H. Cherry, Mrs. Clinton Rice, Miss Jessie Carruthers, Mrs. G. Y. Winter and Mrs. David Pearson.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

A meeting of the Busy Twelve Embroidery Club was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Coy, W. Second St., Friday afternoon. After several hours spent with needlework, a clever contest was enjoyed. Mrs. Fred Schultz winning a prize. Later, cooling refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. Richard L. Ashbaugh, Columbus, is a guest for a few days at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mowrer, Home Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan, Dayton, were the guests Wednesday and Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lane, High St.

Mr. L. M. Jenks, Jamestown, who has been ill at his home has assumed his duties as manager of the Kroger Grocery.

Members of Alpha Theta Chapter, Delta Theta Tau Sorority, will hold a picnic at Shawnee Park, Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. and their families will hold their annual picnic at the Clark Poland Cottage Tuesday evening, July 30. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock and all are urged to be present.

Miss Sarah Hager, N. Galloway St., and Mrs. Alice G. Eavey, W. Market St., are spending a few days in Chicago.

Mr. Fred G. Spalding, Columbus, field representative of the American Red Cross will be in Xenia Wednesday, July 31. Red Cross officials here announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McClellan, W. Third St., attended the opera "Madam Butterfly" at the Zoological Garden, Cincinnati, Friday evening.

Mrs. H. S. Croushorn and daughter, Betty Jean, N. Galloway St., left Saturday for Pawnee City, Neb., where they will visit Mrs. Croushorn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Keithley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Denham and daughter Dorothy, Spring St., will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Morse, Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright left Saturday morning for New Castle, Pa., where Mr. Wright will take up his work as repair salesman for the N. C. R. of Dayton.

Mrs. William Milestead, Jamestown, underwent a nasal operation here Saturday morning.

Mr. Frank Byrd, Trumbull St., who has been confined to his home for some time because of illness, is able to be up and around.

Dr. Peters' hobby is reducing by a thoroughly scientific diet, where in all the food elements needed by the body for proper growth and development are considered. The doctor declares that people "begin to die when they begin to get fat."

In addition to her syndicated articles on health, Dr. Peters is the author of many magazine articles and of two books, "Diet and Health with Key to the Calories," and "Diet for Children." She was born at Milford, Me., is a graduate of the Maine State Normal School, gained her M. D. at the University of California, Berkeley, and her A. B. at the University of Southern California.

Fund for Children

More than $2,000,000 has been entrusted to the "Save the Children" fund organized in Great Britain ten years ago, with which it has relieved distress among little children and raised the standards of child life in more than thirty countries.

Egyptian Lawyer

Mme. Sayba-Carouzi, a practicing lawyer of Cairo, Egypt, is in the United States attending the Williamstown conference on politics. She intends to tour the United States lecturing on women's new place in the world.

Children Malnourished

The federal department of labor reports that over 5,000,000 American boys and girls are suffering from malnutrition. It is said that in ninety-eight out of 100 cases the health of these children is not a question of proper climate, but of right food.

WILLIAM MILLER PASSES LAST STATE BAR EXAMINATION

William Andrew Miller, son of Attorney and Mrs. W. L. Miller, N. Detroit St., is included in a list of 95 applicants who successfully passed the last state bar examination, according to an announcement by the clerk of the State Supreme Court Saturday.

More than 700 applicants took the examination and Miller, along with the other successful candidates, will be sworn in by Supreme Court Justice James F. Robinson either at Cleveland August 5 at 1 p. m., at Columbus August 6 at 1 p. m., or at Cincinnati August 7 at 1 p. m.

Miller, now a full-fledged lawyer, took his arts degree at Miami University and graduated from law school at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, after three years. He is a member of the 1923 graduating class of Xenia Central High School.

He has made no announcement as to where he expects to practice.

SAYS RACE BETTING "HOT POTATO" FOR GOVERNOR COOPER

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—A news letter sent out from the publicity department of Democratic state headquarters today, characterizes the state race betting situation as a "hot potato in Governor Cooper's hands."

Elmer P. Fries, director of the department which was only recently established, depicts Governor Cooper as "a righteous crusader against evil to some citizens" and "a kill-joy and reformer" to others.

"To those not concerned with gambling, the governor simply picked up a hot potato," he writes. Fries then says "the governor pitched the potato to Attorney General Gilbert Bettman" who "entered into a letter-writing contest with the county prosecutors" involved.

JOCKEY BOOTS THREE CASH WINNERS HOME

CHICAGO, July 27.—Jockey Carl Meyer, the New Orleans rider who came to the Arlington track two weeks ago, intent on staging a comeback, appears destined to achieve his aim.

Meyer really convinced the racegoers yesterday afternoon that he still knows how to boot them home. He began the day with a victory on Toltec, a 22-1 shot, and then came back to victories on Lawley in the feature race of the day and on Devon in a later race.

Always a great stretch rider, Carl demonstrated he still knows how to keep them going at the end when he came from behind on both Lawley and Devon and literally outrode other riders in the last eighth of a mile.

STATISTICS SHOW LOSS BY INFECTION

Greene County had 106 cases of infection arising from accident, with two fatalities and 14,221 days time lost during 1928 according to statistics prepared by the division of safety and hygiene of the Ohio Industrial Commission.

The division is urging prompt first aid or medical attention in solving the problem of accident prevention. Of the 229,233 accidents reported, 35,908 developed blood poisoning, causing 232 fatalities, three permanent total disabilities and 305 cases of permanent partial disability.

Of these cases 11,119 caused more than seven days loss of time, 5,764 seven days or less and 18,455 no loss time. Infection caused a total loss of 2,006,502 days, the report shows.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR BEGINS BATTLE FOR LIFE

Dr. James H. Snook, once highly respected professor of veterinary medicine at Ohio State university, has begun his battle for life, charged with the slaying of Miss Theora Hix, his medical student sweetheart, at Columbus, O. Snook is shown with his chief defense counsel, E. O. Ricketts, Prosecutor John J. Chester, in court poses, and below, an heretofore unpublished photo of the murdered girl.

ORGANIZATION TO FURTHER TAX AMENDMENT MAY BE FORMED

Plans are being announced to have representatives of every township and every business and occupation in Greene County present at an informal meeting called for 8 p. m. August 1 in the assembly room at the Court House, at which the proposed "tax limit amendment" will be discussed and possibly an organization formed to support it in this county.

The meeting is being called by David Bradstreet, Cedarville, who was recently designated by the Greene County Farm Bureau to represent it in this county in support of the amendment and was appointed Greene County's representative in the All-Ohio Tax League, composed of representatives of manufacturing, financial, mercantile and agricultural organizations.

Announcement is now being made that Bradstreet has been appointed by Rep. H. S. Kiefer, Springfield, to organize the entire county in support of the measure. It is contended that Ohio's progress has been hampered for the last seventy-eight years by the "uniform rule" of taxation in its constitution, which actually is not uniform and can never be made to function uniformly.

At the general election in November, Ohio voters will be asked to approve the "tax limit amendment," proposed by the last General Assembly, which if approved, will enable the next General Assembly to remove alleged inequalities of taxation that now exist.

REAL ESTATE

William M. Henry to Margaret Ogan, property in village of Jamestown, $1,000.
Ralph O. Rountz to Phoebe Koerber, property in village of Fairfield, $1,000.

J. Arthur Alexander and Charlotte E. Alexander to Marika S. Dadds, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1,000.

Clyde Konklin, Laura C. Adsit, Hannah M. Taylor and Cora Bales to Hattie P. Hayward, property in Xenia Twp., $1,000.

Gertrude Tait Myers and Jeanette Tait to Ralph L. and Rachel E. Swigart, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1,000.

Christ and Elizabeth Trick to Harry and Clara Horsch, property in Bath Twp., $1,000.

Thomas L. and Margaret L. Jones to John T. Harbine, Jr., property in Xenia City, $1,000.

Floyd and Nellie Dye to Fred A. Johnston, property in Bath Twp., $1,000.

Edward Downey, Mary E. Downey and James Downey to William Downey, property in Bath Twp., $1,000.

Sallie M. Russell to Hanna M. Taylor and Charles F. Taylor, property in Xenia City, $1,000.

Charles L. Beaver to W. Clifford Harkrader, property in Beaver Creek Twp., $1,000.

Floyd and Sarah C. Neely to Charles N. and Mata E. Garber, property in Beavercreek Twp., $1,000.

John A. Baker to Edna May Thompson, property in Cedarville Twp., $1,000.

J. H. and Gussie Jones to F. W. Sanger, property in Xenia Twp., $1,000.

J. J. Collins to Olive M. Collins, property in Bath Twp., $1,000.

Simeon M. and Rebecca S. Garbinger, to Irl H. Garbinger, property in Silvercreek and Jefferson Twp., $1,000.

W. O. Bullock to Olive E. Ritenour, property in Silvercreek Twp., $1,000.

Fred and Kathryn Sanger to G. H. Banks, property in Xenia Twp., $1,000.

Samuel Engelman to W. T. S. King, property in village of Osborn, $1,000.

Dick and Mary E. Denison to Antioch College, property in village of Yellow Springs, $1,000.

Robert Slek to Guy R. and Mabel Esther Hutsler, property in Xenia City, $1,000.

James and Lula Dickerson to Patti N. Alston, property in Xenia City, $1,000.

SOUTH POLE ENJOYS SUB-ZERO WEATHER AS XENIA SWELTERS

It was seventy degrees below zero at the South Pole Saturday your correspondent, the hot weather and ship news reporter of The Gazette, learned.

The weather was so cold down there that iced tea had to be kept in a thermos bottle to keep it from freezing and the steam from a boiling kettle on Commander Byrd's ship froze so the cook had to cut his way through the kitchen with a blow torch.

All of this is apropos of nothing except possibly the fact that if a thunder shower occurs Sunday, as promised, Xenians may be able to cross Main and Detroit Sts. without their rubber heels melting and sticking to the hot bricks.

Weather here Friday and Saturday won the universal opposition of citizens both as to quality and quantity. It was agreed on street corners and cigar stores and other places where citizens argue but never agree, that there was too much weather and that it was too hot. They agreed, evidently, because it was too hot to argue.

It was reported that one man came out of his cellar Saturday, watched the heat waves dancing on the brick streets and auto radiators, saw the asphalt streets running in waves and saw a girl come across the street with a fur neck piece on, and immediately signed the temperance pledge for life.

Rain which struck Springfield Xenia, and a storm that threatened Friday evening evidently passed around Xenia. Partly cloudy weather Saturday coupled with a promise of thunderstorms Sunday, indicated coming relief for sweltering citizens.

REPORT BURGLARS

Reported theft of a mesh bag and a silver bracelet from the home of Herman Bone, 14 W. Second St., Friday night, was investigated by Patrolmen Charles Thompson and J. E. Craig. Evidence is said to have been gained by raising a window. Police suspect several colored boys seen hanging about an alley in the rear of the residence.

EAST END NEWS

MRS. JAMES HARRIS
Correspondent
Tel. 91-R

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. R. D. Murdock, Pastor
Morning worship 11 o'clock
Preaching by Rev. Henry of Payne

Theological Seminary as this is Trustee Day. All members are urged to be out to assist in this capacity.

12:30 Sunday School. Archie Newsome, Supt. Come and bring your children and learn of God's word.

Evening worship 8 o'clock. Preaching by Rev. Henry.

There will be a social given by First A. M. E. and Christian Sunday Schools, Tuesday, July 30 on the Christian Church lawn. Dinner served promptly at 12:30 o'clock. Bar B. Q. and other good things. Come one. Come all.

Rev. R. L. Murdock and family left last Wednesday morning for Alabama to visit his parents. They were accompanied by Mrs. Emma Riddle of Wilberforce as far as Nashville, Tenn., also Mrs. Warren Roberts who will visit her nephew Christopher Perry at Tuskegee, Ala., and Miss Rilla Phelps who will also visit Tuskegee and other points of interest.

Bear in mind the Sunday School picnic on July 31 at Wilberforce. Free transportation for all Sunday School pupils.

The committees are working earnestly on the moonlight picnic to be given August 17 on church lawn.

THIRD M. E. CHURCH
E. Market St.
Rev. C. H. McDonald, Pastor
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Miss L. Chinn, Supt.
Preaching at 11 o'clock.
At 3 o'clock there will be platform services. Rev. J. Payne in charge.
Preaching at 7:30 p. m.
All are cordially welcome.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. A. L. Dooley, Pastor
9:30 Sunday School. Mr. James Peters, Supt.
10:30 a. m. Preaching by Rev. A. L. Dooley. Sunday is "Young Peoples Day," the Junior choir will sing for the morning service, also Miss Theresa Jenkins will sing a solo.
6:30 B. Y. P. U. Mrs. A. C. Hawkins, president, Marie Greenway, program leader.
7:30 p. m. Rev. Lytle pastor of the Presbyterian Church will deliver the message also his choir will furnish the music.

B. Y. P. U. program: song, choir, scripture reading, Arthur L. Jefferson, prayer, Mrs. Bertha Watson; reading of minutes, secretary; discussion of topic, Miss Julia Wilhite; solo, Mr. Huff; reading, Ada Hamilton; instrumental solo, Rosella Ware; reading, Harriett Smith; talk, Rev. A. L. Dooley. Please be on time.

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH
A. McClintock Howe, Minister
The Sabbath School will convene at the usual hour, 9:30 a. m. Why not acquaint yourself with the best Book in all the world? The Bible. Come and spend an hour with us in the study of God's word.
10:45 a. m.—Worship and ser-

mon. "The Christ of God is the Christ For Me; Why Not Make Him Your Christ?"

6:30 p. m.—B. Y. P. U. This service will prove a blessing to all who attend. Group Number Three will have charge. Watch for program.

7:45 p. m.—Worship and sermon. Rev. I. Newton Patterson, B. S. D., pastor of Brown's Chapel Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., will preach. Rev. Dr. Patterson is one of Xenia's favorite sons, having graduated from East High, and also from Wilberforce University with the Bachelor of Science degree, and from the Xenia Theological Seminary, which is now located at St. Louis. The public is invited to come out and make this a real home coming to and for one of her favorite sons.

Watch, wait, keep in mind the coming annual moonlight picnic to be given by the Third Baptist Church, Saturday evening August 10, on the Masonic lawn, E. Main St. This event is always looked forward to with much interest each year.

The Northern District Association of the Third Baptist Church is now busy arranging for its district meeting which will take place some time in August. Let every member take due notice.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH
Dr. A. R. Fox, Minister
10:45 a. m.—Morning worship. Sermon by Dr. I. N. Patterson, pastor of Brown's Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.
12:30 p. m.—Sunday School. W. S. Rogers, Supt. Lloyd Clarke and R. A. Braxton, assistants.
6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor, Venzella Scurry, president. Subject, "How the Church is Making Our Nation Better." Matt. 13:31-32. Luke 4: 18-19.
7:30 p. m.—Evening worship, sermon subject, "Stilling Life's Storms."

Follow the crowd to old historic St. John's.

THE BELVEDERE
319 W. 48th ST. N.Y.
Times Square's
Finest Hotel
450 Rooms—450 Baths
No courts. All outside rooms with two windows and bath for each room.
Large Room & Bath $4
For two $5
With Twin Beds $6
Double Room with
Twin Beds, Bath $6
Illustrated Booklets on Request.
CORTIS A. HALE
Managing Director

DINE AND DANCE AT KILKARE PARK
Dayton-Xenia Pike 3 miles West of Xenia
FORMAL OPENING
Tuesday July 30
MUSIC BY THE MOTLEY CREW
"A Band of Collegians"
8:30 to 12:30 - Telephone Reservations
"Revelry with Refinement"

GREATEST August FURNITURE SALE
Starts Monday, July 29th Ends Aug. 17
ADAIR'S

Fried Chicken,
Apple Pie with Scott Ice
Cream A La Mode
will be served at
THE FRANCES INN
Sunday noon
Hour 11:30 to 2
Price $1.00 plate

LET CONTRACTS FOR PRINTING BALLOTS

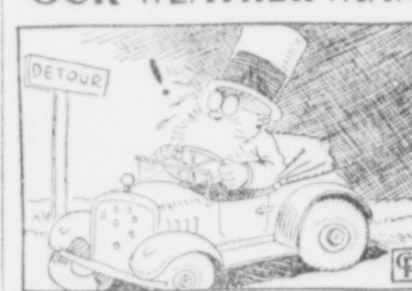

Contracts for printing approximately 4,000 ballots and fourteen sets of poll books for Xenia's August 13 primary election were awarded by the board of elections at a meeting Friday afternoon.

The Aldine Publishing Co., this city, received the contract for printing ballots on its bid of $5.75 a 1,000, a total of about $23.

The Johnson-Watson Co., Dayton, was the successful bidder for the contract for printing poll books.

The Dayton firm's bid was $106. A supply of absent voters' ballots for the accommodation of those voters who will be away from the city on primary day will be available August 1, according to R. E. Dunkel, clerk of the election board.

OUR WEATHER MAN

Maybe Hoover could take it out on those bucking senators by inviting them to play medicine ball.

THE COURT HOUSE BEAUTY SHOPPE

An exclusive Women's Shop
MARCELS
PERMANENTS
HAIR CUTTING

We buy and sell Poultry and Eggs wholesale and retail.

XENIA POULTRY CO.
901 N. Detroit St.
Phone 707
Free Delivery

EUGENE W. HUGHES CALLED BY DEATH

Word has been received here of the death of Eugene W. Hughes, brother of Mrs. Neva Patterson, Home Ave., this city, who died at his home in Stockton, Calif., Friday at 6 o'clock after an extended illness.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Abner, and his father, W. W. Hughes, Morrow, O.

Mr. Hughes had been connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad for the past twenty-three years, as telegraph and train dispatcher, in Cincinnati. He moved to California two years ago at which time he accepted a position with the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Funeral arrangements are not complete.

WIFE FILES ANSWER IN DIVORCE ACTION

In an answer and cross petition to the divorce suit filed in Common Pleas Court by Kenneth Ringer against Grace Ringer, the defendant charges extreme cruelty, declaring her husband assaulted and beat her on numerous occasions. She also denies all allegations contained in Ringer's petition.

The defendant asserts that they

HONOR THEM WITH A MEMORIAL

May We Assist You?
The Geo. Dodds & Sons
Granite Co.
In Xenia
Over Sixty Five Years

FEATURES Views and News Comment EDITORIAL

The Gazette is published morning and evening except Sunday at the Gazette Building, South Detroit Street, Xenia, Ohio, by The Chew Publishing Company, Inc. Entered as second class matter under act of March 3, 1879, at the Postoffice, Xenia, Ohio.

Members of "Ohio Select List" Daily Newspapers Robert E. Ward, Inc., Foreign Advertising Representative, Chicago Office, No. 5 South Wabash Avenue; New York Office, 301 Fifth Avenue.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES	1 Mo.	3 Mo.	6 Mo.	1 Yr.
In Greene County	$4.00	$10.00	$19.00	$35.00
Zones 1 and 2	.45	1.15	2.15	4.00
Zones 3, 4, and 5	.50	1.30	2.40	4.50
Zones 6 and 7	.55	1.45	2.65	5.00
Zone 8	.60	1.50	2.90	5.50

By carrier in Xenia, 15c Per Week, Single Copy, Three Cents

Advertising and Business Office 111
Editorial Department 79
Circulation Department 800

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

SECRET PRAYER—When thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. — Matthew 6:6.

GROWTH OF CHAUTAUQUA

A little more than half a century ago Lewis Miller, of Akron, O., and Bishop John H. Vincent established a system of popular education at the little town of Chautauqua, N. Y., on the shores of the lake of the same name. The project, beginning as a Sunday school institute under Methodist direction, soon became non-sectarian and was supplemented with summer school courses of graded study, as well as a plan for continuous home-reading. From this the "Chautauqua idea" has spread throughout the country until almost every small urban center in the United States has at one time or another, particularly in the summer months, been the scene of Chautauqua lecture courses. This year at Chautauqua, N. Y., the one hundredth anniversary of Lewis Miller's birth will be observed with fitting ceremony.

While occasionally mediocre talent may have been presented to the public under the canvas of Chautauqua tents, the fact cannot be denied that in general the Chautauqua idea has widened the horizon for many people without other opportunity for self-culture. In their lighter aspects the courses offer to the inhabitants of towns and villages what theaters, lectures and concerts provide for those in the big cities. To persons of more serious purpose, the four-year study course has opened the way to a comprehensive education otherwise denied to many who have never had the chance to attend college.

The Chautauqua institution was a pioneer in the educational field. Its successful efforts to induce men and women to go to school during the summer months have been followed by the founding of many other summer schools, until it is no longer unusual for the ordinary vacation months to be devoted in some measure to the pursuit of knowledge.

IDEALS

The religious books of Persia say that when the soul of a good man arrives at the river of death, a beautiful radiant figure meets it and says "I am your true self, your real self. I am the image of your ideals, your strivings, your purposes and your resolves. I am you. Henceforth we merge together into one harmonious life."

This parable is a genuine one. We are forever what our ideals make us. An invisible ideal often controls and dominates our entire life. It upholds our spirit in defeat; it makes us oblivious to pain; it turns hindrances into chariots of victory and helps us do the seemingly impossible. What cannon, pounding at the battle-lines of men cannot do, ideals may often accomplish. Dreams and visions and hopes are not so empty as they might seem. They often grow mighty, gather volume and do what cannon could never do.

Bo-Broadway

By JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

NEW YORK — The Eleventh Amendment may have knocked the skirts from under Broadway in general, but here and there along The Lane you run across stray benefits it has conferred.

Take the case of Jimmy Durante, Ziegfeld's latest raucous laugh specialist, who was practically boosted to his present eminence by officers of the Federal government and manufacturers or padlocks.

Sir James, the son of a barber, first saw the light of day in the neighborhood of Oliver street a block from the birthplace of a lad known and honored as Alfred E. Smith.

James deserted the street corners of the East Side to undertake the subtle duties of piano player in a Coney Island dive. One of his jobs in this life had him banging the ivories in a melody and much casino where the eminent Eddie Cantor at the time was singing and waiting on table.

Durante was a thrifty lad—I didn't say grifty—and saved enough dough to start a little orchestra of his own. Later he bravely opened a night club on the fringe of Mazda Lane, and just as he was nearing the highroad to fortune the prohibition force began to pick on him. He was driven from one place to another until finally he gave it up as a bad job and went into vaudeville, where he stayed exactly 14 weeks. That was his entire stage experience when Flo Ziegfeld came along and bagged him.

Now he's sittin' on top of the world.

ONE DIAGNOSIS

Every little while some Expert with a string tie and an air of intense gloom gets up in meetin' to tell New Yorkers what makes 'em that way.

Here's the latest, fresh from the roebud lips of Old Doc Dairymple:

"It is not New York's noise, nor its night life, but its wealth that is making neurotics of the disappointed. Signs on park Avenue of prodigious luxury enjoyed by the few, breed maladjustments and do more to undermine the stability of city dwellers than the metallic mutter of a thousand riveting machines, or the yawping of twenty thousand taxi sirens."

In other words, there's nothing the matter with a neurotic New Yorker that money won't cure.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE

Last June, Justice Arthur Thompson, in an address to 219 graduates of the New York Law School, urged the budding disciples of Blackstone to "disregard money."

If any one of the 219 has followed the Justice's advice, he'll find a case waiting for him by forwarding his office address. I've been sued by the plumber.

WALL STREET TORN UP

You wouldn't recognize Wall Street these days. Builders and wreckers are temporarily in charge and the stock market pursues its frenzied course amid steam shovels, hammers, clouds of steam and a bedlam of splintering wood, crashing stone, falling bricks and the hurly murmur of the acetylene torch.

At the corner of Broad and Wall where a man named P. Morgan has an office, you encounter subway construction. The roadway along Broadway and Nassau streets has been set with planking. Just beyond the Sub-treasury the tallest building in the world is being erected by the youngest financier on the Street. The building is to be 63 stories—45 feet taller than the Woolworth tower—and will have a population of 15,000 persons. Men are working there in three shifts, 24 hours a day, to have it ready by next May.

One of the most unusual feats in the municipal history was done here when the foundation of the new building was laid while the old building was being torn down. The weight of the old building was used to force caissons into the ground to rock bottom, 30 to 40 feet below the surface. The 10,793 loads of brick and dirt were totted down Wall street and dumped into scows at the river.

THE WAY of the WORLD

By GROVE PATTERSON

USING IMAGINATION

Mistakes, failure, yielding to temptation is pretty largely a matter of not having the right sort of imagination or enough of it. If our imagination was right we should be able to make the long look ahead to weigh future happiness against the satisfactions of the moment. It is said man can not see around a corner. This is not true. Man CAN see around man's life's corners if his imagination is active and powerful. He can see that while he yields to today's impulse, to bring him pleasure, he may put in danger or make impossible a whole future of serenity, of peace of mind, and of happy living.

CLINICS

Dr. L. K. Grimes, pastor in a large city, does away with regular Sunday evening services and substitutes a "spiritual clinic." In his office on Sunday nights he meets these who have troubles—no matter what kind of troubles. It is a good idea but not a new one. Many ministers do it—perhaps not many with formal announcement. It is the big business of the pastor. You have read in Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village" these lines:

"Thus to relieve the wretched was his aim,
And e'en his failings leaned to virtue's side,
But in his duty prompt at every call,
He watched and wept, he prayed and felt for all."

A GIRL'S OPINION

Don't be so careless and inaccurate as to believe that boys and girls think only of having a hot time in the old town tonight. A high school girl, writing an essay on education sends this in: "Education supplies and stimulates appreciation of beauty, of art, of everything, in fact, worth while. Never could I appreciate the words of Shakespeare and Milton and countless others were it not for education. Never could I love the beauty, simplicity, and majesty of Tompkins's lines, 'Little flower, but I could understand what you are root and all, and all in all. I should know what God and man is.'"

Who's Who and Timely Views

EFFORTS TO RESTRICT ENTRY OF MEXICANS TO BE CONTINUED

By JOHN C. BOX

Congressman From Texas (John Calvin Box was born in Houston county, Tex., March 23, 1871. He was educated in district schools and Alexander Institute. Beginning the practice of law at Lufkin, Tex., in 1893, he removed to Jacksonville four years later. He served as county court judge two terms and mayor of Jacksonville two terms. He was elected to congress in 1919 and has been returned each term since.)

I am informed that the provisions of the immigration laws governing the vizing of the immigrants' passports by American consuls are being much more effectively applied now than heretofore, showing results in the drastic number of passports issued to immigrants from Mexico. It is reported to me that in March, 1928, 6,000 such visas were issued, and that only 1,800 such visas were issued during March of 1929. During April, 1928, there were 6,300 such passports vised and during April of this year only 2,500 such visas were attached. I am advised that this reduction is continuing.

One feature which figures in the situation on the Mexican border consists of a measure for which I, and other restrictionists, have been working for years. That is a measure making it a felony offense for an alien to enter the country illegally. This law has been several times reported by the house committee on immigration, with my active support, and has passed the house more than once, but failed to get any consideration in the senate. It was included with so many other provisions relating to the deportation of aliens that its effects upon thousands of Mexicans who enter Texas, California, New Mexico and Arizona in violation of the immigration laws, and from thence scatter themselves over the country, was not generally recognized.

Toward the end of the 70th congress, this provision was included in a bill which passed the senate and was quickly reported by the president. Thousands of the country in violation of law, among which Mexicans are most numerous, may be arrested, convicted, fined and imprisoned and, after serving their sentence, deported. This act, and another one, and the efforts at better enforcement generally, seem to be the chief causes of deportation of many Mexican aliens, and the precipitate departure of many others.

Already, it is claimed that a 65 per cent reduction of Mexican immigration is being accomplished. It is undoubtedly true that the number is being reduced, and that many undesirable are being driven out of the country, but I seriously doubt that these measures are at all adequate for the protection of the country against this rush of Mexican infiltration, and I shall continue to insist upon the enactment of something like a quota law in Mexico.

Slight not what's near through aiming at what's far.—Euripides.

The greatest hatred, like the greatest virtue and the worst dogs, is silent.—Jean Paul Richter.

"Trotzky predicted to me," said

PEACE AT ANY PRICE!

How To Achieve Beauty

By MME. HELENA RUBINSTEIN

There are many ways to choose a perfume—but only one satisfactory way. You can go into a perfume shop or salon and sniff at countless little bottles, all labeled with different names, and all furnished with long-stemmed, glass perfume testers. And you may be pleased at first—there will be so many and all delightful—but you are bound to be confused before you have chosen. For after sniffing at a number of scents the olfactory nerves become accustomed and deadened to the experience. The scents will all smell alike or they will be difficult to distinguish. Then, too, the whiff you get from a bottle or from the glass tester may be entirely different from the way the same perfume will smell when applied to your skin. When a perfume is used on the skin or clothing, the alcohol mixed with it evaporates and leaves only the essential scent or fragrance of the perfume itself. And often, when perfume is applied to the skin, its oils combine chemically with the natural skin oils so that the odor is changed completely.

The best way is to get tiny samples of all the perfumes you think might please your taste or suit your personality. Then use one for a day—the real test of a perfume is the way its fragrance endures after it has been applied for several hours. Try all in turn until you have found one or several that last pleasantly and that do not bore you with their fragrance after you have become familiar with them. There is something to be said for the plan of choosing only one fragrance and using it on all occasions. For this perfume comes to mean yourself—it is as much a part of you as the color of your eyes or hair or the way you laugh. But there is also something to be approved in the fashion of choosing more than one scent, so that you will have a variety of changes, one for different costumes, different moods or hours of the day. This fad has the charm of novelty and richness. It is fascinating to change your perfume to fit the season, the occasion and yourself. Every personality has several sides. With several perfumes you can express the essence of each in turn.

Behind the Scenes In Washington

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON — "Our civilization is being made over before our eyes."

"It is not being done gradually. 'Our transition from the competitive system toward a socialistic state is progressing at unprecedented speed, for so great a change.'"

Senator William H. King, of Utah, the speaker, was discussing recent developments in the field of financial, commercial and industrial consolidation—namely various new mergers of gigantic proportions, generally attributed to the house of Morgan.

"It seems to me," Senator King wrote lately to Attorney General William D. Mitchell, "that these contemplated mergers and combinations are violative of the anti-trust laws of the United States."

"That much can be done to check them, however, the senator frankly doubts."

"Our anti-trust laws," he admits, "have been practically dead letters for a long time."

Due to non-enforcement—or to defects in the laws?

"Both," says the senator, "and in cases where prosecutions actually have been begun, and backed up by really substantial evidence, juries have refused to convict."

"The truth is," confessed the Utah legislator, himself a law-ditch champion of the seemingly dying competitive system, "that public sentiment is apathetic."

"We are in the grip of a craze for mass production—which necessarily means mass capital."

"Labor is sold on the idea—believing it insures high wages. Agriculture cannot oppose it—for the farmers are trust-making on their own account. Big business favors it, for the sake of monopoly—and bids for popular support by peddling out bits of its stock to great numbers of people of small means."

"Such a volume of opinion makes the tendency hard to fight."

And the outcome?

"Trotzky!"

Senator King investigated Soviet conditions in Russia at first hand, when the now exiled Bolshevik leader was at the height of his power.

"Trotzky predicted to me," said

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

By MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

Macaroni and Cheese
Stuffed Tomatoes
Buttered Beans
Berry Pie
Tea or Coffee hot or cold
Cheese with macaroni takes the place of meat in today's menu. A package of macaroni will serve at least six liberally. With this amount you would need a cup of grated or finely cut cheese.

Today's Recipes

Macaroni and Cheese—Cook half package of macaroni in salted water until tender, drain and wash in cold water. Dissolve one tablespoon of butter in a saucepan, add one tablespoon flour, gradually add one cup milk. When smooth add one-half cup or more finely cut cheese and cook until the cheese is melted. Season with salt and paprika, and pour over macaroni in a buttered baking dish. Sprinkle with bread crumbs and brown in oven.

Stuffed Tomatoes, Cold—Four large tomatoes, one green pepper, one new green onion, six stuffed olives, minced, one cup shredded cabbage, one sprig parsley or dill, one-half lemon, one teaspoon salt. Cut tops off tomato and scoop out the inside. Mix cabbage with other ingredients and season and pack into tomato shells. Serve on bed of lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

SUGGESTIONS

A Standard Pickling Solution
This is a standard pickling solution which is satisfactory with almost any kind of pickled vegetable, such as beets, beans, cauliflower, onions or pickles. It should be used as a basic or foundation recipe from which you evolve by experimenting the special blend that is most pleasing to the particular taste of your own household: Three to four cups sugar, two cups water, one lemon, sliced, one tablespoon ground cinnamon, two cups vinegar, one teaspoon cloves, one teaspoon allspice. For the average taste, four cups of sugar does not make the pickle too sweet, but as some persons prefer a more acid flavor it is advisable to add only three cups to start with and add the other cup as it seems needed.

Combine all ingredients. Boil together gently for ten minutes. Pour while boiling hot over the cooked vegetables in a sterilized jar. Seal. This may be varied in many ways—more vinegar, less spice, as you please.

Cooling the Attic

One of the best ways to cool the home during the hot weather is through the attic.

By the simple installation of an exhaust ventilating fan in the gable of the attic to carry out the extremely hot air of the second and third floors temperatures throughout the entire house can be lowered by several degrees, ventilating engineers declare. In addition to this, the cooling effect of moving air—even though slight—is noticed.

It is suggested by some engineers that a register or air grills in the second floor ceiling will help the cooling process. This will permit the air from the first and second floors to be drawn upward through the gable when the fan is operating. This system of home cooling and ventilation through the attic is simple and not costly to install.

It has the further advantage of making the attic livable for play or sleeping purposes even during the summer months. It drives out dust which usually accumulates in attics, and staid air.

Let thy speech be better than silence, or be silent.—Dionysius the Elder.

Let thy speech be better than silence, or be silent.—Dionysius the Elder.

Let thy speech be better than silence, or be silent.—Dionysius the Elder.

Let thy speech be better than silence, or be silent.—Dionysius the Elder.

Let thy speech be better than silence, or be silent.—Dionysius the Elder.

Diet and Health

By LULU HUNT PETERS, M. D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

Salt and Reducing.

"Dear Doctor, I have carefully followed the instructions in your reducing pamphlet, and in about nine weeks I have lost 20 pounds, and am almost down to normal weight. Thank you so much for your help."

"Will you please explain in the column why you say in your pamphlet, 'Eat very little salt'? I have heard this before, but do not understand how salt can make one fat."

"I advise very little salt, Mrs. P., first, because most of us take four or five times as much as is actually needed, and salt in an excess is an irritant to the kidneys and blood vessels; and second, salt and salty foods cause a retention of water so the tissue fluids and blood won't be too concentrated (you know how thirsty you are after taking salty foods); and, of course, if too much is taken it always keeps the weight higher on account of the excess water. There is no caloric value in salt, so it isn't 'fattening' in itself."

"I have had a prune stone in my throat for years. It never gave me trouble until recently, when my throat has begun to feel very sore. I think it is from the stone. Is there a way to have it out without an operation?"

Yes, it may come out eventually by ulceration, M., and before this happens, many complications may occur; and when it does happen, such a hemorrhage that you certainly will be sorry you were so foolish to defer going to a surgeon and having it removed by an operation. Probably the operation will be a very simple affair.

Are you sure it is a prune stone? "I had my urine analyzed and the reports show it to be neutral, whereas acid should be normal. Why is this, and what should be eaten to remedy the condition?"

The reaction of the urine is normally usually slightly acid, but it may also be neutral when the diet contains little acid ash foods and liberal amounts of water are taken. In fact, this neutral reaction is desirable.

Those whose diet consists mostly of breads, cereals, flesh foods—all acid in their final reaction—may have a urine highly acid, sometimes 100 times as acid as normal (Kellogg). This high acidity is an indication that the alkalinity of the blood is lowered and a condition known as acidosis exists. This is a great factor in lowering the resistance to disease, and fatigue.

During the summer, or under conditions of prolonged perspiration, the urine is concentrated and scant, and then it will be more acid normally. This is the reason liberal amounts of water should be drunk during perspiring weather.

I imagine you have had your examination made without a doctor's directions. Examinations made by commercial laboratories are more apt to cause anxiety than good. If you have symptoms that disturb you, you should have a physical examination by a competent physician, and he will interpret the urinalysis for you.

Mrs. W.—We have an article on the Hygiene of Women which answers your questions. See column rules for obtaining this.

Tomorrow: Ingrowing Toenails.

Living and Loving

By MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

There are times when I wonder, not at the many divorces, but at the many marriages that hold in spite of all manner of things.

There are wives who nag and are extravagant, wives who are miserable housekeepers, who never learn to cook. And those wives who never seem to consider their husbands have any rights after the children come, but always make him give up everything for them.

And there are husbands who scold and tyrannize, flirt and whine, need more mothering than a dozen children, and never give a word of appreciation for anything. Who acts as if every cent the wife spends on clothes for herself was a useless extravagance although he would have to pay a housekeeper ten times what his wife gets, and the housekeeper could leave if she didn't like the job.

And still the tie holds, and a love deeper than all the irritations of daily living can kill, makes them real comrades under all the surface bickerings.

Wondering: I agree with your husband. The girl is simply infatuated with an older man, as kids of that age often are. He can't help it and if I were you I'd not take it seriously. She's to be pitied that she doesn't have better sense than to show her feeling. In a month or so she will probably be over it and in love with a boy her own age. Try to treat her as nicely as you'd want someone to treat a silly little sister of yours.

"Dear Virginia Lee: Am just another 17-year-old girl asking your advice. I am in love with a boy who is 20. This boy is going on a long trip in about two weeks. Do you think if he really loved me he would leave when he didn't have to? His old girl is living in the city where he is going."

"ANXIOUS RED." People have to take vacations, my dear, even if they are in love.

and they usually go out of town if they can. I suppose you're afraid he will renew his friendship with the old girl friend, aren't you? If he is that tickle, isn't worth loving, is he?

"Dear Virginia Lee: I am a wife with four children. For the last two years my husband has been staying out until 12 and 1 o'clock and some nights all night long. I have been a good and faithful wife for 15 years and I want to know if I wouldn't be right in leaving him and going to live with relatives, and won't he have to support the children?"

"A TROUBLED WIFE." In view of the fact that your husband neglects you and spends his time in undesirable places and talks badly to you, I suppose you could get a divorce. Go to the domestic relations court and ask advice. Does he provide for you and the children? I always hesitate to advise a woman to get a divorce, especially where there are minor children. Going to live with relatives is usually bad business. You might wish a thousand times that you had stayed in your home, even under the present unhappy circumstances. Your husband would have to support the children, but collecting alimony is pretty hard work, too. These are the reasons I would ask you to talk with relatives or outside your family before you take any steps. Isn't there some chance, too, that your husband will reform and be more as he used to? You say it is only the last two years that he has been going out.

ONE-MINUTE PULPIT

Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding; but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.—Proverbs, xiv, 33.

Necklaces of tiny colorful beads in massive rope styles are offset by larger beads in the latest costume jewelry.

Peter's Adventures

By MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A DRONE, AND ASHAMED OF IT

For a moment Dawdler forgot the battle raging right ahead. It was evident Peter's question had upset him. Like Peter and Whizz, he stood quite still, his head hanging. The like the good sport he was, he made answer even though it hurt his feelings to do so.

"I don't fight because I am a drone and can't," Peter was still more astonished. "We drones who are the men of Beville, have an easy time of it. Our life is a short and a merry one. We are given no work to do so we become weak and never accomplish anything worth while. Nature forgets to give us stings and so we have no weapons to draw upon our enemies. If we did go into battle we would get the worst of it. All this is bad enough, but the worst is yet to come! Just because we act as we feel—exactly as nature intended us to act—and are happy and care-free, looting in the sun and sailing with the breeze, the other bees sneer at us, call us good-for-nothings! I am not as contented with my lazy lot as my sisters think I am. Even though our good queen does not guess it, I grew weary of having nothing to do and went to school and graduated with honors from Dr. Saw's college as a full fledged doctor."

"Graduated from college?" gasped Peter.

"Who ever would have guessed you had all that ambition?" buzzed Whizz.

Dawdler gave a bee-chuckle. "Graduated from college, yesterday!" repeated he. "Just in time, you see to be of service to my people."

I have pasted my diploma in my hat—I will show it to you later, when there's more time to discuss such things. If you don't believe me. Hello, there! What was that? Whizz, don't you hear growling, the cries of the wounded? Hurry! The workers are calling for help. We three can't do much but our place is with them instead of wasting time here in idle gossip!"

Scarcely were the words out of Dawdler's mouth when a bee came crawling toward them.

"Oh, dear me, all is lost, all is lost!" she wailed mournfully. "The cruel enemy has forced open our gates and is entering the town. Three to many, it is true, but what they lack in numbers they make up in force."

"Dear Queen, beautiful Queen, what can we do to save her? The invaders will not spare her nor our babies. Oh, what a terrible misfortune! But at least we can all be loyal. Come Dawdler, come Whizz, together let us go to die with our Queen."

The despairing cry was repeated throughout the kingdom. And from all four quarters came flying the bees until a swarm of them was hastening to share the fate of their beloved ruler. Dawdler, however, paid no attention to wars nor wars, but hurried straight toward the outer gates. Peter who didn't know what else to do and Whizz who wouldn't have done anything else if he could, followed at Dawdler's heels.

Next, "The Invaders."

Next, "The Invaders."

"Will Cooperate" Declare Track Officials

SPORT SNAP SHOTS

FRAMED
by Phil

CROWD ENJOYS RACE PROGRAM FRIDAY AS BETTING IS BARRED

Confident System Is Not Illegal Faw Re-veals

Despite the inability to place "contributions" on the bounds in the hope of getting back more money than they invested, the more than 3,000 persons who witnessed the resumption of dog racing at the Fairfield track Friday night appeared to enjoy the entire proceedings immensely.

There was a full program of eight races and each event was marked by close finishes and keen competition.

Charles R. Fay, Middletown, chairman of the board of the Fairfield Amusement Park, Ltd., announced Friday night that the officials of the company, regardless of the action of county officials in suppressing betting, will continue to co-operate with them in every manner possible.

"In arresting our ticket sellers Thursday night," Chairman Fay said, "the Greene County authorities, we believe, overstepped their bounds. However, we are willing to co-operate with them in every manner possible. The Supreme Court decision gives us the fullest confidence that we have not in any manner whatsoever violated the law and when the cases of the ticket sellers come up Monday, we will enter the case with every confidence that we are in the right."

"That we are willing to co-operate with the authorities is shown in the fact we made no attempt to receive any contributions or donations Friday night when we staged a fine program of eight races."

"While the prosecutor and sheriff appear to feel that we are in some way violating the law, thousands of persons who attended the races Thursday and Friday nights did not appear to think so. There were almost 10,000 spectators in the park Thursday night and about 3,000 Friday night. A crowd equally as large as the first night is expected Saturday evening."

"Prominent people from Dayton, Xenia, Springfield, Middletown and Cincinnati have attended the racing each night and all have not only been enthusiastic about the sport, but were unanimous in deploring the action of the law."

"Before we opened our track we promised that we would conduct it on the highest scale. We kept our promise and will continue to do so. There has been no violation of the law or disturbances of any kind."

"Personally I believe that the authorities do not fully realize the change that has been made in the law. Supreme courts in thirteen states have declared that the 'contribution' or 'donation' system is not gambling."

"However, since the prosecutor has seen fit to make arrests we are perfectly willing to await the outcome of the trial Monday. We believe that the trial alone will convince the prosecutor that he has taken a wrong attitude."

"Saturday night while we are awaiting the trial we will present a program of eight races as usual."

Entries for Saturday night's racing reveal that Traffic Officer, probably the most famous greyhound in the country, will appear in the seventh race. This famous animal has never been beaten in a match race and only three times in an eight-dog race.

Traffic Officer, however, will have serious competition as the other seven dogs to be pitted against him over five-sixteenths of a mile are real speed demons and possess great reputations, particularly Fly Cop, a half-brother of Traffic Officer, favored to give him the hardest race of any.

Traffic Officer is unusually large dog and is considered by many to be the greatest greyhound in the world over the shorter distances, at least. Last year at Springdale he won fifteen races and was beaten only three times, twice over the Derby distance by narrow margins when the dogs were called upon to run seven-sixteenths of a mile.

DOG RACE ENTRIES

SATURDAY, JULY 27

First Race—3:16. Jack Mae, Goldworthy, Crude Baby, Welsh Parton, Collision, Virginia May Locked Gates, Rough Shuffle xTummy kid.

Second Race—Fut.: Silver Springs, Wicked Rover, Lee Blitz, Golden Bell Doom, Fear Nothing, How's That, Hidden Hopes, Lead-e-min, xTempered Light.

Third Race—5:16: Ravenshaw Miss Liberty, Free Lance, Fallen Leaf, Lady Blitz, Corra Fleetfoot, Unwind, Tip Top, xMisty Concern.

Fourth Race—Comy Meadows, Jerry Ray, Glenvara, Freedom Concern, Limb of the Law, Keen Warrior, Buddy Concern, Perfect Day, xDude Winkler.

Fifth Race—Fut.: Rusty Creek Buster Meadows, Farmer's Friend, Oakland Dictator, Princess Victoria, Peppy Meadows, Fake Farmer, xAerovols.

Sixth Race: The Optimist, Elk View Meadows, Hassock, Bill Morgan, M. Callihan, Lincoln Link, Twinkle Lad, Son of a Gun, xSmoke Ladonia.

Seventh Race: Buddy's Pal Trail Blazer, Herman II, Whispy Flying Al, Jolley Irishman, Fly Cop, Traffic Officer.

Eighth Race: Kitchell, Fez, Irish Grey, Miss Wichita, New Music, Dress Parade, Sol Mio.

FAIRFIELD DOG RACE RESULTS

First Race—3:16 Mile.

First: Desperate Countess.
Second: False Friend.
Third: Wee Gem.
Time: 20 1/2 seconds.
Also ran: Dizzy Concern, Kashmere Nello, Blue Light, Herman's Pride, Duellist.

Second Race—Fairfield Course

First: Laura Ann.
Second: Dreadnott.
Third: Wild Night.
Also ran: Speedy Joe, American Eagle, Racing Ridge, Glorious Flapper, Norudis Gun.

Third Race—5:16 Mile

First: Tip Top.
Second: Polly Concern.
Third: Black Model.
Also ran: Golden Rod Special, Helpless Blitz, Joyful Bubbles, Victoria Lil, Flying Concern.

Fourth Race—Fairfield Course

First: Buster Ridge.
Second: Oakland Ace.
Third: Doreen's Run.
Also ran: New Hope, Cheerful Chant, Glorious Speed, Bashful Irish Jack.

Fifth Race—Fairfield Course

First: Black Dix.
First: Haslemere.
Second: Dick Doom.
Third: Black Cloud.
Also ran: March Off, Ben Bey, Didymous, Fire Light, Nigger Ridge.

Sixth Race—3:16 Mile.

First: Bashful Diamond.
Second: Bill's Blue Gun.
Third: Flaming Glory.
Also ran: Blackest Wild Suel, Sadie Hill, Ninnan, Lee Blitz and Naisy Swede.

Eighth Race—Fairfield Course

First: Invictus.
Second: Bull Rush.
Third: No Rush.
Also ran: Fair Harmony, Storm Boy, Wichita Lad, Princess Patricia, Victoria Meadows.

CHICAGO FIGHTING SPIRIT IS KEEPING CUBS NEAR LOOP TOP

Team Battles for Games; Takes Last Four At Home

NEW YORK, July 27.—Fighting spirit as well as batting strength has kept the Chicago Cubs in the pennant race this year, always within striking distance or on top of the heap.

Since returning to their native pastures on the north side of Chicago last Tuesday, the Cubs have won four straight games and only one, the first, was taken without the necessity of fighting for lost points.

Yesterday the Cubs were seven runs down at the end of the second inning with Philadelphia—a disadvantage large enough to discourage any team. On the contrary, however, Chicago rallied with five runs in the third and six more in the fourth to take a lead they never surrendered.

Thursday Chicago played and beat New York, 8 to 5, and had to come from behind twice to turn the trick. On Wednesday their four-run lead was wiped out when New York staged a seven-run rally in the seventh inning. The Cubs, however, just kept plugging along and picked up the four runs necessary for an 8 to 7 victory.

The presence of this fighting spirit is one of the most encouraging factors in the Cubs' pennant fight this year, in years past the Chicago Nationals have won until mid-season and sometimes a bit later, and then faded from the picture.

When Chicago acquired Rogers Hornsby from Boston in the famous mid-winter deal with the Braves, critics declared that the batting power the rajah would bring to Chicago would be just what was necessary to make a pennant winner of that team.

Hornsby, later events have shown, has been in no small sense responsible for the success of the Cubs this year, but his worth must be estimated in more than cold batting figures.

The great hitter is also an inspiration team-mate. He has succeeded in instilling into his fellow Chicagoans, the same spirit that marked the triumphant St. Louis Cardinals of 1926, whom he led to their first world championship.

MEET NEW WILD MAN OF MAJORS

Charlie Ruffing, above, youthful pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, draws the distinction of being the wildest heaver in the big leagues at the present writing, having issued more bases on balls than any other moundsmen in either league. Eddie Morris, his teammate, is running him a close race for honors in the American. Pat Malone, of the Chicago Cubs, seeks the honor in the National circuit.

SCHMELING'S LICENSE REVOKED BY NEW YORK'S COMMISSION

NEW YORK, July 27.—The New York state athletic commission means business where the affairs of Max Schmeling, German heavyweight and his regime of managers are concerned.

This much was plain today, following the action of the state body in revoking the licenses of Schmeling and two of his seconds, Joe Jacobs and Will McCarny.

The commission is plainly irritated over the high handed manner of the invading German and his action was taken as an indication that "hands off" is the safest policy for any and all who might be interested in the Uhlman.

This was taken as something of a warning to the Madison Square Garden Corporation which has decided and virtually announced that it is planning to match Schmeling with Jack Sharkey, outside the jurisdiction of the body.

James Farley, chairman of the body, stated that similar action might be turned on any person or organization attempting to deal with Schmeling, which appears to be little less than a threat to revoke the license of Madison Square Garden should that organization attempt to proceed with its plans for the bout.

Willard Huit advanced to the second or semi-final round in the second flight of the championship golf tournament at the Xenia Country Club Friday afternoon by defeating Chalmers Murphy, 1 up in a first round match. Huit shot a ninety while Murphy's card for eighteen holes showed a ninety-one.

No other tournament matches were played Friday and entrants are being reminded that all matches in the three flights must be played off by August 3.

MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO, July 27.—Hogs: receipts, 5,000, including 2,000 direct; steady and steady to 10c lower; most sales at the decline; top $12.30; several loads and odd lots of good to choice 160-220 lbs., $11.90 to $12.25; 230-250 lbs., $11.50 to $11.85; occasional loads and odd lots of 260-290 lbs., $11.10 to $11.40; choice around 320 lb. averages, $11.15; packing sows mostly $9.65 to $10.15; shippers took 500; estimated holdovers 2,000.

Cattle: receipts 200; market, compared with week ago: strictly choice fed steers steady to 25c higher; lower grade steers inactive, some near choice offerings 50 to 75c lower; light yearlings, steady to 25c higher; she stock mostly 50 to 75c lower; bulls 25c to 50c lower; vealers steady to 50c lower; extreme top on fed steers, $16.75; a new high for season, but only specially offered above $16.25; long yearlings, $18.60; general steer run $13.75 to $15.75; grassers and short feds $10.12 to $12.50; stockers and feeders $9.75 to $11.25.

Sheep—Receipts, 3,000; for week 21,000 direct; heavier receipts early in week and unsatisfactory dressed lamb trade crippled market, fat lambs selling $12.50 to $15.00; fat ewes were 25c below week ago; fat ewes were 25c to 50c lower; late top prices: range lambs, $14; native lambs $13.50 and fat ewes, $8.75; late bulk prices: range lambs $13.50 to $14; natives $13.25 to $13.50 and fat ewes $5 to $5.50; feeding lambs strong to 25c higher; choice 60 to 70 lbs., $13.50 to $14; top, $14.

PITTSBURGH LIVESTOCK

PITTSBURGH, July 27.—Hogs: receipts 2,100; market 25 to 40c lower, 250-350 lbs., $11.75 to $12.50; 200-250 lbs., $12.25 to $12.75; 160-200 lbs., $12.65 to $12.75; 130-160 lbs., $12.50 to $12.75; 90-130 lbs., $12.25 to $12.75; packing sows, $9.75 to $10.25; 12.75; receipts 150, market unchanged; calves 50, steady. Beef steers, $12 to $13.50; light yearlings, $11 to $12.50; heavy yearlings, $11 to $12.50; beef cows, $8 to $10.50; low cutter and cutter cows, $6 to $7.75; vealers, $16 to $17.50; heavy calves, $11 to $16.

Sheep receipts 200, market steady to weak. Top fat lambs, $14; bulk fat lambs, $12 to $14; bulk fat ewes, $5 to $5.50; bulk fat ewes, $5 to $5.50; bulk yearlings, $9 to $11.

Cincinnati 4, Brooklyn 1. Chicago 13, Philadelphia 10. Pittsburgh 9, Boston 8. St. Louis 4, New York 3.

Games Today

Philadelphia 3, Chicago 1. Detroit 4, Boston 1. Cleveland 4, Washington 2. New York 9, St. Louis 0.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

CENTRAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Erie	50	49	.506
Canton	50	41	.549
Akron	45	41	.523
DAYTON	42	44	.488
Fort Wayne	41	47	.466
Springfield	36	51	.414

Yesterday's Results

Fort Wayne 5, Dayton 4.
Erie 1, Canton 0.
Akron-Springfield (no game, rain).

Games Today

Erie at Dayton (3 o'clock).
Fort Wayne at Springfield.
Akron at Canton.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Chicago	57	30	.655
Pittsburgh	57	32	.640
New York	51	44	.537
St. Louis	47	45	.511
Brooklyn	41	49	.456
Boston	39	55	.415
Philadelphia	36	54	.400
CINCINNATI	36	55	.396

Yesterday's Results

Cincinnati 4, Brooklyn 1.
Chicago 13, Philadelphia 10.
Pittsburgh 9, Boston 8.
St. Louis 4, New York 3.

Games Today

Boston at Pittsburgh.
New York at St. Louis.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Philadelphia at Chicago (two games).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Philadelphia	59	25	.704
New York	56	33	.629
St. Louis	52	41	.559
CLEVELAND	47	46	.505
Detroit	46	47	.495
Washington	35	54	.393
Chicago	37	58	.389
Boston	26	66	.283

Yesterday's Results

Philadelphia 3, Chicago 1.
Detroit 4, Boston 1.
Cleveland 4, Washington 2.
New York 9, St. Louis 0.

Games Today

Cleveland at Washington.
Detroit at Boston.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at New York.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Kansas City	63	33	.656
St. Paul	60	39	.606
Minneapolis	55	41	.573
Indianapolis	48	49	.495
Louisville	43	52	.453
COLUMBUS	44	54	.449
Milwaukee	36	60	.375
TOLEDO	35	59	.372

Yesterday's Results

Indianapolis 12, Milwaukee 8.
St. Paul 6, Columbus 2.
Kansas City 9, Louisville 4.
Minneapolis 19, Toledo 10.

Games Today

Toledo at Minneapolis.
Columbus at St. Paul.
Indianapolis at Milwaukee.
Louisville at Kansas City.

FOR SALE

6 Room Modern House

With Garage

128 E. Third St.

H. E. BALES

WANTED

LEGHORNS

5,000 Head Leghorn

Broilers, Regardless

Of Size

Also All Other Kinds

Of Poultry

WM. MARSHALL,

Cedarville, O.

Phone 164 Reverse Charge.

By NEHER

TONIGHT

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

With Al Wilson

Also "She's A Pippin" A 2-Reel Comedy

SUNDAY WITH MATINEE AT 2:30

TOM MIX and TONY

IN

"THE BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY"

Also A Mack Sennett 2-Reel Comedy

MONDAY—Ricardo Cortez in "The Gun Runner"

By NEHER

TONIGHT

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

With Al Wilson

Also "She's A Pippin" A 2-Reel Comedy

SUNDAY WITH MATINEE AT 2:30

TOM MIX and TONY

IN

"THE BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY"

Also A Mack Sennett 2-Reel Comedy

MONDAY—Ricardo Cortez in "The Gun Runner"

By NEHER

TONIGHT

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

With Al Wilson

Also "She's A Pippin" A 2-Reel Comedy

SUNDAY WITH MATINEE AT 2:30

TOM MIX and TONY

IN

"THE BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY"

Also A Mack Sennett 2-Reel Comedy

MONDAY—Ricardo Cortez in "The Gun Runner"

By NEHER

TONIGHT

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

With Al Wilson

Also "She's A Pippin" A 2-Reel Comedy

SUNDAY WITH MATINEE AT 2:30

TOM MIX and TONY

IN

"THE BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY"

Also A Mack Sennett 2-Reel Comedy

MONDAY—Ricardo Cortez in "The Gun Runner"

By NEHER

TONIGHT

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

With Al Wilson

Also "She's A Pippin" A 2-Reel Comedy

SUNDAY WITH MATINEE AT 2:30

TOM MIX and TONY

IN

"THE BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY"

Also A Mack Sennett 2-Reel Comedy

MONDAY—Ricardo Cortez in "The Gun Runner"

By NEHER

TONIGHT

"THE SKY SKIDDER"

With Al Wilson

Also "She's A Pippin" A 2-Reel Comedy

SUNDAY WITH MATINEE AT 2:30

TOM MIX and TONY

IN

"THE BIG DIAMOND ROBBERY"

Also A Mack Sennett 2-Reel Comedy

MONDAY—Ricardo Cortez in "The Gun Runner"

By NEHER

TONIGHT

SPORT SNAP SHOTS

FRAMED
by Phil

Officials of Fairfield Amusement Park, Ltd., are anxious to co-operate with county authorities, they announced at the track Friday evening.

For that reason there was no betting at the track Friday—that is, none that you could put your finger on and no betting at all as far as the track is concerned.

Among the 3,000 spectators who showed up Friday night's audience there were numerous furtive gestures that seemed to indicate the transfer of money, but these were beyond the ken of Sheriff Ohmer Tate and his deputies.

The sheriff and his deputies were on hand to see that the official track betting program was not placed in operation and the betting windows were kept closed all evening. People who like to wager, however, can find something to stake their money on whether its racing greyhounds or the state of tomorrow's weather.

The same situation obtains during the annual harness horse races at the Greene County Fair.

No betting is permitted, pari-mutuel machines are ruled out and the bookmakers who used to infest the quarter stretch are noticeable by their absence.

But you can put it down in black and white that money changes hands in the crowd of sportsmen at the race meeting, based on the results of heats. "Honor bets" can be made without showing any money at all or money can be passed in the crowd behind the backs of the officers. It would take practically as many officers as there are spectators at the races, to prevent this form of betting.

Legalized betting, such as was attempted at Fairfield, is attacked from two different sources. There are a great many good and conscientious people who consider wagering a moral issue and oppose it on those grounds.

Then there are a number of other people who can see no moral evil in the practice, but who oppose betting on the grounds of the economic issue. These people maintain that if only people wagered who could afford to lose, there would be no economic problem. They claim however that when many of the people who go to the track lose money on the races, the store-keepers must "hold the bag." It is their contention that the losers are unable to pay their merchandising bills and that an economic stringency results. Sportsmen who can afford to bet, on the other hand, resent what they call an invasion of their personal liberties to do what they please with their money.

NEW HURLER ADDED TO RESERVES STAFF

A new hurler has been added to the pitch staff of the Reserve baseball club, the local management announced Saturday. The latest acquisition is a pitcher named Wanty, a right-hander of exceptional ability, who may be seen in action Sunday afternoon when the Reserves play a return game with the Springfield Bartlett Club.

Reserves defeated this team in the opening game of the season, 3 to 0, and another close game is looked for Sunday.

MEADOWLARKS

First Race—3:16. Jack Mae, Goldworthy; Crude Baby, Welsh Parton, Colusion, Virginia May Locked Gates, Rough Shuffle xTimely kid.

Second Race—Fut.: Silver Springs, Wicked Rover, Lee Blitz, Golden Bell Doom, Fear Nothing, How's That, Hidden Hopes, Lead-e-min, xTempered Light.

Third Race—5:16. Ravenshaw Miss Liberty, Free Lance, Fallen Leaf, Lady Blitz, Corra Fleetfoot, Unwind, Tip Top, xMisty Concern.

Fourth Race—Comy Meadows, Jerry Ray, Glenvara, Freedom Concern, Limb of the Law, Keen Warrior, Buddy Concern, Keen Day, xDude Wrinkle.

Fifth Race—Fut.: Rusty Creek Buster Meadows, Farmer's Friend, Oakland Dictator, Princess Victoria, Peppy Meadows, Fake Farmer, xAeroyolis.

Sixth Race: The Optimist, Elk View Meadows, Hassock, Bill Morgan, M. Callihan, Lincoln Link, Twinkle Lad, Son of a Gun, xSmokey Ladonia.

Seventh Race: Buddy's Pal Trail Blazer, Herman II, Whisper Flying Al, Jolly Irishman, Fly Cop, Traffic Officer.

Eighth Race: Kitchell, Foz, Irish Grey, Miss Wichita, New Music, Dress Parade, Sol Mio. x-Also eligible.

CROWD ENJOYS RACE PROGRAM FRIDAY AS BETTING IS BARRED

Confident System Is Not Illegal Fay Reveals

Despite the inability to place "contributions" on the bounds in the hope of getting back more money than they invested, the more than 3,000 persons who witnessed the resumption of dog racing at the Fairfield track Friday night appeared to enjoy the entire proceedings immensely.

There was a full program of eight races and each event was marked by close finishes and keen competition.

Charles R. Fay, Middletown, chairman of the board of the Fairfield Amusement Park, Ltd., announced Friday night that the officials of the company, regardless of the action of county officials in suppressing betting, will continue to co-operate with them in every manner possible.

"In arresting our ticket sellers Thursday night," Chairman Fay said, "the Greene County authorities, we believe, overstepped their bounds. However, we are willing to co-operate with them in every manner possible. The Supreme Court decision gives us the fullest confidence that we have not in any manner whatsoever violated the law and when the cases of the ticket sellers come up Monday, we will enter the case with every confidence that we are in the right."

"That we are willing to co-operate with the authorities is shown in the fact we made no attempt to receive any contributions or donations Friday night when we staged a fine program of eight races."

"While the prosecutor and sheriff appear to feel that we are in some way violating the law, thousands of persons who attended the races Thursday and Friday nights did not appear to think so. There were almost 10,000 spectators in the park Thursday night and about 3,000 Friday night. A crowd equally as large as the first night is expected Saturday evening."

"Prominent people from Dayton, Xenia, Springfield, Middletown and Cincinnati have attended the racing each night and all have not only been enthusiastic about the sport, but were unanimous in declaring they could see nothing wrong with it."

"Before we opened our track we promised that we would conduct it on the highest scale. We kept our promise and will continue to do so. There has been no violation of the law or disturbances of any kind."

"Personally I believe that the authorities do not fully realize that there has been a decided change in the last few years regarding what some persons term gambling. Supreme courts in thirteen states have declared that the 'contribution' or 'donation' system is not gambling."

"However, since the prosecutor has seen fit to make arrests we are perfectly willing to await the outcome of the trial Monday. We believe that the trial alone will convince the prosecutor that he has taken a wrong attitude."

"Saturday night while we are awaiting the trial we will present a program of eight races as usual. Entries for Saturday night's racing reveal that Traffic Officer, probably the most famous greyhound in the country, will appear in the seventh race. This famous animal has never been beaten in a match race and only three times in an eight-dog race."

Traffic Officer, however, will have serious competition as the other seven dogs to be pitted against him over five-sixteenths of a mile are real speed demons and possess great reputations, particularly Fly Cop, a half-brother of Traffic Officer, favored to give him the hardest race of any."

Traffic Officer, an unusually large hound, is considered by many to be the greatest greyhound in the world over the shorter distances. At least, last year at Springfield he won fifteen races and was beaten only three times, twice over the Derby distance by narrow margins when the dogs were called upon to run seven-sixteenths of a mile.

DOG RACE ENTRIES

SATURDAY, JULY 27
First Race—3:16. Jack Mae, Goldworthy; Crude Baby, Welsh Parton, Colusion, Virginia May Locked Gates, Rough Shuffle xTimely kid.

Second Race—Fut.: Silver Springs, Wicked Rover, Lee Blitz, Golden Bell Doom, Fear Nothing, How's That, Hidden Hopes, Lead-e-min, xTempered Light.

Third Race—5:16. Ravenshaw Miss Liberty, Free Lance, Fallen Leaf, Lady Blitz, Corra Fleetfoot, Unwind, Tip Top, xMisty Concern.

Fourth Race—Comy Meadows, Jerry Ray, Glenvara, Freedom Concern, Limb of the Law, Keen Warrior, Buddy Concern, Keen Day, xDude Wrinkle.

Fifth Race—Fut.: Rusty Creek Buster Meadows, Farmer's Friend, Oakland Dictator, Princess Victoria, Peppy Meadows, Fake Farmer, xAeroyolis.

Sixth Race: The Optimist, Elk View Meadows, Hassock, Bill Morgan, M. Callihan, Lincoln Link, Twinkle Lad, Son of a Gun, xSmokey Ladonia.

Seventh Race: Buddy's Pal Trail Blazer, Herman II, Whisper Flying Al, Jolly Irishman, Fly Cop, Traffic Officer.

Eighth Race: Kitchell, Foz, Irish Grey, Miss Wichita, New Music, Dress Parade, Sol Mio. x-Also eligible.

FAIRFIELD DOG RACE RESULTS

First Race—3:16 Mile.

First: Desperate Countess.

Second: False Friend.

Third: Wee Gem.

Time: 20 1/2 seconds.

Also ran: Dizzy Concern, Kashmere Nellie, Blue Light, Herman's Pride, Duellist.

Second Race—Fairfield Course

First: Laura Ann.

Second: Dreadnettle.

Third: Wild Night.

Also ran: Speedy Joe, American Eagle, Racing Ridge, Glorious Flapper, Norudis Gun.

Third Race—5:16 Mile

First: Tip Top.

Second: Polly Concern.

Third: Black Model.

Also ran: Golden Rod Special, Helpless Blitz, Joyful Bubbles, Victoria Lil, Flying Concern.

Fourth Race—Fairfield Course

First: Buster Ridge.

Second: Oakland Ace.

Third: Doreen's Rum.

Also ran: New Hope, Cheerful Chant, Glorious Speed, Bashful, Irish Jack.

Fifth Race—Fairfield Course

First: Black Dix.

Second: Haslemere.

Third: Black Cloud.

Also ran: March Off, Ben Bey, Didymous, Fire Light, Nigger Ridge.

Sixth Race—3:16 Mile.

First: Haslemere.

Second: Dick Doom.

Third: Black Cloud.

Also ran: March Off, Ben Bey, Didymous, Fire Light, Nigger Ridge.

Seventh Race—Fairfield Course

First: Bashful Diamond.

Second: Bill's Blue Gun.

Third: Flaming Glory.

Also ran: Blackest Wild Suet, Sadie Hill, Ninan, Lee Blitz and Nolsy Swede.

Eighth Race—Fairfield Course

First: Invictus.

Second: Bull Rush.

Third: No Risk.

Also ran: Fair Harmony, Storm Boy, Wichita Lad, Princess Patricia, Victoria Meadows.

CHICAGO FIGHTING SPIRIT IS KEEPING CUBS NEAR LOOP TOP

Team Battles for Games; Takes Last Four At Home

NEW YORK, July 27.—Fighting spirit as well as batting strength has kept the Chicago Cubs in the pennant race this year, always within striking distance or on top of the heap.

Since returning to their native pastures on the north side of Chicago last Tuesday, the Cubs have won four straight games and only one, the first, was taken without the necessity of fighting for lost points.

Yesterday the Cubs were seven runs down at the end of the second inning with Philadelphia—a disadvantage large enough to discourage any team. On the contrary, however, Chicago rallied with five runs in the third and six more in the fourth to take a lead they never surrendered.

Thursday Chicago played and beat New York, 8 to 5, and had to come from behind twice to turn the trick. On Wednesday their four run lead was wiped out when New York staged a seven run rally in the seventh inning. The Cubs, however, just kept plugging along and picked up the four runs necessary for a 3 to 2 victory.

The presence of this fighting spirit is one of the most encouraging factors in the Cubs' pennant fight this year, in years past the Chicago Nationals have been wont to stay in the race until mid-season, sometimes a bit later, and then fade from the picture.

When Chicago acquired Rogers Hornsby from Boston in the famous mid-winter deal with the Braves, critics declared that the batting power the rajah would bring to Chicago would be just what was necessary to make a pennant winner of that team.

Hornsby, later events have showed, has been in no small sense responsible for the success of the Cubs this year, but his worth must be estimated in more than cold batting figures.

The great hitter is also an inspiration team-mate. He has succeeded in instilling in his fellow-Chicagoans, the same spirit that marked the triumphant St. Louis Cardinals of 1926, whom he led to their first world championship.

GOFFEY MOVIES

GOFFEY MOVIES PRESENT GOIN' FISHIN' TODAY ONLY

ESTHER GOABLE OF PASADENA CALIF SUGGESTED THE SCENARIO FOR 'GOIN' FISHIN'.

OTTO DE SNAKE PLAYS THE PART OF 'HORACE MATPIN

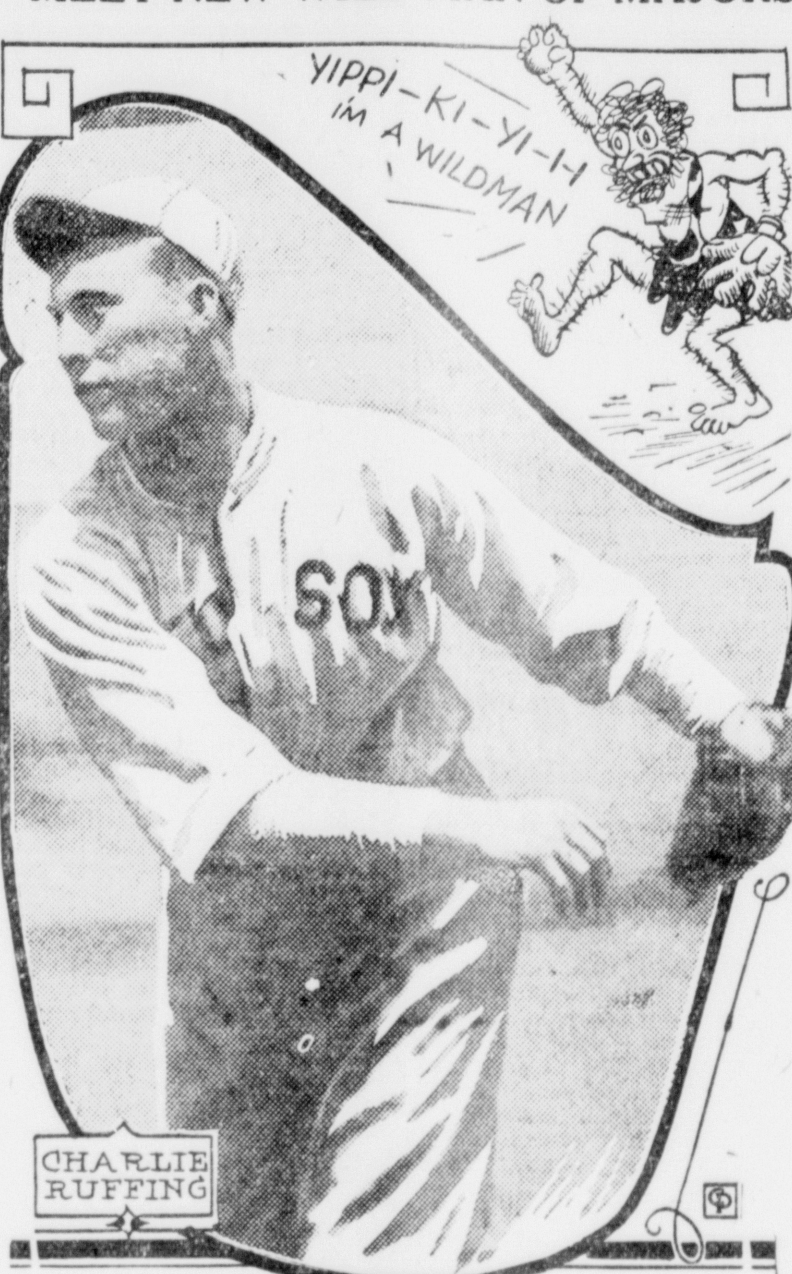

WHAT'S THE APPLE FOR

BAIT?..... SAY YOU'LL NEVER CATCH A FISH WITH THAT— WHAT YOU NEED IS A WORM!

WELL, THERE'S A WORM IN THE APPLE!!

FANS! TRY YOUR LUCK AT WRITING A SCENARIO FOR GOFFEY MOVIES. USE ANY OF OUR STARS YOU WISH... MAIL YOUR STORY TO GOFFEY MOVIES 9-THIS PAPER...

MEET NEW WILD MAN OF MAJORS

Charlie Ruffing, above, youthful pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, draws the distinction of being the wildest heaver in the big leagues at the present writing, having issued more bases on balls than any other moundman in either league. Eddie Morris, his teammate, is running him a close race for honors in the American. Pat Malone, of the Chicago Cubs, seeks the honor in the National circuit.

SCHMELING'S LICENSE REVOKED BY NEW YORK'S COMMISSION

NEW YORK, July 27.—The New York state athletic commission means business where the affairs of Max Schmeling, German heavyweight and his vainglorious managers are concerned.

This much was plain today, following the action of the state body in revoking the licenses of Schmeling and two of his seconds, Joe Jacobs and Will McCarney.

The commission is plainly irritated over the high handed manner of the invading German and its action was taken as an indication that "hands off" is the safest policy for any and all who might be interested in the Ulan.

This was taken as something of a warning to the Madison Square Garden Corporation which has decided and virtually announced that it is planning to match Schmeling with Jack Sharkey, outside the jurisdiction of the body.

James Farley, chairman of the body, stated that similar action might be turned on any person or organization attempting to deal with Schmeling, which appears to be little less than a threat to revoke the license of Madison Square Garden should that organization attempt to proceed with its plans for the bout.

HUIT WINS SECOND FLIGHT GOLF MATCH

Willard Huit advanced to the second or semi-final round in the second flight of the championship golf tournament at the Xenia Country Club Friday afternoon by defeating Chalmers Murphy, 1 up in a first round match. Huit shot a ninety while Murphy's card for eighteen holes showed a ninety-one.

No other tourney matches were played Friday and entrants are being reminded that all matches in the three flights must be played off by August 3.

MARKETS LIVE STOCK

CHICAGO, July 27.—Hogs: receipts, 5,000, including 3,000 direct; slow and steady to 10c lower; most sales at the decline; top $12.30; several loads and odd lots of good to choice 160-220 lbs., $11.90@12.25; 220-250 lbs., $11.50@11.85; occasional loads and odd lots of 260-290 lbs., $11.10@11.40; choice around 320 lb. averages, $11; packing sows mostly $9.65@10.15; shippers took 500; estimated holdovers 2,000.

Cattle: receipts 300; market, compared with week ago; strictly choice fed steers steady to 25c higher; lower grade steers inactive, some near choice offerings 50 to 75c lower; light yearlings,

STANDING OF THE CLUBS CENTRAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Erie	50	40	.556
Canton	50	41	.549
Akron	45	41	.523
DAYTON	42	44	.488
Fort Wayne	41	47	.466
Springfield	36	51	.414

Yesterday's Results

Fort Wayne 5, Dayton 4.
Erie 1, Canton 0.
Akron-Springfield (no game, rain).

Games Today

Erie at Dayton (3 o'clock).
Fort Wayne at Springfield.
Akron at Canton.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Chicago	57	30	.655
Pittsburgh	57	32	.640
New York	51	44	.537
St. Louis	47	45	.511
Brooklyn	41	49	.456
Boston	39	55	.415
Philadelphia	36	54	.400
CINCINNATI	36	55	.396

Yesterday's Results

Cincinnati 4, Brooklyn 1.
Chicago 13, Philadelphia 10.
Pittsburgh 9, Boston 8.
St. Louis 4, New York 3.

Games Today

Boston at Pittsburgh.
New York at St. Louis.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Philadelphia at Chicago (two games).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Philadelphia	69	25	.734
New York	56	33	.629
St. Louis	52	41	.559
CLEVELAND	47	46	.505
Detroit	46	47	.495
Washington	35	54	.393
Chicago	37	58	.389
Boston	26	66	.283

Yesterday's Results

Philadelphia 3, Chicago 1.
Detroit 4, Boston 1.
Cleveland 4, Washington 2.
New York 9, St. Louis 0.

Games Today

Cleveland at Washington.
Detroit at Boston.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at New York.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Kansas City	63	33	.656
St. Paul	60	39	.606
Minneapolis	55	41	.573
Indianapolis	48	49	.495
Louisville	43	52	.453
COLUMBUS	44	54	.449
Milwaukee	36	60	.375
TOLEDO	35	59	.372

Yesterday's Results

Indianapolis 12, Milwaukee 8.
St. Paul 6, Columbus 2.
Kansas City 9, Louisville 4.
Minneapolis 19, Toledo 10.

Games Today

Toledo at Minneapolis.
Columbus at St. Paul.
Indianapolis at Milwaukee.
Louisville at Kansas City.

FOR SALE

6 Room Modern House

With Garage

128 E. Third St.

H. E. BALES

WANTED LEGHORNS

5,000 Head Leghorn Broilers, Regardless Of Size

Also All Other Kinds Of Poultry

WM. MARSHALL, Cedarville, O.

Phone 164 Reverse Charge.

CLEVELAND PRODUCE

CLEVELAND, July 27.—Butter: extra, 45 1/2@46 1/2c; extra firsts, 41 1/2@42 1/2c; seconds, 40 1/2@41 1/2c.

Eggs: firsts, 32c; ordinaries, 29c; fowls, 30@31c; geese, 15@18c; stags, 18@20c; broilers, 20@24c; ducks, 26@28c; leghorn broilers 25@27c; leghorn springers, 33@35c; old cocks, 18@19c.

Potatoes: 150 lb. sacks, Ohio and New York, $2.15@2.25; Maine, Green Mountain, $2.25, 120 lb. sack $1.60; Burbanks 110 lb. bag $2.10; home grown, bu. aks., 66c. 1/2c; pullets 30c; extra firsts, 41 3/4@43 3/4c; firsts, 29 3/4c.

Poultry: heavy fowls, 26@27c; leghorns, 22@24c; heavy spring Florida, new potatoes, in barrels, $7.50; Michigan, Wisconsin, Minn., $1.60; Idaho Russet, $2@2.10 per 100 lb. sack.

DAYTON GRAIN

Corn, per cwt., $1.10.
New wheat, No. 1, $1.15.
Rye, No. 2, per bu. 75c.
Oats, No. 2, white, old, bu. 35c.

DAYTON PRODUCE

Retail Price

Dressed Turkeys 65c
Dressed hens, per pound 43c
1928 Fries 53c
Dressed Ducks 45c
Live Roosters 25c
Eggs, per dozen 30c
Butter 40c
1929 Fries, pound 53c
Prices Being Paid at Plant for Live Poultry and Eggs

Leghorn Hens, 4 lbs. up 22c
1928 Fries 53c
Eggs, per dozen 30c
Spring Ducks, per lb. 20c
Hens 25c
Geese 10c
Fries, 2 lbs. up 32c
Old Roosters, per lb. 14c
Leghorn Fries, pound 25c
(By Miami Valley Co-operative Milk Producers Ass'n.)

Butter, per lb. 45c

XENIA PRODUCE

Eggs, per dozen 33c
Butter, per lb. 50c
1928 Fries 53c
Leghorn fowl 21c
Heavy fowls 25c
Heavy Broilers 30c
Leghorn Broilers 24c
Old cocks 13c
Eggs 28c

YOU PAY LESS AT

Kennedy's

39 West Main

PRODUCE

CHICAGO BUTTER
CHICAGO, July 27.—Butter: receipts, 14,309 tubs; firsts, 38 1/2@39 1/2c; seconds, 37@38c; standards, 41 1/4c; extra, 41 1/4c; extra firsts, 40@40 1/2c.

SHEEP

Sheep $ 2.00@ 5.00
Spring lambs 12.50
Spring Lambs No. 2 11.00 down

TONIGHT

ALICE WHITE
in "BROADWAY BABIES"
Also Two Reel Jack Duffy Comedy

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

WILLIAM HAINES in
"A MAN'S MAN"
Fox News

ORPHIUM

TONIGHT
"THE SKY SKIDDER"
With Al Wilson

</

Try the CLASSIFIED -to Buy-Sell-Trade-Rent-Lease-Invest or Find- the MULTITUDE Use the TELEPHONE

Classified Advertising THE GAZETTE IS THE MEDIUM

through which the general public can always have its wants supplied.

THE GAZETTE will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of an advertisement. Notice of errors, typographical or otherwise, must be given in time for correction before next insertion.

Advertisements are restricted to proper classification style and type. THE GAZETTE reserves the right to edit or reject any advertisement.

Closing time for classified advertisement for publication the same day is 9:30 a. m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- 1 Card of Thanks.
- 2 In Memoriam.
- 3 Florists, Monuments.
- 4 Taxi Service.
- 5 Notices, Meetings.
- 6 Personal.
- 7 Lost and Found.

BUSINESS CARDS

- 1 Cleaning, Pressing, Laundering.
- 2 Dressmaking, Millinery.
- 3 Beauty Culture.
- 4 Professional Services.
- 5 Roofing, Plumbing, Heating.
- 6 Electricians, Wiring.
- 7 Building, Contracting.
- 8 Painting, Papering.
- 9 Repairing, Refinishing.
- 10 Commercial Hauling, Storage.

EMPLOYMENT

- 1 Help Wanted—Male.
- 2 Help Wanted—Female.
- 3 Help Wanted—Male or Female.
- 4 Help Wanted—Agents, Salesmen.
- 5 Situations Wanted.
- 6 Help Wanted—Instruction.

LIVE STOCK—POULTRY—PETS

- 1 Dogs—Canaries—Pets.
- 2 Poultry—Eggs—Supplies.
- 3 Horses—Cattle—Hogs.

MISCELLANEOUS

- 1 Wanted to Buy.
- 2 Miscellaneous For Sale.
- 3 Musical Instruments—Radio.
- 4 Household Goods.
- 5 Wearing Apparel—Shoes.
- 6 Groceries—Meats.

RENTALS

- 1 Where to Eat.
- 2 Apartments—Furnished.
- 3 Apartments—Unfurnished.
- 4 Rooms—With Board.
- 5 Rooms For Rent—Furnished.
- 6 Rooms For Rent—Unfurnished.
- 7 Houses—Unfurnished.
- 8 Houses—Furnished.
- 9 Office and Desk Rooms.
- 10 Miscellaneous For Rent.
- 11 Storage.
- 12 Wanted to Rent.

REAL ESTATE

- 1 Houses For Sale.
- 2 Lots For Sale.
- 3 Real Estate For Exchange.
- 4 Farms For Sale.
- 5 Business Opportunities.
- 6 Wanted—Real Estate.

AUTOMOTIVE

- 1 Automobile Insurance.
- 2 Auto Laundries—Painting.
- 3 Tires—Tubes—Batteries.
- 4 Parts—Service—Repairing.
- 5 Motorcycles—Bicycles.
- 6 Auto Agencies.
- 7 Used Cars For Sale.

PUBLIC SALES

- 1 Auctioneers.
- 2 Auction Sales.

DEAD STOCK

- 1 Horses—Cows, etc.

3 Florists; Monuments

- 1 CUT FLOWERS—Gladioli and Asters.
- 2 R. O. Douglas, Phone 549-W.
- 3 Cor. Washington and Monroe Sts.

6 Personal

- 1 WILL THE PARTY who is writing letters please sign name as a favor to James F. Osburn, Xenia, Route 5.

7 Lost and Found

- 1 LOST—Tooled leather purse, Wed. evening, containing keys and money, on either Green St. or Bluff. Return Huxsteyr Pool Room and receive reward.

11 Professional Services

- 1 BUYING AND SELLING hay, straw, grain and feeding shots. Custom baling specialty. C. C. Turner, Ph. 75-F-12.

- 1 LAWN MOWERS, Flow Shares and Horse Clippers sharpened. The Booklet-King Co. 415 W. Main St. Xenia, O.

- 1 DR. PHEBA DAUSCH, Health Science. No drugs or surgery. Call East 3095, 1410 E. Third St. Dayton, O.

- 1 EXPERT FILM finishing and developing. Daisy Clemens, Room 9, Steele Bldg. Formerly with Canby Studio.

12 Roofing, Plumbing

- 1 PIPES—Valves and fittings for all purposes. Booklet's line of plumbing and heating supplies are the best. The Booklet-King Co. 415 W. Main St.

17 Commercial Hauling

- 1 BEST MOVING and storage facilities in Xenia. Call 718 for prompt service. Lang Transfer.

- 1 HAULING DAILY, Dayton to Xenia. Xenia to Wilmington. House to house delivery. Jesse E. Gilbert.

18 Help Wanted—Male

- 1 OUR MEN EARN $50 weekly and more selling amazing Magnetic Auto Trouble Light. Sticks anywhere! Magno Co., Beacon Bldg., Boston Mass.

- 1 RELIABLE MAN wanted to run McNeess business in West Greene Co. $8 to $12 daily profits. No experience or capital needed. McNeess Co. Dept. B Freeport, Ill.

- 1 WANTED—Ten boys 9 to 12 years, to do light pleasant work after school and on Saturdays. Good pay. Apply by letter to J. T. care of Gazette.

MONEY TO LOAN ON EASY PAYMENTS

On any kind of security you have to offer—HOUSEHOLD GOODS, LIVESTOCK or AUTOMOBILES.

AMERICAN LOAN CO.
Steele Bldg. Terms 4 Mo. To 4 Yrs

18 Help Wanted—Male

WANTED—Young men with High School Education for permanent position in branch store. Those with some retail experience given preference. Only those giving age, experience and references in full and address will be considered. Good opportunity for advancement. Address The Cussiss & Pean Co., Columbus, care of B. A. Durrant.

19 Help Wanted—Female

WANTED—Middle aged woman to make her home and care for children. Reference. Inquire Child Hill Grocery.

NEW INVENTION prevents shoulder straps slipping. Earn $60 per week. DuPont Fairy Damask Tablecloths, Bridge Sets, Table Pads, Water-Strain Proof. No laundering. Complete Outfit FREE. Lingerie "V" Co., North Windham, Conn.

20 Help Wanted

GROCERIES—Wholesale, $15 profit a day. No experience required. Particulars free. Pleasant interesting work. Albert Mills, 4175 Monmouth, Cincinnati.

21 Help Wanted—Agents

WANTED Automobile salesman. Best proposition in Xenia. THE BECKETT AUTO CO. Hudson and Essex 12 W. Second St. Phone 610

AGENTS get your name in early. Exclusive Personal Greeting Card outfit free. Hundred piece assortment retails $1. Art-In-Cards, Rochester, N. Y.

25 Poultry—Eggs—Supplies

WORM your flocks now the easy way with Pratt's Poultry Worm Powder. Babbs Hardware, Xenia.

28 Miscellaneous for Sale

1000 FT. of inch oak boards, $40.00. See Alonzo Carle. Phone County 81-F-14.

FUDGE'S USED FURNITURE Household goods of all kinds. Good condition. 115 S. Detroit St.

REFRIGERATOR in excellent condition, 100 lb. capacity, cheap. Eichman Electric, W. Main.

FOR SALE—1½ ton Commerce truck. Inquire 231 W. Third St.

FURNITURE REFINISHING, upholstery and repairing. Phone 3. We estimate. Fred F. Graham Co.

BUY YOUR ELECTRIC FAN at Eichman Electric. Trade in your old fan with liberal allowance.

HAY ROPE, hay forks, hay pulleys specially priced. Babbs Hardware store, Xenia.

REMNANTS of screen wire and poultry netting, half price. Babbs Hardware, Xenia.

ROOF PAINT—Paint that roof now with quality asphalt. Get our prices. Babbs Hardware, Xenia.

HEAR the new Victor-victrola-radio at the Sutton Music Store, Green St.

GOOD USED BICYCLES, Famous Auto Supply.

29 Musical—Radio

PIANOS For Sale—$45.00 monthly. John Harbison, Allen Building.

35 Apartments—Unfurnished

MODERN APARTMENT—3 unfurnished rooms and one sleeping porch (furnished). R. A. Keible, 187 W. Second St.

DESIRABLE—four room modern apartment. Heat and water furnished. Geo. Dodds and Sons Granite Co. Phone 450.

37 Rooms For Rent—Furnished

FURNISHED LIGHT housekeeping room at 320 E. Main St.

ROOM FOR LIGHT housekeeping, furnished, 392 E. Market, corner of Monroe.

39 Houses—Unfurnished

HOUSE—Unfurnished 5 room modern house with garage. 191 W. 2nd St. Phone 874-R.

FOR RENT—1 room, strictly modern house, 121 W. Second St. Inquire of H. E. Schmidt.

DOUBLE HOUSE—Five rooms, each side, 426 E. Market St. Apply Woodson, Wilberforce. Phone Co. 8-F-4.

12 Miscellaneous For Rent

100 A. FARM for rent. Good land, well improved. Good buildings. Phone 283-R.

45 Houses For Sale

TWO-STORY 5 room house. Electricity, gas, both kinds of water, good location. Immediate possession. Priced to sell at once. T. C. Long, Allen Bldg.

48 Farms For Sale

FOR SALE or trade for Xenia property, farm of 93 and one-half acres, 2 miles from Xenia. Ralph Mangum, Atlas Hotel.

49 Business Opportunities

CHATEL LOANS Notes Bought Second Mortgages. John Harbison, Allen Building.

52 Auto Laundries—Painting

CAR WASHING and painting at Anderson's Rent-a-Car, 8 White-man St.

53 Tires—Tubes—Batteries

GIANT TIRES ON WEEKLY payments. Guaranteed one year. All popular sizes. Xenia Mercantile, E-11.

SIX VOLT—11 plate batteries, $6.25. Carroll-Binder Co. E. Main St.

57 Used Cars For Sale

SEE THESE CARS AT BABBS

Ford Sedan$295
Chrysler Coupe$125
Star Coupe$22.50
Franklin 4-Pass.
Coupe$360
Hudson Coach$195

BABBS HDWE. STORE
Graham-Paige Sales and Service

60 Horses—Cows, etc.

DEAD STOCK
$3.00 To $6.00
For HORSES and COWS
Call 454
Xenia Fertilizer And Tankage Co.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT
Estate of Rebecca LaFong, Deceased.

Althea L. Harshman and Sarah E. Kable have been appointed and qualified as Administrators of the estate of Rebecca LaFong, late of Greene County, Ohio, Deceased.

Dated this 26th day of July A. D. 1929.

S. C. WRIGHT, Probate Judge of said County. (7-27, 8-3-10-14)

NOTICE
Mural Thomas Bruce, residence unknown, will take notice that on the 19th day of July, 1929, Mamie Reid Bruce filed her petition for a divorce against him in the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Ohio, upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, and also gross neglect of duty, praying that she may be divorced from him and be restored to her maiden name and that the defendant may be barred from defense in the property of the plaintiff.

Said defendant is further notified that he must answer this petition on or before the 2nd day of September 1929, after which time said cause will be for hearing in said Court.

MAMIE REID BRUCE. (7-29-27 8-2-10-17-24)

EXPECT DEFENDANT TO GIVE IMPORTANT DEFENSE EVIDENCE
(Continued from Page 1)

maintained in the jury box when adjournment was taken.

Snook's new lease on life was easily the outstanding development of the day and it was not difficult to understand. In the last forty-eight hours Mrs. Snook has given evidence both public and private that she would never desert him. Then his mother arrived at Columbus, announcing that if permitted she would sit at his side until the end, and, being denied that, she would devote her self to "cheering Helen" and giving her boy all the aid she could muster. "Helen" is Mrs. Snook.

Only one opposing note was heard. It came from J. D. Marple and wife, the parents of Mrs. Snook.

"He is where he belongs and that's where we hope he stays," Mrs. Marple said and her husband agreed. "We do not agree with Helen, but we have nothing to say to her on that subject. She has our love and our help, and what she does is her own business."

Snook's mother is an aristocrat, tall, straight, grey-haired woman of 73. Her self control seems perfect. Even when she greeted her son in his prison cell she came up to him smiling and soon guards heard her say:

"Oh, Jimmie, how do you like my new dress?"

Not a word of the tragedy his situation has brought to her passed her lips.

"I am here to make it as easy as I can for my boy for I remember how good he has always been to me," she told friends.

So, with the renewed assurances of faith by those whom he feels the nearest to him, Snook came into court yesterday, a much different man than on previous days. His step had a snap to it. He went to his chair, peeled off his coat and before the session had started was plunged into conference with one of his attorneys over a sheaf of notes. A transcript of testimony was brought to him. All day long he was busy, making notes, talking to his lawyers, studying and checking his transcript. He only paused at times to scrutinize a prospective juror with the sharp, steady eye, which, looking down revolver barrels, had made him for ten years world's champion revolver shot. Then he would turn back to his papers.

The day's work of jury-selection produced few thrills for the 300 people who filled all available space in the courtroom, but the crowd remained, eagerly drinking in every word that was said. A check of the courtroom revealed that women dominate the audience in the ratio of five women to one man. Half of the women present were probably under thirty years of age and a quarter probably over.

Each prospective juror was closely questioned with regard to views on capital punishment and opposition to capital punishment unfailingly brought dismissal. The defense asked each talesman whether he or she would feel embarrassed discussing subjects usually confined to the clinic or to lectures on sex-psychology, in mixed company. Words were not minced. It was notable that to date fifty prospective jurors, including eleven women, have been examined and not one has hesitated in saying no embarrassment whatever would be caused by such discussions in mixed company.

Before adjournment Judge Henry Scarlett ordered impaneled a new venire of fifty, anticipating that the present panel would be exhausted before the jury is completed. Yesterday there were hopes of beginning evidence on Monday. Today it seemed that not before Tuesday the actual unfolding of this tragic-romance of the 24-year-old college girl and her 48-year-old professor, could begin.

READ THIS FIRST:
Vivian Matthews, shy and unhappy because she was a doorstep baby, and considered a "flat tire," marries Kentworth Hillman Johns III, whom she secretly loves, to help him secure his grandfather's fortune, with the understanding that at the end of a year she is to receive one hundred thousand dollars and a divorce in Paris. She is taught to fly by Mann Barkow, famous artist, and when a cyclone hits Bender flies through the storm and saves a score of lives by bringing back doctors and supplies. The Johns home and business is swept away, and Kent learns that he is penniless, his fortune having been swept away in the stock market. She insists upon their living in her little cottage, where they have taken refuge, until their year is up. Cooking and sewing for Kent will be her heaven.

But believing Kent is going to marry his old fiancee when he is divorced, she becomes engaged to Barkow. A mysterious stranger returns.

Vivian Matthews, shy and unhappy because she was a doorstep baby, and called a "flat tire," marries Kentworth Hillman Johns III, secretly loving him, to help him get his grandfather's fortune. She is to have a Paris divorce and one hundred thousand dollars at the end of a year, but a cyclone and the stock market combine to wipe Kent's fortune off the earth. A mysterious lawyer calls and takes Vivian to old Judge Potter's office, where she is to learn the truth about her birth.

She learns the stranger is her mother's father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns I. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident, and Kent is, in reality, but an orphan baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm Kent deeply to know the truth about himself. Mann Barkow, however, for new money, tells Kent that something has hurt Vivian, Kent is suddenly tender. He kisses her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XLVI
Suddenly—as if a ghost had appeared between them, Vivian had a fleeting vision of Dovie Jansen in Kent's arms.

He had said he loved Dovie. That he could never love anyone else—that he wanted to be sure he married a girl who could never love. It all came to her with such clear force that, almost brutally, she pushed him from her. It had been difficult. He had struggled to take her in his arms again.

"No—no! Please leave me," she cried out to him—and it brought him back to earth with a jolt.

She did not want his passion! She wanted his love—or nothing. It made her feel cheap and common that his kisses had been so brutal—he hadn't meant anything by it—she was just a woman.

Vivian wanted to cry it all out to him—to scream the injustice of everything to him. But she could not. He caught his breath in the darkness, and when he spoke his voice did not sound like Kent.

"Forgive me," he told her hoarsely. "I forgot myself. I'm sorry if I offended you—I misunderstood you again."

Passion and hurt giving battle, he stumbled from the room. And she did not call him back. But she buried her face in her pillow and sobbed bitterly and brokenly. The emotions of the day had been too much for her. It was nearly dawn when she fell asleep.

Vivian wrote her grandfather every day, and received sweet, endearing letters from him. She photographed one of the nice Christmas pictures and sent it to him in a large silver frame for his desk. In all her confusion, he was the bright spot in her life. If she could only take her heartaches to him.

Kent was offered a job selling cars with a rival concern, and he hadn't been there a week when Vivian could see that the humiliation and the strain was breaking his heart. After the night that he had kissed her in the darkness he had seemed different in his attitude toward her. They had lost some of the gay camaraderie. There was a strain.

An idea hit her so suddenly one day that she sat bolt upright in her chair, when she was sewing curtains for the kitchen windows.

Why, she had half a million dollars! She could set him up in business—a wonderful business. She wondered if it could be done without his knowing it. A minute later she had grabbed her hat, and, forgetting to powder her nose, was on her way running to old Judge Potter's office.

Half way there she remembered that it might be helping him to marry Dovie, and her steps slowed. But her sympathy for his happiness overcame her, and she started on again. I have so much—and he has nothing, she thought, sorrowfully. How strange—how unbelievable it seemed that their roles were just reversed.

He was the unknown—the dependent. She was an heiress—a blue blooded heiress—and he was a pauper and didn't even know his right name.

The idea was so thrilling to her—the knowledge that she could help Kent—that when she had to wait fifteen minutes for Judge Potter to finish talking with a client, she felt she had waited for hours.

"Come on in, Vivie," he seemed pathetically pleased to have a call from her—"set right down and make yourself at home. I can't offer you a cigar."

He laughed heartily at his own joke, and patted her on the back. "And how's the pretty little heiress today?"

"I'm fine—and full of ideas as a doggie is fleas," she smiled back at him. "But I don't know what you'll think of my ideas."

"Thought you'd come in some of these days and be wanting to spend some of that there filthy lace."

He sat back expectantly.

"That's it, judge. But not for myself—not right now, that is. But I wondered if I could have enough of it to set Kent up in business?"

"It's yourn," he beamed on her. "Guess you might as well start in spending it on your husband as any other one. What was your idea?"

"I—thought—maybe I could set him up in the automobile business, or something. If it could be done without his ever knowing where the money came from."

He tapped his old corn-cob pipe thoughtfully against the table, and spilled ashes on the floor.

"Er—well, I don't see why not," he chuckled as if very much pleased again. "Looks like a pretty fair idea to me. Not a thing in the world to stop it."

She was all eagerness at once—sitting on the edge of her chair.

"We could do it—and he'd never, never know I had anything to do with it, then?"

"Beats all to me, youngun," he wagged a finger at her, "how you like to hide all that light of your'n under a bushel. But it could be done—yes, I don't think you ought to keep so much to yourself, though."

"Oh, can't you see how it would kill his pride? He couldn't take money from a woman. It just breaks his heart to live in my little old house, even, and not be able to give me any money. He is getting so thin and worried—I'm afraid he'll be sick."

"You think pretty much of that boy, don't you, kiddie?"

"Yes, I sure do, judge. I always have."

Tears came in her eyes, then, and she had an overwhelming desire to confide the whole miserable affair to her old friend. He would understand. He was the one person

THE FLAT TIRE

By ALMA SIOUX SCARBERRY

A DRAB LITTLE MOTH FLIES TO HAPPINESS
© 1929
AUTHOR OF "MAKE UP" ETC. CENTRAL PRESS ASSN. INC.

The little day dreamer that used to be the flat tire.

wondered if it could be done without his knowing it. A minute later she had grabbed her hat, and, forgetting to powder her nose, was on her way running to old Judge Potter's office.

Half way there she remembered that it might be helping him to marry Dovie, and her steps slowed. But her sympathy for his happiness overcame her, and she started on again. I have so much—and he has nothing, she thought, sorrowfully. How strange—how unbelievable it seemed that their roles were just reversed.

He was the unknown—the dependent. She was an heiress—a blue blooded heiress—and he was a pauper and didn't even know his right name.

The idea was so thrilling to her—the knowledge that she could help Kent—that when she had to wait fifteen minutes for Judge Potter to finish talking with a client, she felt she had waited for hours.

"Come on in, Vivie," he seemed pathetically pleased to have a call from her—"set right down and make yourself at home. I can't offer you a cigar."

He laughed heartily at his own joke, and patted her on the back. "And how's the pretty little heiress today?"

"I'm fine—and full of ideas as a doggie is fleas," she smiled back at him. "But I don't know what you'll think of my ideas."

"Thought you'd come in some of these days and be wanting to spend some of that there filthy lace."

He sat back expectantly.

Try the CLASSIFIED - to Buy - Sell - Trade - Rent - Lease - Invest or Find - Use the TELEPHONE through which the general public can always have its wants supplied. THE GAZETTE will not be responsible for more than an incorrect insertion of an advertisement. Notice of errors, typographical or otherwise, must be given in time for correction before next insertion. Advertisements are restricted to proper classification style and type. THE GAZETTE reserves the right to edit or reject any advertisement. Closing time for classified advertisement for publication the same day is 9:30 a. m.

Classified Advertising THE GAZETTE IS THE MEDIUM

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- 1 Card of Thanks.
- 2 In Memoriam.
- 3 Florists; Monuments.
- 4 Taxi Service.
- 5 Notices, Meetings.
- 6 Personal.
- 7 Lost and Found.

BUSINESS CARDS

- 1 Cleaning, Pressing, Laundering
- 2 Dressmaking, Millinery.
- 3 Beauty Culture.
- 4 Professional Services.
- 5 Roofing, Plumbing, Heating
- 6 Electricians, Wiring.
- 7 Building, Contracting.
- 8 Painting, Papering.
- 9 Repairing, Refinishing.
- 10 Commercial Hauling, Storage.

EMPLOYMENT

- 18 Help Wanted—Male.
- 19 Help Wanted—Female.
- 20 Help Wanted—Male or Female
- 21 Help Wanted—Agents, Salesmen
- 22 Situations Wanted.
- 23 Help Wanted—Instruction.

LIVE STOCK—POULTRY—PETS

- 24 Dogs—Canaries—Pets.
- 25 Poultry—Eggs—Supplies.
- 26 Horses—Cattle—Hogs.

MISCELLANEOUS

- 27 Wanted to Buy.
- 28 Miscellaneous For Sale.
- 29 Miscellaneous—Radio.
- 30 Household Goods.
- 31 Wearing Apparel—Shoes.
- 32 Groceries—Meats.

RENTALS

- 33 Where to Eat.
- 34 Apartments—Furnished.
- 35 Apartments—Unfurnished.
- 36 Rooms—With Board.
- 37 Rooms For Rent—Unfurnished.
- 38 Rooms For Rent—Furnished.
- 39 Houses—Furnished.
- 40 Office and Desk Rooms.
- 41 Miscellaneous For Rent.
- 42 Wanted to Rent.
- 43 Storage.

REAL ESTATE

- 44 Houses For Sale.
- 45 Lots For Sale.
- 46 Real Estate For Exchange.
- 47 Farms For Sale.
- 48 Business Opportunities.
- 49 Wanted—Real Estate.

AUTOMOTIVE

- 50 Automobile Insurance.
- 51 Auto Laundries—Painting.
- 52 Tires—Tubes—Batteries.
- 53 Parts—Service—Repairing.
- 54 Motorcycles—Bicycles.
- 55 Auto Agencies.
- 56 Used Cars For Sale.

PUBLIC SALES

- 57 Auctioneers.
- 58 Auction Sales.

DEAD STOCK

- 59 Horses—Cows, etc.

3 Florists; Monuments

- CUT FLOWERS—Gladol and Astors. R. O. Douglas. Phone 549-W. Cor. Washington and Monroe Sts.

6 Personal

- WILL THE PARTY who is writing letters please sign name as a favor to James F. Osburn, Xenia, Route 5.

7 Lost and Found

- LOST—Tooled leather purse, Wed. evening, containing keys and money, on either Green St. or Bijou. Return Hustmyer Pool Room and receive reward.

11 Professional Services

- BUYING AND SELLING hay, straw, grain and feeding stocks. Custom baling specialty. C. C. Turner, Ph. 75-F-13.

LAWN MOWERS, Plow Shares and Horse Clippers sharpened. The Booklet-King Co. 415 W. Main St. Xenia, O.

DR. PHEBA DAUSCH, Health Science. No drugs or surgery. Call East 3938. 1410 E. Third St. Dayton, O.

EXPERT FILM finishing and developing. Daisy Clemans, Room 3, Steele Bldg. Formerly with Canby Studio.

12 Roofing, Plumbing

- PIPES—Valves and fittings for all purposes. Bocklet's line of plumbing and heating supplies are the best. The Bocklet-King Co. 415 W. Main St.

17 Commercial Hauling

- BEST MOVING and storage facilities in Xenia. Call 728 for prompt service. Lang Transfer.

HAULING LUMBER, Dayton to Xenia. Xenia to Wilmington. Xenia to house delivery. Jesse E. Gilbert

18 Help Wanted—Male

- OUR MEN EARN $50 weekly and more selling amazing Magnetic Auto Trouble Light. Sticks anywhere! Magna Co., Beeson Bldg., Boston Mass.

RELIABLE MAN wanted to run McNea business in West Greene Co. $8 to $12 daily profits. No experience or capital needed. McNea Co. Dept. B Freeport, Ill.

WANTED—Ten boys 9 to 12 years, to do light pleasant work afternoons and on Saturdays. Good pay. Apply by letter to J. T. care of Gazette.

MONEY TO LOAN ON EASY PAYMENTS On any kind of security you have to offer—HOUSEHOLD GOODS, LIVESTOCK or AUTOMOBILES. AMERICAN LOAN CO. Steele Bldg. Terms 4 Mo. To 4 Yrs

18 Help Wanted—Male

- WANTED—Young men with High School education for permanent position in branch store. Those with some retail experience given preference. Only those giving address and references in full and address will be considered. Good opportunity for advancement. Address The Cussings & Fearn Co., Columbus, Care of B. A. Durrant.

19 Help Wanted—Female

- WANTED—Middle aged woman to make her home and care for children. Reference. Inquire Orient Hill Grocery.

20 Help Wanted

- GROCERIES—Wholesale, $15 profit a day. No experience required. Particulars free. Pleasant interesting work. Albert Mills, 4175 Monmouth, Cincinnati.

21 Help Wanted—Agents

- WANTED Automobile salesman. Best proposition in Xenia. THE BECKETT AUTO CO. Hudson and Essex 12 W. Second St. Phone 610

25 Poultry—Eggs—Supplies

- WORM your flocks now the easy way with Pratt's Poultry Worm Powder. Babbs' Hardware, Xenia

28 Miscellaneous for Sale

- 1000 FT. of inch oak boards, $40.00. See Alonzo Carle. Phone County 81-F-14.

37 Rooms For Rent—Furnished

- FURNISHED LIGHT housekeeping room at 339 E. Main St.

39 Houses—Unfurnished

- HOUSE—Unfurnished 5 room modern house with garage. 791 W. 2nd St. Phone 974-H.

45 Houses For Sale

- TWO-STORY 3 room house. Electricity, gas, both kinds of water, good location. Immediate possession. Priced to sell if sold at once. T. C. Long, Allen Bldg.

48 Farms For Sale

- FOR SALE or trade for Xenia property, farm of 93 and one-half acres, 2 miles from Xenia. Ralph Mangum, Atlas Hotel.

49 Business Opportunities

- CHAFFET LOANS Notes Bought Second Mortgages. John Harbina, Allen Building.

52 Auto Laundries—Painting

- CAR WASHING and painting at Anderson's Rent-a-Car, 8 White-man St.

53 Tires—Tubes—Batteries

- GIANT TIRES ON WEEKLY payments. Guaranteed one year. All popular sizes. Xenia Mercantile, E. Second.

SIX VOLT—11 plate batteries, $6.25.

Carroll-Binder Co. E. Main St.

57 Used Cars For Sale

SEE THESE CARS AT BABBS'

- Ford Sedan$295
- Chrysler Coupe$425
- Star Coupe$22.50
- Franklin 4-Pass. Coupe$360
- Hudson Coach$195

BABBS' HDWE. STORE

- Graham-Paige Sales and Service

60 Horses—Cows, etc.

DEAD STOCK

- $3.00 To $6.00 For HORSES and COWS Call 454

Xenia Fertilizer and Tankage Co.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

- Estate of Rebecca LaFong, Deceased. Alethea L. Harshman and Sarah E. Kable have been appointed and qualified as Administrators of the estate of Rebecca LaFong, late of Greene County, Ohio, Deceased. Dated this 26th day of July A. D. 1929.

S. C. WRIGHT, Probate Judge of said County. (7-27, 8-3-19.)

NOTICE

- Mural Thomas, residence unknown, will take notice that on the 13th day of July, 1929, Mamie Reid Bruce filed her petition for divorce against him in the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Ohio, upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, and also gross neglect of duty, praying that she may be divorced from him and be restored to her maiden name, and that the defendant may be barred from dower in the property of the plaintiff.

Said defendant is further notified that he must answer this petition on or before the 23rd day of September, 1929, after which time said cause will be for hearing in said Court.

MAMIE REID BRUCE. (7-29-27 8-3-19-17-24.)

EXPECT DEFENDANT TO GIVE IMPORTANT DEFENSE EVIDENCE

- (Continued from Page 1) maintained in the jury box when adjournment was taken. Snook's new lease on life was easily the outstanding development of the day and it was not difficult to understand. In the last forty-eight hours Mrs. Snook has given evidence both public and private that she would never desert him. Then his mother arrived at Columbus, announcing that if permitted she would sit at his side until the end, and, being denied that, she would devote herself to "cheering Helen" and giving her boy all the aid she could muster. "Helen" is Mrs. Snook.

- Only one opposing note was heard. It came from J. D. Marple and wife, the parents of Mrs. Snook.

- "He is where he belongs and that's where we hope he stays," Mrs. Marple said and her husband agreed. "We do not agree with Helen, but we have nothing to say to her on that subject. She has our love and our help, and what she does is her own business."

- Snook's mother is an aristocrat, tall, straight, grey-haired woman of 73. Her self control seems perfect. Even when she greeted her son in his prison cell she came up to him smiling and soon guards heard her say: "Oh, Jimmie, how do you like my new dress?"

Not a word of the tragedy his situation has brought to her passed her lips.

"I am here to make it as easy as I can for my boy for I remember how good he has always been to me," she told friends.

So, with the renewed assurances of faith by those whom he feels the nearest to him, Snook came into court yesterday, a much different man than on previous days. His step had a snap to it. He went to his chair, peeled off his coat and before the session had started was plunged into conference with one of his attorneys over a sheaf of notes. A transcript of testimony was brought to him. All day long he was busy making notes, talking to his lawyers, studying and checking his transcript. He only paused at times to scrutinize a prospective juror with the sharp, steady eye, which, looking down revolver barrels, had made him for ten years world's champion revolver shot. Then he would turn back to his papers.

The day's work of jury-selection produced few thrills for the 200 people who filled all available space in the courtroom, but the crowd remained, eagerly drinking in every word that was said. A check of the courtroom revealed that women dominate the audience in the ratio of five women to one man. Half of the women present were probably under thirty years of age and a quarter probably over.

Each prospective juror was closely questioned with regard to views on capital punishment and opposition to capital punishment. The unfailingly brought dismissal. The defense asked each talesman whether he or she would feel embarrassed discussing subjects usually confined to the clinic or to lectures on sex-psychology, in mixed company. Words were not minced. It was notable that to date fifty prospective jurors, including eleven women, have been examined and not one has hesitated in saying no embarrassment whatever would be caused by such discussions in mixed company.

Before adjournment Judge Henry Scarlett ordered impaneled a new venire of fifty, anticipating that the present panel would be exhausted before the jury is completed. Yesterday there were hopes of beginning evidence on Monday. Today it seemed that not before Tuesday the actual unfolding of this tragic romance of the 24-year-old college girl and her 48-year-old professor, could begin.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

THE FLAT TIRE A DRAB LITTLE MOTH FLIES TO HAPPINESS BY ALMA SIOUX SCARBERRY AUTHOR OF "MAKE UP" ETC. CENTRAL PRESS ASSN. INC. © 1929

The little day dreamer that used to be the flat tire.

READ THIS FIRST: Vivian Matthews, shy and unhappy because she was a doorstep baby, and considered a "flat tire," marries Kentworth Hillman Johns III, whom she secretly loves, to help him secure his grandfather's fortune, with the understanding that at the end of a year she is to receive one hundred thousand dollars and a divorce in Paris. She is taught to fly by Mann Barkow, famous artist, and when a cyclone hits Bender flies through the storm and saves a score of lives by bringing back doctors and supplies. The Johns home and business is swept away, and Kent learns that he is penniless, his fortune having been swept away in the stock market. She insists upon their living in her little cottage, where they have taken refuge, until their year is up. Cooking and sewing for Kent will be heaven.

But believing Kent is going to marry his old fiancée when he is divorced, she becomes engaged to Barkow. A mysterious stranger returns. Vivian Matthews, shy and unhappy because she was a doorstep baby, and called a "flat tire," marries Kentworth Hillman Johns III, secretly loving him, to help him get his grandfather's fortune. She is to have a divorce and one hundred thousand dollars, at the end of a year, but a cyclone and the stock market combine to wipe Kent's fortune off the earth. A mysterious lawyer calls and takes Vivian to old Judge Potter's office, where she is to learn the truth about her birth.

She learns the stranger is her mother's father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns I. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer and old Johns would not recognize the offspring of a stage woman. He had paid Martha Matthews to take Vivian in and say she had found her on her doorstep.

She swears the two old men to secrecy, believing it would harm her father, and that she is the granddaughter of Kentworth Hillman Johns. Her parents were killed in an automobile accident and Kent is, in reality, but an orphanage baby, chosen to fill the son's place, because Vivian's mother was a dancer

The Theater

Countless little incidents that occur during the filming of any motion picture often play unscheduled parts in the finished product.

During the filming of Norma Talmadge's first talking picture, "The Pan Alley", the infection of a yawn spreading from one person to another breeds a contagious life—a little bit of business that wasn't in the script.

While waiting for a light change, Miss Talmadge yawned and Lilyan Tashman caught the infection and followed suit. Director Lewis Milestone, recognizing the comic touch, later put the action into the picture with excellent results.

Then there was the matter of cats. Every studio has the semi-the picture by Gilbert Roland, Lilyan Tashman, John Wray, Roscoe Karns and Mary Moran. The picture is a story of New York's romantic habitat of song writers and chorus girls.

Feature in this column's extensive art department is Miss Lola Lane, former night club entertainer and now a film star, who is defendant in a suit filed by Arthur S. Lyons, New York theatrical sponsor. Lyons says he took Miss Lane out of vaudeville, had her taught elocution and parlor manners and landed for her a $250,000 five-year contract for which he was to get 10 per cent of her earnings. Lyons says that after four months, she quit sending him his earnings. She denies the accusations.

Twenty Years '09- Ago '29

With a new forty-foot addition in the rear and fine oak furnished offices installed in that part, the H. E. Schmidt grocery is being converted into one of the most attractive stores in the city.

County Surveyor S. M. McKay arrived home from Lakeside, O., where he spent the last ten days.

Harry Lyle, who more than a year ago was employed as a messenger boy at the Western Union office here is spending a week in Xenia with friends.

"Bunny" Pierce, star catcher on the Dayton Central League baseball team, is visiting in Xenia with one of his schoolmates at Culver University, where he began his baseball career.

LOLA LANE

wild alley variety and Director Milestone found use for one of them and her four kittens. In order to dramatize and make more interesting the drab greyness of a tenement cellar, he ordered the five brought onto the stage and placed them in the foreground. A bowl of milk kept them within focus.

Milestone says heat hot enough to burst a dozen or so rubber balloons is hot heat and he ought to know. That kind of heat was generated by forty 250-watt incandescent lamps on the sound stage when a gala night club scene was being filmed. The toy balloons popped and ruined the sound sequences under the temperature of 112 degrees. The company figured the loss at a half hour's time, 600 feet of film and $1,000 in stage rental and salaries. The heat also wilted fresh flowers, making it necessary to substitute artificial flowers which cost more but were more durable.

Miss Talmadge is supported in

NOAH NUMSKULL

DEAR NOAH—IF AN ANGLER CASTING FOR WHITE FISH HOOKED A BLACK BASS, WOULD HE DRAW THE COLOR LINE? D.V. BRUNTER, GROVE CITY, PA.

DEAR NOAH—WHERE DO THE THREADS GO WHEN THE STOCKING RUNS? JEAN DUNDON, BLAINFIELD, N.J.

IF A CORK IS SO LIGHT, WHY DOESN'T IT SHOW IN THE DARK? BILLY BROWN, NORMAN, BLAINFIELD, N.J.

DEAR NOAH—WHY DOESN'T IT SHOW IN THE DARK? BILLY BROWN, NORMAN, BLAINFIELD, N.J.

SALLY'S SALLIES

DID YOU HEAR THAT REMARK?—I COULD START A RIOT IF I HAD A MIND TO!

The old Doc says, "Never pick a quarrel even though it is ripe."

JUST AMONG US GIRLS

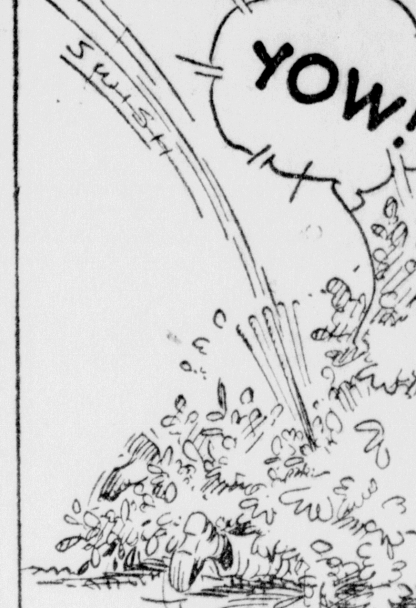

"Gee, I'd rather swim than eat!"

"Harold says you've got water on the brain!"

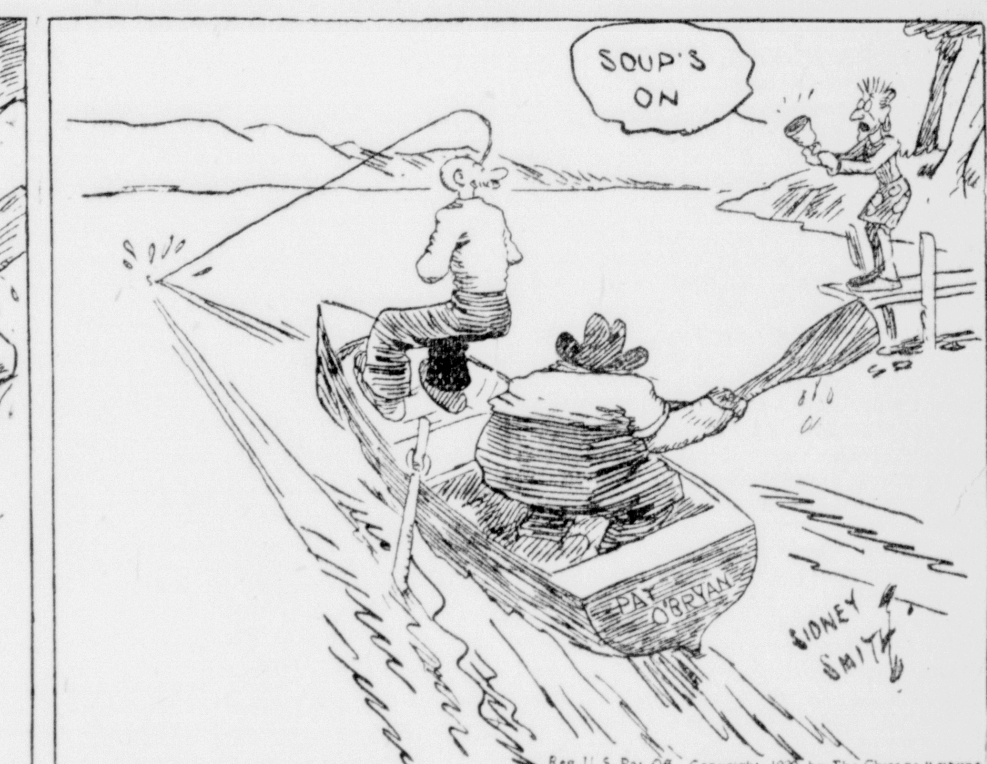

Paul Robinson

BIG SISTER—Realized Ambitions.

ONCE MORE THE UNSEEN FOE HAS STRUCK. A WEIGHT OF HAY KNOCKED BETH AND DONNIE OFF THE LADDER THEY WERE CLIMBING TO LOOK FOR EGGS IN THE HAYMOW.

THE GUMPS—Soup's On.

ETTA KETT—The Big Reason!

MUGGS MCGINNIS—It's the Principal of the Thing!

HIGH PRESSURE PETE—50-50

"CAP" STUBBS—Poor Li'l Cappy!

By LESLIE FORGRAVE

By SIDNEY SMITH

By PAUL ROBINSON

By WALLY BISHOP

By SWAN

By EDWINA

The Theater

Countless little incidents that occur during the filming of any motion picture often play unscheduled parts in the finished product.

During the filming of Norma, the picture by Gilbert Roland, Lilyan Tashman, John Vray, Rose Karna and Mary Moran. The picture is a story of New York's romantic habit of song writers and chorus girls.

While waiting for a light change, Miss Talmadge yawned and Lilyan Tashman caught the infection and followed suit. Director Lewis Milestone, recognizing the comic touch, later put the action into the picture with excellent results.

Then there was the matter of cats. Every studio has the semi-

Feature in this column's extensive art department is Miss Lola Lane, former night club entertainer and now a film star, who is defendant in a suit filed by Arthur S. Lyons, New York theatrical sponsor. Lyons says he took Miss Lane out of vaudeville, had her taught elocution and parlor manners and landed for her a $250,000 five-year contract for which he was to get 10 per cent of her earnings. Lyons says that after four months, she quit sending him his earnings. She denies the accusations.

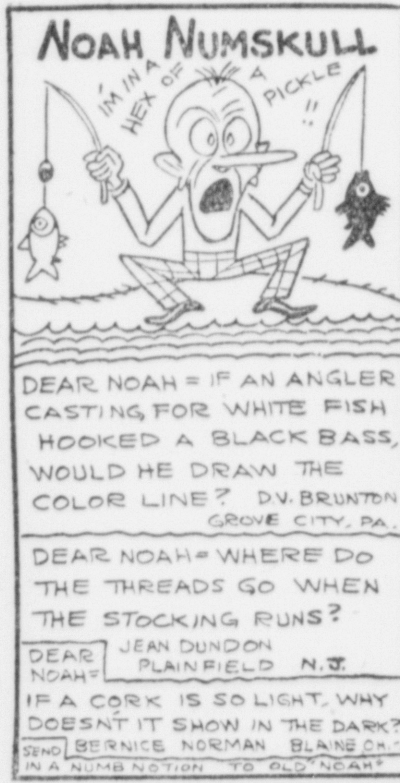

LOLA LANE

wild alley variety and Director Milestone found use for one of them and her four kittens. In order to dramatize and make more interesting the dim grayness of a tenement cellar, he ordered the five brought onto the stage and placed them in the foreground. A bowl of milk kept them within focus.

Milestone says heat hot enough to burst a dozen or so rubber balloons is hot heat and he ought to know. That kind of heat was generated by forty 250-watt incandescent lamps on the sound stage when a gala night club scene was being filmed. The toy balloons popped and ruined the sound sequences under the temperature of 112 degrees. The company figured the loss at a half hour's time, 600 feet of film and $1,000 in stage rental and salaries. The heat also wilted fresh flowers, making it necessary to substitute artificial flowers which cost more but were more durable.

Miss Talmadge is supported in

The old Doc says, "Never pick a quarrel even though it is ripe."

JUST AMONG US GIRLS

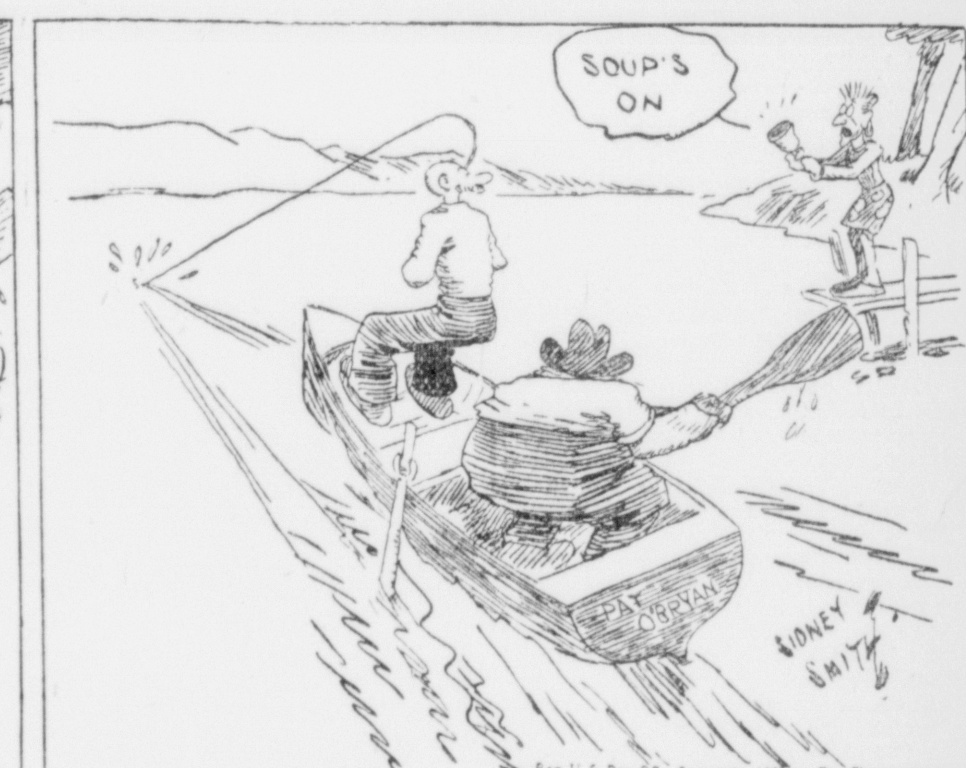

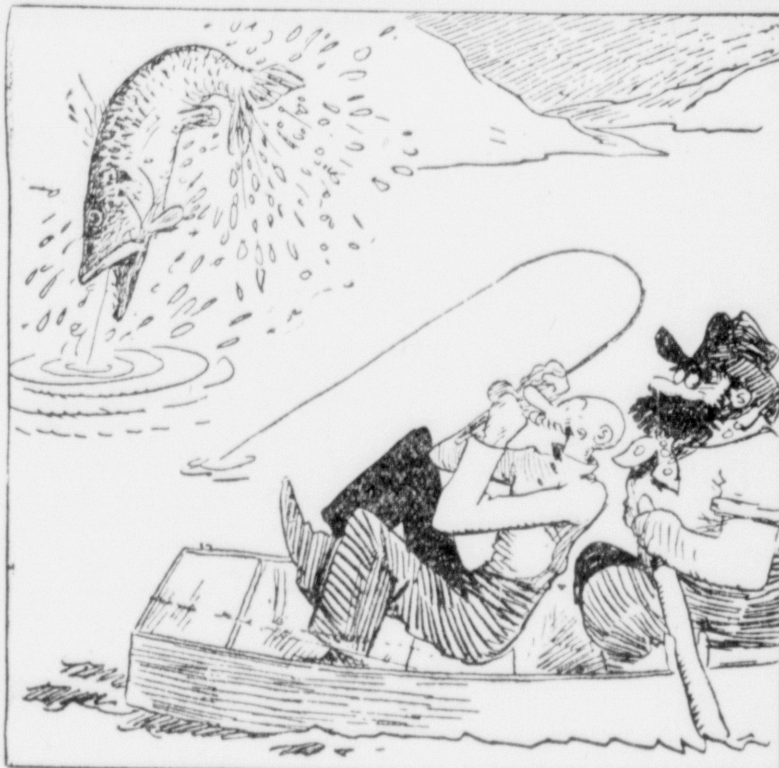

BIG SISTER—Realized Ambitions.

ONCE MORE THE UNSEEN Foe HAS STRUCK. A WEIGHT OF HAY KNOCKED BETH AND DONNIE OFF THE LADDER THEY WERE CLIMBING TO LOOK FOR EGGS IN THE HAYMOW.

THE GUMPS—Soup's On.

By SIDNEY SMITH

ETTA KETT—The Big Reason!

By PAUL ROBINSON

MUGGS MCGINNIS—It's the Principal of the Thing!

By WALLY BISHOP

HIGH PRESSURE PETE—50-50

By SWAN

"CAP" STUBBS—Poor Li'l Cappy!

By EDWIN

FIVE ACCUSED OF DYNAMITING RIVER AND DESTROYING FISH

Three boys and two older youths who are said to have adopted modern methods and gone fishing on a large scale face charges in connection with alleged destruction of a large quantity of fish in the Little Miami River July 17 and 18 by the use of explosives.

The quintet is being prosecuted by Ernest Harner, Greene County game warden.

Three minors, Ralph Smith, 16, John Thurman, 17, and Richard Mattox, 17, accused of delinquency, have been released pending a hearing before Juvenile Judge S. C. Wright next week. Harold Stafford, 25, is at liberty under $300 bond awaiting a hearing on the more serious charge of dynamiting the river to destroy fish. He pleaded not guilty. The fifth suspect is Francis Dudley, about 22, who has not been arraigned.

Authorities are endeavoring to link the youths with the reported theft of about fifteen sticks of dynamite from the Miami Fertilizer Co. plant at Trebels recently. The explosives were removed from a concrete box.

A lock on the box had been broken with the aid of a screw driver found nearby but it is believed the youths may have obtained caps and fuses at Cedarville.

The dynamite was not missed until several days after the robbery occurred, according to Glenn J. Noggle, superintendent of the plant.

Warden Harner, who is prosecuting the youths, asserted the Little Miami River was dynamited on two occasions, once at a railroad bridge west of Trebels and again at the iron bridge on the Fairground Road.

In both instances large quantities of fish were killed, it is said.

SIX SURVIVORS OF CHURCH TO "CARRY ON" UNTIL FINISH

MORRISTOWN, O., July 27.—Six surviving members of the once large congregation of the Morristown Baptist Church, have decided to "carry on" although the church treasury is empty and the building is falling into ruin.

Half a century ago the little brick church was filled at each service. Good Baptist worshippers came from twenty miles around, winter or summer, rain or shine.

Members died or moved away. Walls of the church began to crumble and finally there were but members of the old congregation left. They hired a minister from a nearby town to preach a sermon once a month. His pay was $3.

Even that plan failed for the money could not always be raised. Recently the six members met to decide what should be done.

"Shall we vote to sell the church or carry on," the chairman of the little assembly questioned. They voted. The ballots were counted. "We'll carry on by God's grace," announced the chairman.

William H. Sipe, 76, leader of the choir, donated his service in repairing the walls and placed shades at the windows. He sang alone at the last meeting, standing beside the antiquated organ just as he did fifty years ago when there were thirty members of the choir at his back.

Services will be held once a month. One of the six will act as the minister. Oil for the lamps on the wall will be donated. Although electric wires pass the building, the congregation cannot afford the luxury of incandescent lights.

But until the few remaining members pass on, the crumbling vine-clad church will ring with the voices of the staunch worshippers who refuse to see their little church abandoned.

THREE EXECUTED AIR OUTSIDE LOOP

MOONSVILLE, W. Va., July 27.—Captain J. W. Hunt, chief test pilot and instructor at Langin Field and Orville Collingwood, an aviation student of Martins Ferry, Ohio, are the only persons except Lieut. Jimmy Doolittle of the U. S. Army, to negotiate successfully the outside loop.

The flyers had no intention of accomplishing the feat but as Hunt was in the act of showing his pupil how to get out of a tail spin the student froze onto the controls of the plane and completed the loop while flying 3,000 feet over Moonsville while 5,000 persons assembled at the field watched.

The pilot pulled the ship out of the bank and landed safely.

DEMONSTRATIONS FEATURE MEETING

Demonstrations by Misses Marjetta Shoup, Thelma Stewart and Louise Cosler featured the regular meeting of the Blue Bird Four-H Sewing Club of Beavercreek Twp. at the home of Miss Thelma Barth, Wednesday.

During the business session the members discussed a float to be made for the Fair this year.

Following the meeting games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Barth, Wednesday, July 31.

Marathon Golfers

Marathon golf is the sport indulged in by Harvey Griggs, left, and Harold Stelk, Davenport, Ia., who believe they established a world's record, playing 126 holes in 14½ hours.

Farm Notes

400 BU. POTATO CROP AT TEST FARM

Irish Cobblers Lead Early Ohio in Ohio Experiment Station Potato Variety Test

More than 400 bushels of potatoes per acre were harvested from several of the fertility and variety test plots on the Washington County truck experiment farm near Marietta. In the variety tests the Irish Cobbler outyielded the Early Ohio variety by more than eighty bushels per acre.

The field was planted March 28

and the potatoes were ready to dig July 10. The plants received three applications of Bordeaux dust. The plots were fertilized with a 6-10-8 mixture at the rate of 1,300 pounds per acre. Additional nitrate of soda applied as a side dressing after the plants were up was of no benefit.

The experiments included comparisons of certified seed from North Dakota and from Michigan. The Michigan seed produced one sprout from each piece and outyielded the North Dakota seed which had two sprouts from most of the pieces.

Hills nine inches apart in the row yielded thirty-four bushels more per acre than hills twelve inches apart. Two-ounce pieces spaced twelve inches apart yielded fifty-four bushels more than one-ounce pieces spaced the same distance.

The Ohio Experiment Station has conducted experiments with early cabbage, tomatoes, cucumbers, and sweet corn for fifteen years on the Washington County truck experiment farm these crops having made the Marietta district famous as a vegetable center. Potatoes are grown to a very limited extent in the district, but John Bughnell, potato specialist at the experiment station, in the light of these experiments, believes that potatoes are due to increase in popularity on the fertile soils of the Muskingum River valley.

SALE CONFIRMED; OTHER COURT NEWS

Sale of property to Samuel Engelman for $1,900 has been confirmed and distribution of the proceeds ordered in the case of The Peoples Building and Savings Co. against Anna Boyd and others in Common Pleas Court. The plaintiff holds a first mortgage and the purchaser a second mortgage.

CASE DISMISSED

On motion of the plaintiffs, the suit of Carlton Grieve and others against Raymond D. Grieve has been ordered dismissed in Common Pleas Court.

NAMED ADMINISTRATOR

Charles O. Delph has been appointed administrator of the estate of William McCarty, late of Bath Twp., with bond of $5,000 in Probate Court. O. B. Kaufman, Frank Massey and Wilbur Morris were named appraisers.

SALE AUTHORIZED

Private sale of personal property belonging to the estate of Elizabeth A. Miller, deceased, has been authorized in Probate Court.

JONES SAYS:

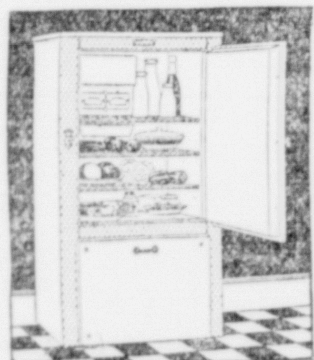

"In other departments of the store you may seek advertised merchandise at lower than advertised prices but at the soda fountain you want quality. We are trying to sell you cleanliness, comfort, tastiness, and service. Only pure fruits and syrups are used. Our specialties are chocolate sodas, chocolate sundae and chocolate malted milk."

D. D. Jones, Druggist No. 43 E. Main St. Xenia, O.

Only $205*

f. o. b. Kitchen

A new Frigidaire Porcelain-on-steel Outside and inside

Call at our display room and see everything for yourself. You can have this Model AP-1 Frigidaire installed in your home for only a few dollars down—the balance arranged to suit your convenience. Equally liberal terms may be had on any Frigidaire.

GAS and ELECTRIC SHOP

THE GAS and ELECTRIC APPLIANCE COMPANY
37 S. Detroit St. Telephone 595
(THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT CO.)
XENIA DISTRICT

VIGOR!

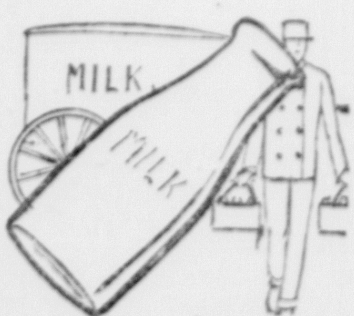

FOR VACATION ACTIVITIES

on sultry days when heavy foods fail to tempt your lagging appetite keep up your "pep" and energy with an abundance of our rich

SPECIAL JERSEY MILK

Far higher in nourishment than ordinary milk and so much better in flavor! A registered, tubercular tested Greene County Jersey herd furnishes every drop of this milk. It is always perfectly fresh and free from germs. Only 1c more per pint than ordinary milk.

USE IT FOR MAKING ICE CREAM—IT'S A REAL TREAT!

THE DAIRY PRODUCTS CO.

135 HILL STREET

CALL 39 FOR WHIPPING CREAM

Our cream is guaranteed to whip satisfactorily or adjustment is made.

COFFEE CREAM

Rich, yellow Jersey cream that is fine for every table purpose.

BUTTER AND BUTTERMILK CREAMED COTTAGE CHEESE Mixed with an abundance of fresh, sweet cream! It's delicious.

They speak your language

THERE was a time when you had to take an interpreter in- to the store with you when you went shopping, a few hundred miles from home. The things they had for sale were hard to recognize. Even familiar products were sold in strange forms, and under queer names.

It was one of the disadvantages of travel that had to be taken along with pleasures.

Nowadays the millions of Americans who go visiting their neighbors North, South, East and West, encounter no such difficulty. The picturesque beauty, the quaint customs that make other sections of the country different and delightful have all their old appeal. You can still hear mellow mission bells in California. You can eat terrapin in Baltimore, or sleep in a Vermont farm-house under an Ethan Allen quilt. But in any of these localities you can buy your favorite toilet soap, or breakfast cereal, or automobile tires as readily as in your own town.

The trade-marks and the packages speak your language. National advertising has made good brands of merchandise uniformly known from coast to coast.

If you read the advertisements and use advertised goods, you are at home in any store in America.

FIVE ACCUSED OF DYNAMITING RIVER AND DESTROYING FISH

Three boys and two older youths who are said to have adopted modern methods and gone fishing on a large scale face charges in connection with alleged destruction of a large quantity of fish in the Little Miami River July 17 and 18 by the use of explosives.

The quintet is being prosecuted by Ernest Harner, Greene County game warden.

Three minors, Ralph Smith, 16, John Thurman, 17, and Richard Mattox, 17, accused of delinquency, have been released pending a hearing before Juvenile Judge S. C. Wright next week. Harold Stafford, 25, is at liberty under $300 bond awaiting a hearing on the more serious charge of dynamiting the river to destroy fish. He pleaded not guilty. The fifth suspect is Francis Dudley, about 22, who has not been arraigned.

Authorities are endeavoring to link the youths with the reported theft of about fifteen sticks of dynamite from the Miami Fertilizer Co. plant at Trebeins recently. The explosives were removed from a concrete box.

A lock on the box had been broken with the aid of a screw driver found nearby but it is believed the youths may have obtained caps and fuses at Cedarville.

The dynamite was not missed until several days after the robbery occurred, according to Glenn J. Noggle, superintendent of the plant.

Warden Harner, who is prosecuting the youths, asserted the Little Miami River was dynamited on two occasions, once at a railroad bridge west of Trebeins and again at the iron bridge on the Fairground Road.

In both instances large quantities of fish were killed, it is said.

SIX SURVIVORS OF CHURCH TO "CARRY ON" UNTIL FINISH

MORRISTOWN, O., July 27.—Six surviving members of the once large congregation of the Morristown Baptist Church, have decided to "carry on" although the church treasury is empty and the building is falling into ruin.

Half a century ago the little brick church was filled at each service. Good Baptist worshippers came from twenty miles around, winter or summer, rain or shine.

Members died or moved away. Walls of the church began to crumble and finally there were but six members of the old congregation left. They hired a minister from a nearby town to preach a sermon once a month. His pay was $3.

Even that plan failed for the money could not always be raised. Recently the six members met to decide what should be done.

"Shall we vote to sell the church or carry on," the chairman of the little assembly questioned. They voted. The ballots were counted.

"We'll carry on by God's grace," announced the chairman.

William H. Sipe, 76, leader of the choir, donated his service in repairing the walls and placed shades at the windows. He sang alone at the last meeting, standing beside the antiquated organ just as he did fifty years ago when there were thirty members of the choir at his back.

Services will be held once a month. One of the six will act as the minister. Oil for the lamps on the wall will be donated. Although electric wires pass the building, the congregation cannot afford the luxury of incandescent lights.

But until the few remaining members pass on, the crumbling vine-clad church will ring with the voices of the staunch worshippers who refuse to see their little church abandoned.

THREE EXECUTED AIR OUTSIDE LOOP

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 27.—Captain J. W. Hunt, chief test pilot and instructor at Langley Field and Orville Collingwood, an aviation student of Martins Ferry, Ohio, are the only persons except Lieut. Jimmy Doolittle of the U. S. Army, to negotiate successfully the outside loop.

The flyers had no intention of accomplishing the feat but as Hunt was in the act of showing his pupil how to get out of a tail spin the student froze onto the controls of the plane and completed the loop while flying 3,000 feet over Moundsville while 5,000 persons assembled at the field, watched.

The pilot pulled the ship out of the bank and landed safely.

DEMONSTRATIONS FEATURE MEETING

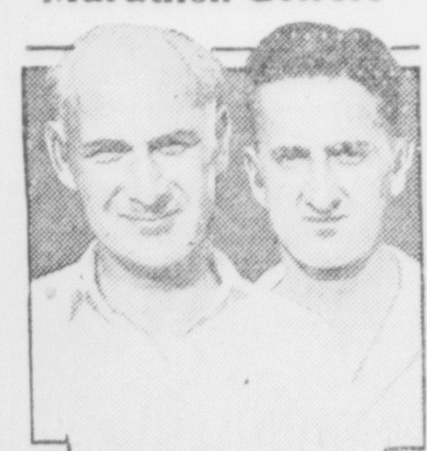

Demonstrations by Misses Marietta Shoup, Thelma Stewart and Louise Cosler featured the regular meeting of the Blue Bird Four-H Sewing Club of Beavercreek Twp. at the home of Miss Thelma Barth, Wednesday.

During the business session the members discussed a float to be made for the Fair this year.

Following the meeting games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Barth, Wednesday, July 31.

Marathon Golfers

Marathon golf is the sport indulged in by Harvey Griggs, left, and Harold Stolk, Davenport, Ia., who believe they established a world's record, playing 126 holes in 14 1/2 hours.

Farm Notes

400 BU. POTATO CROP AT TEST FARM

Irish Cobblers Lead Early Ohio in Ohio Experiment Station Potato Variety Test

More than 400 bushels of potatoes per acre were harvested from several of the fertility and variety test plots on the Washington County truck experiment farm near Marietta. In the variety tests the Irish Cobbler outyielded the Early Ohio variety by more than eighty bushels per acre.

The field was planted March 28

and the potatoes were ready to dig July 10. The plants received three applications of bordeaux dust. The plots were fertilized with a 6-10-8 mixture at the rate of 1,300 pounds per acre. Additional nitrate of soda applied as a side dressing after the plants were up was of no benefit.

The experiments included comparisons of certified seed from North Dakota and from Michigan. The Michigan seed produced one sprout from each piece and outyielded the North Dakota seed which had two sprouts from most of the pieces.

Hills nine inches apart in the row yielded thirty-four bushels more per acre than hills twelve inches apart. Two-ounce pieces spaced twelve inches apart yielded fifty-four bushels more than one-ounce pieces spaced the same distance.

The Ohio Experiment Station has conducted experiments with early cabbage, tomatoes, cucumbers, and sweet corn for fifteen years on the Washington County truck experiment farm these crops having made the Marietta district famous as a vegetable center. Potatoes are grown to a very limited extent in the district, but John Hughnell, potato specialist at the experiment station, in the light of these experiments, believes that potatoes are due to increase in popularity on the fertile soils of the Muskingum River valley.

SALE CONFIRMED; OTHER COURT NEWS

Sale of property to Samuel Engelman for $1,900 has been confirmed and distribution of the proceeds ordered in the case of The Peoples Building and Savings Co. against Anna Boyd and others in Common Pleas Court. The plaintiff holds a first mortgage and the purchaser a second mortgage.

CASE DISMISSED

On motion of the plaintiffs, the suit of Carlton Grieve and others against Raymond D. Grieve has been ordered dismissed in Common Pleas Court.

NAMED ADMINISTRATOR

Charles O. Delph has been appointed administrator of the estate of William McCarty, late of Bath Twp., with bond of $5,000 in Probate Court. O. B. Kauffman, Frank Massey and Wilbur Morris were named appraisers.

SALE AUTHORIZED

Private sale of personal property belonging to the estate of Elizabeth A. Miller, deceased, has been authorized in Probate Court.

JONES SAYS:

"In other departments of the store you may seek advertised merchandise at lower than advertised prices but at the soda fountain you want quality.

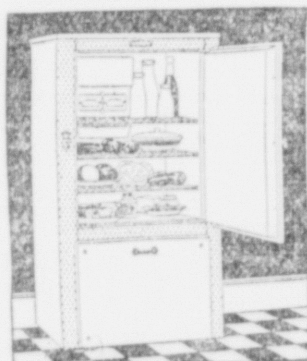

"We are trying to sell you cleanliness, comfort, tastiness, and service. Only pure fruits and syrups are used. Our specialties are chocolate sodas, chocolate sundae and chocolate malted milk."

D. D. Jones, Druggist
No. 43 E. Main St. Xenia, O.

Only $205*

f. o. b. Kitchen

A new Frigidaire
Porcelain-on-steel
Outside and inside

Call at our display room and see everything for yourself. You can have this Model AP-4 Frigidaire installed in your home for only a few dollars down—the balance arranged to suit your convenience. Equally liberal terms may be had on any Frigidaire.

GAS and ELECTRIC SHOP

THE GAS and ELECTRIC APPLIANCE COMPANY
37 S. Detroit St. Telephone 595
(THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT CO.)
XENIA DISTRICT

VIGOR!

FOR VACATION ACTIVITIES

on sultry days when heavy foods fail to tempt your lagging appetite keep up your "pep" and energy with an abundance of our rich

SPECIAL
JERSEY
MILK

Far higher in nourishment than ordinary milk and so much better in flavor! A registered, tubercular tested Greene County Jersey herd furnishes every drop of this milk. It is always perfectly fresh and free from germs. Only 1c more per pint than ordinary milk.

USE IT FOR MAKING ICE CREAM—IT'S A REAL TREAT!

CALL 39 FOR WHIPPING CREAM

Our cream is guaranteed to whip satisfactorily or adjustment is made.

COFFEE CREAM

Rich, yellow Jersey cream that is fine for every table purpose.

BUTTER AND BUTTERMILK
CREAMED COTTAGE CHEESE
Mixed with an abundance of fresh, sweet cream! It's delicious.

THE DAIRY PRODUCTS CO.

135 HILL STREET

They speak your language

THERE was a time when you had to take an interpreter into the store with you when you went shopping, a few hundred miles from home. The things they had for sale were hard to recognize. Even familiar products were sold in strange forms, and under queer names.

It was one of the disadvantages of travel that had to be taken along with pleasures.

Nowadays the millions of Americans who go visiting their neighbors North, South, East and West, encounter no such difficulty. The picturesque beauty, the quaint customs that make other sections of the country different and delightful have all their old appeal. You can still hear mellow mission bells in California. You can eat terrapin in Baltimore, or sleep in a Vermont farm-house under an Ethan Allen quilt. But in any of these localities you can buy your favorite toilet soap, or breakfast cereal, or automobile tires as readily as in your own town.

The trade-marks and the packages speak your language. National advertising has made good brands of merchandise uniformly known from coast to coast.

If you read the advertisements and use advertised goods, you are at home in any store in America.